The Tidings has a greater circulation in Ashland and its trade territory than all other Jackson County papers combined.
Entered at the Ashland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

BIGGER AND BETTER

The Daily Tidings has been enlarged. In order to handle all the telegraph and city news and still accommodate our advertisers it was found necessary to enlarge the paper. You will observe the Tidings pages now are the same size as the Oregonian and somewhat larger than the Portland Journal and Medford Mail Tribune. The increase in size gives us room for all the news and it is our desire and hope to supply readers with a first class paper.

For the first two issues we owe an explanation. Our equipment was only large enough to print a six column paper. That was too small to accommodate all of our telegraph and local news. As the telegraph came over the wire at great expense we printed that and sacrificed the local. We purchased new material for a larger paper and it arrived this morning. Hereafter the paper will come the larger size and carry all the local as well as the telegraph. We thank our subscribers for their tolerance on the first two issues.

PEOPLE ANXIOUS TO COME TO ASHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose are back from Crescent City where they had been spending several days enjoying the ocean breezes at that resort. While there they met some San Diego people who had stopped in the Ashland auto-camp on their way to the coast from the south, and they informed the Roses that they were perfectly delighted with Ashland and its environments. They are planning on stopping for a more extended visit on their return home and are thinking strongly of locating here if they can dispose of their property in San Diego.
Mr. and Mrs. Rose also became acquainted with a wealthy dairyman at Crescent City who is wishing to come to Ashland for an extended stay if he can get a furnished apartment. This man is a sufferer from asthma and has learned of Ashland's climate in regard to helping that disease, and is most anxious to come here.

HUNTER LOST FROM MATES IN WOODS

Lost from his comrades in the forest wilds of the Dead Indian country where he was forced to spend the night was the unpleasant experience of Raymond Ruger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ruger of this city. In company with several other boys Raymond went out Monday on a deer hunt. Camp was made in the forest, and in the afternoon Raymond started out alone in the search of deer. Night came, and he failed to return, and his companions, after searching for him in vain, sent in to Ashland to Mr. Ruger for help. The latter summoned ten men to his assistance, and after searching through the night, they came on the missing boy at daylight as he was attempting to reach camp. Darkness had overtaken him in the forest and he could not find camp and was forced to spend the night in the woods.

GIVES PRAISE TO THE "JOY WAY"

C. J. McIntosh, agricultural writer for O. A. C., was in Ashland Tuesday looking over the valley with Prof. McCormick of the experiment station. He says Albert Joy has demonstrated most wonderfully on fertilizer for peaches on dry land this year. He left for Klamath and promised to write a story on the Joy orchard when he returned to Corvallis.

Essentials of Arithmetic, book II. Dictionary. Penholder, pencil, and tablet. Industrial and Applied Arts, and such other drawing material as directed by the teacher.

Book list for the Junior and Senior high schools will be given to the students by their teachers on Monday, September 8.

The division line for the grades at Hawthorne and Junior high, will be Gresham and Third street. All pupils, living on the west of these streets, will go to the Junior high. Those living on the east side of the line, to Hawthorne. (This includes the first six grades. All the seventh and eighth grades will attend the Junior high, regardless of place of residence.)

No pupil who will not be six years of age on or before October 1, 1919, will be allowed to enter this semester. Parents are urged to get the little ones in school the first week wherever possible. If a pupil starts well, he should begin his work with an even chance of success with the other members of the class.

The regular school texts may be purchased at McNair Brothers, or the East Side Pharmacy. Tablets, penholders, drawing material may be secured at any of the drug stores or dealers carrying them.

DELEGATES WILL GO BY SPECIAL TRAIN

The Ashland citizens who are planning on going to Columbus, Ohio, to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and Women's Relief Corps, which will be in session there this month, will leave Ashland Wednesday, September 3, for Portland. There they will take a special train that will take all Oregon delegates over the continent, and will start out from Portland September 4. Augmenting the number of delegates from this city who have planned to go, the list of whom was published in Friday's issue of the Tidings, will be Mrs. Delia Acklin.

The Social Realm

Dinner for Departing Friends
Among the local entertainment given recently in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Titus of Philadelphia, who has been spending the summer in Ashland and who expects to leave shortly for her home, and Mrs. Myrtle Bostough, who will accompany her, was a farewell dinner by Mrs. P. S. Provost and Mrs. A. H. Pracht which was held in Lithia park. There was plenty of good things to eat and much fun that kept the party there until a late hour. The diners were Dr. and Mrs. G. O. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pracht, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost, Mrs. Myrtle Bostough and Mrs. Lloyd Titus.

Interesting Program
The girls of the Baptist Sunday school, all under ninety years of age, gave their program last Sunday at the church. The unusually fine program and tasty decorations greatly discouraged the boys of the church, who are to demonstrate their ability in conducting a live, wide-awake Sunday school next Sunday. Leslie Phillips is the leader for the boys and he and his assistants are working overtime. Much credit is given Mrs. Hess, the leader of the girls, for last Sunday's entertainment.

Missionary Society
The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet Friday of this week at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. G. H. Yeo on Bush street. Every member plans to be there. If your dues are not paid bring them. A good program. Come.

EXAMINATIONS FOR UNFINISHED WORK

All pupils desiring to make up unfinished work from the close of last semester, may have examinations at the Senior high school on Friday, September 5, 1919. Examinations will begin promptly at 9 o'clock.

Any pupils or patrons desiring to interview the principal of the high school in regard to the placement of students or the courses of study, will find him in his office at the Senior high school building from 10 to 12 and from 2 to 4 each day of the week beginning September 1.

BEGINS WORK IN KLAMATH DISTRICT

Rev. C. A. Edwards of the local Methodist church, who has been appointed to fill the vacancy of district superintendent in Klamath district caused by the death of Dr. Van Fossen, will start this week on his work. Saturday, September 13, Mr. Edwards will go to the Indian agency in Klamath county, where an all-day business meeting will be held. Sunday, September 14, will be a gathering of all the Indians of the agency. Services will be conducted by Rev. Edwards in the forenoon and will be followed by a big dinner. This event had been planned by the late Dr. Van Fossen, and it is Mr. Edwards' intention to carry out the arrangements faithfully. In the evening of that date Mr. Edwards will preach in Klamath Falls.

TELEPHONE RATES

And the Prices Which the Public Is Asked to Pay For Telephone Service

To be just and reasonable, telephone rates or prices must cover the costs of rendering the service and leave a profit that will attract to the telephone industry a continuing supply of capital which is constantly required for extensions and improvements.

If rates yield more or less than that such amount they are not just. If they yield more they are excessive and unreasonable. If they yield less they are unreasonable and are against public interest because they result in a deteriorated service and capital is no longer attracted but directed to other industries that are more profitable and possibly the products of many such industries are of less importance to the public.

The present rates we believe to be just and reasonable. They were approved by the Postmaster-General and are effective by Act of Congress.

These rates are now being reviewed by the Public Service Commission of Oregon, which body assumes jurisdiction since the Government turned back the telephone properties to private ownership.
