The Daily Telegraph in an article recording the enormous increase in the number of women smokers says; "The great middle class is smoking as unconstrainedly as the aristocracy, and the working women are following. One well known woman of title is sometimes seen ertking in the Ripley road with a briar-wood pipe in her mouth. Inquiries made among doctors show that the bleycle is responsible for much, as with wheel parties, has arisen a freedom of manner unknown in the presence of a chaperon.'

Licutenant Moses of the cavalry has created a sensation in Austrian sporting circles. As the result of a bet he jumped in uniform, into the Danube at Klosteruenberg and swam to the opposite side in 10 minutes and 10 seconds. The river there is 250 metres wide and the current carried him 100 metres down stream. The temperature of the water was three degrees above zero, but the lieutenant was Scientists are excited over the authenticated identity of the tomb of Osirle, the chief god of the Egyptians and brother (convert) of Isls at Luxor, a village of Upper Egypt, built on the site of Thebes. The news was at first received with in-credulity, but all doubts were quieted by a telegram from the director-general of executions to the president of the Egyptian council of ministers. The discovery was made by M. Ameliau, who in a letter also affirms positively that he has discovered that the tomb of the gods Seth and Horus is in the same acropylis. The Pall Mall Gazette says there is no doubt this is a great discovery. Thus we know the tombs of the last three god kings of the second of the divine dynas ties which dates back 19,000 years.
