Fred Kessell, J. M. Richardson, R. H. Harper, Portland; A. Oppenheimer, N. Meyer, J. M. Ping, San Francisco; H. W. McFoot, W. C. Hyman, Chicago; Charles Stall, Young's river, are at the Occident.

If you have hides, wool, furs, rags, bones, lead, brass, copper, or any kind of junk for sale, ship it to H. M. Gaston, 106 Fourteenth street, Astoria, Oregon, or write him and he will call at your place and get it. He pays cash.

Contractor Lebeck is doing the planking on Grand avenue and Thirty-first streets. He reports that all kinds of contract work and building are improving, and the prospects are excellent for a large increase in this class of work the present season.

Chief Hallock yesterday arrested a man giving the name of William Henry for having stolen a bundle of blankets and other articles from the Telephone dock. The man was given a hearing in the justice court in the afternoon and sentenced to six months in the county jail.

Northern Pacific railroad trains leave Portland daily at 11 o'clock a. m. for Tacoma, Spokane, and the east. Close connection made at Spokane for Roseland, Nelson, Sandow and British Columbia mining camps. For maps and information call on or address C. W. Stone, Astoria, Oregon.

New Ties at DuBar's.

Mr. J. W. Williams yesterday received a telegram from Forest Hill, California, stating that A. B. Sutherland, a former resident of Astoria and a well-known member of the Foresters, was killed by being caught in the belting of the machinery of the gold mine in which he was interested.

Captain Jack Asbury yesterday afternoon received a dispatch from Portland stating that The Dalles and Astoria ladies' bowling teams played an even match as to games. The Dalles winning by a few pins. Mrs. H. H. Incales of Astoria made the remarkable average score of 47. The Dalles men beat the Astoria team three straight.

The committee having in charge the railroad excursion Monday, in order that there may be no disappointment, wish it distinctly understood that tickets for passage must be shown before guests enter the train, that no children will be allowed upon the train and that tickets are not transferable. A transferred ticket will be taken up and the holder ejected from the train.

George Wilson and O. C. Smith were arraigned yesterday before Justice Abercrombie on a charge of having stolen a bag of clothing from Our Corner saloon. The theft occurred the previous evening and the men attempted to get out of town on the Potter yesterday morning, but were arrested by Officer Thompson just as the boat was leaving. The property was identified and the men were sentenced to three months in the county jail.

Owing to the extraordinary demand for railroad cars for transporting troops to supports it is impossible for the Astoria railroad to borrow foreign cars for tomorrow's excursion. The company regrets that on this account it cannot permit the committee to invite all who would like to go. The coaches available will hold only so many people. It is realized that many applied too late to get accommodation, but the matter cannot be mended now.

A committee of the Portland lodge of Elks is in the city arranging with the Astoria railroad for an excursion next Sunday to Astoria under the auspices of that body. There will be more than twenty carloads of people, or about 2000 in all. It is not believed that there will be any hitch in the negotiations, as so many visitors in the city at one time would mean a big thing. At the rates usually prevailing for such excursions there will be no question about the deal being closed. Astoria Elks are very anxious to entertain their Portland brothers.

Through the personal efforts of Commissioner J. O. Hanborn of Astoria, who was assisted two days by Commissioner W. E. Hurd of Eastern Oregon, over $400 has been subscribed to the trans-Mississippi fair fund by the people of Astoria and on the river. Of this sum $72.30 has been sent into Treasurer Metachan in cash. The full list of subscribers is not at hand. Among the first sent in are: Astoria & Columbia River railroad, $100; First National bank, Astoria, $25; Pacific Sheet Metal Works, Astoria, $25; Sam O. Gorman, Portland and Astoria, $10.

The people of Astoria are soon to number among the attractions of their city a public park. The spirit which is behind an enterprise of this kind is commendable. Astoria may not need a park as a breathing place for its population as much as many cities of its size not so favorably located in the matter of ready accessibility to parks fashioned and maintained by the lavish hand of nature, but her desire to possess one in token of her progress in civilization is not the less commendable on that account.—Oregonian.

The indications are that tomorrow's excursion to Portland will be the largest ever known in this city and that it will mark the beginning of a new era in the history of the community. Almost a thousand invitations have been issued, and it is anticipated that a joy time will be had on the journey to the metropolis. It is predicted by the wise-ones that the joining of Astoria and Portland by bands of steel will more closely unite the two cities in business and commerce. Jealousies will be thrown aside, and the leaders in business circles of both places will work closely together to promote the general welfare of Oregon. When the mayor and chamber of commerce of Portland exchange greetings tomorrow afternoon with the mayor and chamber of commerce and citizens of Astoria, it will cement a friendship not to be broken.

WHEN TRAVELING Whether on pleasure bent or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver, and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches, and other forms of sickness. A PROPHETIC ODE TO DEWEY. (On Commodore Dewey's departure for Hong Kong last November a stanza was given for him at the Metropolitan Club in Washington, at which the following verses—then scarcely appreciated perhaps at their true prophetic worth—were read by Colonel Archibald Hopkins.)

Fill all your glasses full tonight; The wind is off the shore; And be it feast or be it fight. We pledge the commodore. Through days of storm, through days of calm, On broad Pacific seas; At anchor off the Isles of Palm, Or with the Japanese; Ashore, afloat, on deck, below, Or where our buildings roar; To back a friend or breast a foe, We pledge the commodore. We know our honor'll be unstained Where'er his pennant flies; Our rights respected and maintained, Whatever power defies. And when he takes the homeward tack Beneath an admiral's flag, We'll hail the day that brings him back And have another jag. (Today Colonel Hopkins has added this postscript to his toast.)

Along the far Philippine coast, Where flows the flag of Spain, Our commodore today can boast: "I'll never fly again." And up from all our hills and vales, From city, town and shore, A mighty shout the welkin hails: "Well done, brave commodore!" Now let your admiral's pennant fly, You've won the day, and share; Where heroes love to fight and die, Right in the battle's van. —New York Tribune.
