The special council meeting which was called for tomorrow night has been postponed on account of the public celebration in honor of Admiral Dewey. On Monday the mayor will issue another call for a council meeting to be held Tuesday night.

Harper whiskey is rapidly becoming the national beverage. It's the one thing all parties agree upon. Republicans, democrats, populists. Even the "know nothing" party knows one thing, the merits of Harper whiskey. Sold by Foard & Stokes Co., Astoria, Oregon.

Northern Pacific railroad trains leave Portland daily at 11 o'clock a. m. for Tacoma, Spokane, and the east. Close connections made at Spokane for Rosland, Portland, Sandow and British Columbia mining camps. For maps and information call on or address C. W. Stone, Astoria, Oregon.

A telegram from Toledo published in the Oregonian states that the glee clubs are singing the campaign song "Theodore Thurston Geer," first introduced in that place. The fact is that the song was composed by a member of the Astoria glee club and sung by them for the first time during the recent republican state convention.

Professor J. H. Ackerman, the republican nominee for state superintendent of instruction, was in the city yesterday, a most of Mr. F. L. Dunbar. Professor Ackerman stated to an Astorian reporter that he found abundant evidence throughout the state of an overwhelming majority for the republican ticket at the coming state elections.

The Shaw company last night closed one of the most successful theatrical engagements ever made in this city. The play was "Kentucky Girl." The house was filled to overflowing every seat in the house having been sold by 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A large audience also attended the matinee, which was a reproduction of "All the Comforts of Home."

Mr. Ira Bramwell, of Minneapolis, traveling freight agent of the Northern Steamship company, spent yesterday in Astoria with Mr. William Harder, general agent of the Great Northern railroad, various summer cammeries and other industries of the city, and expressed themselves as well pleased with the prospects for business here this season.

It was learned at the county court yesterday that the story of Mr. Glaser of the Nehalem in regard to his cedar mill was only partially true. He had a small mill there some years ago, but it is doubtful if it could turn out any lumber today. As to the road matter, there are but four or five people living on the road leading to his place from the main Olney road, and but little work has been done upon it.

Major Charles E. Kilbourne, paymaster U. S. A., and his younger son J. C. Kilbourne, were here yesterday and paid a regular visit to Fort Canby. Major Kilbourne comes from a family of fighters and before the news of the declaration of war with Spain telegraphed his application to the government to be transferred to the front. His elder son, a West Point man, is now at Tampa and has his first commission as second lieutenant of the First infantry daily expecting orders to go to Cuba. Major Kilbourne's grandfather was a colonel in the revolutionary war and his cousin, Byron Kilbourne, celebrated in the war of the rebellion, was an officer in the Twenty-fourth Wisconsin.

There is an industry in Astoria that deserves the patronage of everyone who has the welfare of the city at heart. C. M. Cutbush is manufacturing an excellent dust extermiator, known as "Dustine," and those who have used it thus far, pronounce it a superior article. "Dustine" on a floor not only gives it a clean, fresh appearance, but makes it possible to sweep without raising a cloud of dust. Cutbush's "Dustine" is manufactured in Astoria and excels anything of a similar kind on the market. Patronize home industry.

Everyone able to secure an invitation ticket for the railroad excursion to Portland will take in Astoria's jubilee celebration. Chairman Welch of the committee announces that the train will be run on the 15th of May, leaving Astoria at about 5 o'clock in the morning. Several hours will be spent in Portland and the return made the same day. A celebration is planned to take place in Portland suitable to the occasion. Mr. Hammond expects to be here and accompany the excursion. The road will be opened for regular traffic on the 17th. All those who are entitled to take part in the excursion, which is designed to accommodate the donors to the subsidy and the subsidy workers should leave their names with the committee at once.

It is a strange but true fact that there has been such a heavy business in this state this season that the O. R. & N. Co. has been compelled to turn over to the Southern Pacific hundreds of tons of wheat for San Francisco because the steamers were unable to handle them. This condition of trade is due largely to peculiar market conditions and an unusually large tonnage moving to San Francisco. In addition the Southern Pacific has made exceptionally low rates in order to keep wheat and lumber out of Portland as against Willamette river rates. Naturally they prefer to handle the traffic via San Francisco. As low as $1.25 per ton on wheat and about $3 per thousand on lumber have recently been quoted.

The news of Dewey's victory in Manila yesterday was the sole topic of discussion throughout the city. The extent of the victory as enshrined by the bulletins was somewhat of a surprise to nearly every one as each bulletin, one after another, told the story that not a single American sailor had been killed and only six slightly wounded. That such a brilliant and overwhelming victory had been achieved by Dewey without the sacrifice of life caused some speculation as to the truthfulness of the report. But each succeeding bulletin left no doubt as to the authenticity of the news, and Astorians will give vent to their feelings in a public demonstration tomorrow night. As it is known that Astorians participated in the battle, it is gratifying news to their relatives and friends in the city that they came out of the engagement conquerors, and lived to tell of the part they took in what is regarded as one of the greatest naval achievements in the world's history. The prompt action of the naval reserve company in taking the initiative in celebrating the victory at their meeting Friday night is very commendable, and adds laurels to the company as being a patriotic and intelligent body of citizens.

Mr. R. L. Boyle, the resulting real estate man, who has been traveling in Eastern Oregon and Washington, selling Astoria property, left last night for Tacoma.

ALL FOR DEWEY. When the first bulletin was received yesterday morning announcing Admiral Dewey's report from Manila and was posted on the boards in front of the Astoria office the few assembled people sent up a spontaneous shout of joy. In a moment thousands gathered in the street and for hours Dewey's glorious victory was the sole topic of conversation. At the instance of Mr. Harder of the Northern railroad, three cheers for Dewey and his men were given with a will. The following telegram from it was created much interest: Iwaco, May 7.—To the Astorian—Iwaco celebrates Admiral Dewey's victory by firing the admiral salute. The town is dressed in holiday attire and all the citizens are celebrating the event. Scarborough Head and McJowan's join us.
