Wallowa County Chieftain

County Pioneer Paper

Established in 1884. Published every Thursday by The Enterprise Press. Office East side Court House Square.

Entered in the postoffice at Enterprise, Ore., as second-class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. One year $1.50 Three months 50c. Invariably in Advance.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1909.

City and County

Mrs. W. R. Holmes spent Saturday in Wallowa,

Miss Margaret Mavor went to La Grande Saturday.

Rev. R. A. Moon left Tuesday morning for Eugene.

White Loaf Flour, $4.50 per barrel at E. M. & M. store.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Flowers have moved from Joseph to this city.

Oiaf Anderson of Powwatka was transacting buinsess at the county seat Tuesday.

Miss Cecile Chauvet arrived home Tuesday from an extended visit with dise business. relatives at Seattle.

Ed. Rodgers and C. O. Knodell returned home Saturday evening from a week's hunting trip.

Mrs. H. E. Merryman and children and her mother, Mrs. J. J. Putman, spent Monday in Wallowa, Rev. H. P. Peterson of John Day M. E. church, attended the union meetings in this city Friday night.

Attorney D. W. Sheahan returned Tuesday from Pendleton where he argued a case before the supreme court.

Wallowa High and Wallowa County High schools will play football at the ball grounds in this city, Sat urday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

State Deputy Simms visited the local Modern Woodman lodge Thursday night of last week and Friday night visited the Joseph lodge.

Ganaries.

The wholesale price of a male capary is about 70 cents in Germany. while a female costs only 17 cents.

R. S. & Z. Co.

ENTERPRISE

day evening. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Reavis went to La Grande Wednesday, where Mrs. Reavis will enter a hospital for an operation, which will be performed by Dr. E. A. Anderson, who accompanled them,

A. F. Linn purchased two lots in Alder View addition last week from C. S. Haney. Mr. Linn will at once begin the erection of a barn, and later will build a house on the lots.

Was there ever a more beautiful sight than the stately mountains around this lovely valley as they appeared Monday morning with their Brief News Items snow white caps and mantles, and the fluffy gray lace floating down their sides. The largest line of Baswood for Pyrographic work, Pyro outfits, ever brought to Wallowa county, at the drug store of Jackson & Weaver. Ladies please call and inspect quality, quantity, and prices, whether you desire to purchase or not, Born, to the wife of John Lang, Sunday, October 31, a nine pound son. Mr. Lang, formerly meat cutter for A. Price, went to Pendleton recently where he and Joe Allen, also of this place, have gone into partnership in the general merchan-

The Hotel Enterprise hack had two wheels broken in a runaway Saturday evening. The team from the W. A. Moss barn attached to the hack was left standing at the depot a few minutes before the train came in, and becoming frightened made a dash up town, running into the fence at J. A. French's residence. There was no one in the rig at the time. M. K. Boatman is visiting his son, County Clerk W. C. Boatman, for a few days. He is pleased with his new home near Milwaukie, a suburb of Portland. His special mission her at this time was to lease his farm near Lostine to the sugar company, which he did, the company taking the entire farm, buildings and all, and will use the place as the headquarters for the work in that territory. LaGrande Star: M. K. Boatman a land owner near Lostine, arrived from Portland yesterday and was in conference with Superintendent Bdam well of the Amalgamated Sugar company in regard to the proposition of easing a large tract of land in Wal lowa county for the growing of sugar beets. If the present plans are consummated there will be a large area of land near Lostine planted in beets the coming year.

The King's Business

The evangelistic meetings have

Hallowe'en Parties

Plus Ultra Club Party.

Mrs. E. W. Steal entertained the members of the Plus Ultra club of the high school at a halloween party at her home, Friday evening, About 9:30 the guests proceeded to the home where they were met by ghosts large and small to welcome them. One ghost, standing upon the walk. sllently directed the ladies around the darkened house to a ladder leading up to a window on the first floor, through which they were to enter, while the geatlemen were con- until a vacancy occurred. ducted up a laddr, leading over the porch to a second-story window. Up the custom of the establishment dropon entering they were given sealed walnuts containing riddles, the answers to which claimed their partaers for the evening.

The parlors were very tastful and unique in their decorations of evergreens and cat-talis upon the walls, autumn leaves thickly strewn upon the floor, and jack-o-lanterns shading amps and lighting all corners, and reat pine knots and small logs for seats.

All of the guests came masked, most of them as ghosts, and the festival of the spirits in the woods seemed fairly to have come true. A prize of a beautiful stickpin had been offered for the best sustained character of the evening. Mrs. Ivantoe and Miss Bothwell had been appointed judges, but they submitted he decision to popular vote which 'esulted in favor of Mrs. Ivanhoe, who represented Carrie Nation, but she very graciously declined in favor of Miss Julia Marvin, the next in order of vote. The old-time entertainment was splendidly carried out in the refreshments also, the hostess surprising the guests by a great k g of sweet cider, a large jar of delicious doughnuts, baskets of apples and tubs of popcorn. As midnight drew near the lights went out and ghost stories were told by the light from the grate. Promptly at 12 o'clock the guests departed, thanking the hostess for the most enjoyable time of the season.

A crowd of twenty high school young people, chaperoned by Misses Katherine Kay and Anna Richards enjoyed a Hallowe'en party Friday night. The Sorensen barn where the merry party met was decorated in true Hallowe'en fashion and Miss Richards as a gypsy fortune teller and Miss Kay as a witch proved excellent entertainers. Refreshments were served.

Miss May Sorensen entertained a party of girl friends Saturday evening from 4 to 7 o'clock. A jolly time wa been characterized within the past spent with refreshments and games week by a deepening of conviction. appropriate to the Hallowe'en season, purchase one, marry the girl 1 loved ns have been unusually and a few tick-tack visits were made before the party broke up. Those present were Misses Gladys Amey, Clara Bauer, Anna Emmons, Zola Wright, Maria Browning, Irene Forsythe and Angie Shackelford.

By MINNIE B. CARTER. [Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

A man calling himself Glovanni walked into an Italian restaurant in New York and, addressing the proprietor, Antonio Mancini, asked for employment as a waiter. Being told that the force of waiters was complete, he said that he would work for nothing

Soon after Giovanni's employment ped off, and the proprietor, instead of filling waiters' vacancies, began to discharge those he had. He told Giovanni that there was no hope for him to secure pay and he was welcome to leave as soon as he liked. To this Giovanni replied that he was making a living from the tips he received and this was far better than nothing.

But the attendance at the restaurant continued to decrease. Mancini, who was an excellent cook, went himself into the kitchen and even invented new dishes with the most delectable flavorings, hoping to regain the clientele he had lost. But it was of no avall. His old customers did not come back to him, and new ones were not to be attracted. He was paying a high rental, and his expenses in other respects were enormous. One day he called his few remaining employees to his office and said to them: "I am expecting the sheriff to levy on what remains here. Until recently I was making money. Indeed, I possessed $20,000. I was about to sell out my business and return to our beloved Italy to spend a comfortable old age. Instead of that I am a beggar in a foreign land. Go and secure new As for me, I know not what places. to do."

All expressed sorrow for their employer and went away, except Giovanni. He stood alone with Mancini after the others had departed.

"Why do you remain?" asked the restaurateur.

"To tell you the cause of your misfortune." There was something in the man's eye and the tone in which the words were spoken that arrested his employer's earnest attention. He looked at Giovanni for an explanation.

ter, "why I, to whom you have never paid a cent, have stood by you to the last." "I do."

"I am not only a countryman of yours, but I came from the same district as you, the lake region of Italy." "Oh!"

"I was a smuggler engaged in running dutiable goods across Lake Como to a region where it was easy to dispose of them. You know that the lake is patrolled by the customs officers and there is great risk in carrying goods across. Indeed, it is practically impossible to do so without de-with them, and they took care not to see me. In this way I gained enough to pay for a farm and was about to

Fall and Winter Wear for Men

Including all the latest ideas in Shoes, Hats and Caps, Underwear. Sheep Skin Lined Coats, Mackinawa Coat Sweaters, German Socks, and All kinds of Rubber Shoes Brand New Stock of CLOTHING Just Arrived

Quality and Satisfaction in All Lines Guaranteed

C. H. ZURHCER

GOOD BARGAIN

160 Acres on Alder Slope. 30 acres in crop; 40 acres ready to plow. Stock in Alder Slope ditch. Several springs on place. Price $3,600. Terms.

Enterprise Real Estate Company Office over Harness Shop, Enterprise, Ore.

Tin Plates. The making of tin plates originated haps, and make his remaining day in Bohemia, hammered iron plates having been coated with tin in that country some time before the year 1600. Tin plate making was introduced into England in 1665, the art being brought from Saxony. In France the first tin plate factory was established in 1714. The first commercial manufacture of tin plates in the United States was at

New Suits Filed.

DRESSMAKING.

Mrs. Vera Carpenter. Evening gowns a specialty. Ratcliff house, northeast part of town. 54b1

WANTED.

Good Milk Cow, part Jersey, Inquire at this office or write stating price and particulars about cow. 54a

b1

check, prolong William's life p comfortable. While this treatme is going on William begins to held tales of what the osteopaths are do ing. His friends tell him of sudde cures of cases resembling his own William hates quackery, but as h cannot ignore this testimony, he fa ally mentions the subject to b doctor. His doctor, a liberal mind ed man, tells William regretfully, fat while osteopaths, like other quack produce temporary results that amu the ignorant, they work far mo harm than good; that osteopathy i merely a form of massage at be and that William's disease is a deep er matter. Besides, the osteopath treatment is rough, and often danger

William is secretly relieved by this information, for he hates change about and he has no use for all the new "pathies."

But the surprising tales persist eaching him. Even members of own family relate extraording cures of seemingly hopeless cal without drugs or surgery. Finally to make a long story short, William who does want to live, visits an offe opath. He is ashamed, but he do it. The theory and treatment, as a plained to him certainly seem ratio paths are curing cases much won

Is it ever expected that a lawye

a doctor, an architect or any man

In accusing the old school doc

William argues, however, the cess of osteopathy now being "

mon knowledge, that when he pays doctor for advice the doctor shi give whatever advice is most ly to lead to a cure. The dot might argue that he gave Will what William paid for, the best tree

ment he knew how to give.

Which is right?

at once to the osteopath,

But is William just?

able

"You wonder, signor," said the lat-Pittsburg in 1872. Oct. 80 .- W. I. Dishman vs. A. J. Harris.

tection. Well, I divided my profits

A Large Stock of Dry Goods AND Clothing

> For Fall and Winter wear

JUST ARRIVED AT THE

WATCH THIS SPACE For Further Announcement

forceful and convincing. The appeals have been manly and direct. The hearer can not escape the truth. Last Sunday was a day of blessing and great joy. Many young people surrendered to Christ,

Though it has been stormy the attendance has not diminished, nor the interest decreased. People are thinking seriously. Decisons are being halloween in a happy manner. Vamade. The Spirit of God is operating rious halloween games afforded enmightily convincing of righteounsess and judgment to come. Six cottage prayer meetings were held on Tues-30 were present.

day morning and a like number will be held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock,

The afternoon meetings are of unusual value to Christians. Each succeeding meeting seems to be the best lawn were part of a jolly evening's of all. Tuesday afternoon the stores program. closed for the afternoon service and a grand, uplifting service it was.

We hope the stores will continue to close at this hour; many will receive a lasting benefit. It also shows a deference for the Lord's work in this campaign that will leave its impress for good.

The sermons and Bible instruction we are receiving will uplift the entire community and make more devoted christians and useful citizens. The town and people of Enterprise have never had a privilege on this order to enjoy equal to this we now possess. Everyone should embrace the opportunity. Some will not realize what they have missed till too late and the privilege has passed.

CLOTHING!!

PRESS COMMITTEE.

Mr. R. F. Rafphon, representative of the famous line of clothing, Bran- first judge of Wallowa county but digee, Kincald & Co., Utica, New resigned in favor of Peter O'Sullivan. York, will be here Thursday and Friday, and those wishing an up-to-date fice of the first county clerk of Walhand-tailored suit will do well to lowa county. His title of "Judge" call and examine his mammoth line comes from the state of Missouri of clothing, and we will treat you where he was the head of the counright. Respectfully,

THE E. M. & M. CO. years.

A crowd of Chritsian church young people met at the home of C. S. Haney Saturday night and celebrated ertainment and a visit of the hobgoblins was a jolly feature. About Twenty young people went out to Charles McAlister's for a hay ride. Saturday night. Games in the house and lunch and a big bonfire on the

JUDGE REAVIS.

From La Grande Observer. Judge Reavis, a pioneer of Wallowa county, where he is better known as 'Uncle Dave Reavis," spent yesterday afternoon in the city, going out on the evening train for Hood River where his sons, William and Albert reside and where he makes his winter home. Ten days ago he was called to Enterprise by the sudden death of his brother, "Uncle Joe Reavis."

Uncle Joe Reavis and his noble wife Aunt Emma," also were pioneers in Wallowa county. They owned fruit land near Enterprise and a number of houses which they rented. When the aged man was stricken he was unable to speak again. He is survived CLOTHING! CLOTHING! by his wife and his two sons, Frank Reavis, cashier of the Wallowa National bank, and David Reavis, civil engineer in Texas,

> Judge Reavis was appointed the Mr. Reavis then accepted the of ty court of Johnson county for many urred to me. A customs officer 1 hed been bribing made it his business to see me while smuggling. I was arrested and imprisoned."

Mancini sat spellbound by the story, every moment growing paler. Giovanni kept his eye fixed on him intently.

"While in jail," he resumed, "I was put into a cell with an old smuggler. He was ill, and I nursed him. Dying, he made me his heir. Where do you suppose his fortune was deposited?" "Go on."

"You remember the point formed by the junction of Lakes Como and Lecco?

"I was born on it."

"There, across the lake, one can see Monte Crocione and on a crag near by the little church of San Martino." "I was married there," groaned Mancinl.

"And not far from San Martino is a hole in the rock. From across the lake it looks only large enough to contain a big bowlder. It would hold a church."

"I have been in it."

"The fortune 1 inherited was there. The smuggler had turned all his profits into diamonds and hidden them in the cave. 1 brought them to America in the shape of bills of exchange." "And have lost your inheritance?" "No; I have every cent of it. And why have I, a rich man, been working here without pay? To ruin the customs officer who betrayed me and who married my betrothed. I have caused the falling off of your business by circulating false stories of what food you have served to your guests." "You-you have done this?" "I have."

"You have taken a terrible revenge. But you are rich, and 1 will have damages under the law." 'On what evidence?'

Mancini was silent.

"Besides, where is my fortune? No one knows. We Italians, especially we who have been smugglers and revenue officers, know how to cover our tracks."

A groan was the only response. "But it is not necessary that you should prosecute me. For the sake of the girl of whom you deprived me I shall repair the damage I have done. Here is a check for $10,000. Begin again. There will be no more stories will have regained your former posi-

NOTICE. Hereafter current will be supplied for electric irons all day on Wednesday, instead of Saturday forenoon. Please use irons only during daylight hours

Enterprise Electric Co.

TAKEN UP.

al. Moreover, he finds these out Three black-face buck sheep strays, at my ranch on Swamp Creek, 10 miles northeast of Enterprise, Ownthan his own. And when Will liam himself is cured he blames ! ner can have same by proving property and paying for this notice, J old school doctor for not sending P. Averill, Enterprise. 54t3

Read the advertisements.

standing, shall say to his client," OUT OF THE GINGER JAR. to my rival. He is wiser than Is (From November Farm Journal. Give your money to him instead of a A wishbone won't do a man much me?" good unless along with it goes a deal of backbone.

of fraud William is doubly and Many public speeches may be comas that doctor despises the of pared to a wheel-the longer the path and honestly believes him spoke the greater the tire. quack. And we all know how 6

We are never satisfied to have our it is to believe what is most d happiness on the installment plan. We want it all at once.

When the blacksmith starts to doc tor up a broken down wagon he doesn't say, "Stick out your tongue." A neighbor of ours says he nev er has any use for an alarm clock, because he can't afford to lay awake to hear the thing go off.

"There is Jones who is regarded as the wisest man in the township. and yet he never expresses an opinion on any subject. How do you account for it?" "That is easy, By keeping his mouth shut people are unable to find out how little he knows."

A Delicate Question.

(From Life, Sept. 24, 1908.) Is a man's first duty to his own family or to his client? Take, for instance, a patient-call him William-who is being treated for a disease considered incurable. to hinder you. In a few months you His doctor, of the old school, tells him frankly and kindly that the best they can do is to hold the disease in

Now Ready for Business Robes and Furs of all kinds specialty. Work Guarantee and all orders receive prom attention. E. MARTENS, Prop.

TANNERY

Island City