

E. M. & M. PRE-INVENTORY SALE

Men's Clothing has been going fast, but not fast enough to suit us. These clothes MUST be sold, so we announce another reduction

Suits in black, gray and brown, values up to $18, $9.00 your choice,

One Special lot of Men's and and Boys' Suits, $5.00 your choice,

Men's Dollar Shirts 50 cents

Men's Separate Coats at Half Price

Wool Scarfs at 25 per cent discount

Ladies' Furs 25 per cent Discount

500 pairs Children's Shoes

piled on the Bargain Counter

Ready for Our Customers to Grab

ENTERPRISE MERCANTILE & MILLING COMPANY

City and County Brief News Items

Osteopathy cures lumbago. G. C. Bolding left Sunday for his home at Troy.

L. E. Jordan was at Lostine on business, Monday.

S. D. Haworth returned to his home at La Grande, Wednesday.

W. E. Keltner has filed on a homestead north of Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Browning visited relatives at Lostine over Sunday night.

Closing out all my wall paper at 10 cents the double roll. Fred S. Ashley. 71b2

J. C. Galloway left Wednesday for Southern Oregon where he expects to locate.

Miss Amy Olmsted returned Monday to Albany where she is attending college.

Drury Davis, a well known stockman of the Park, is in town on a business trip.

Mrs. Frank Zumwalt and little son Claybern left Tuesday for a visit at Stanberry, Mo.

L. Couch, new county commissioner, was transacting business in the county seat, Saturday.

Deputy County Clerk C. G. Bilyeu returned Monday from a visit at his old home in Albany.

H. H. Haskell, homesteader of 10 miles east of town, went to Washington, Tuesday, on business.

If you want good feed for your team and good treatment come to White Front Barn. 87b4

The cold snap Sunday night shut down the electric light plant, the light going out about 2:40 a. m.

The highest market price paid for 67 kinds of grain in exchange for furniture. Fred S. Ashley. 71b2

Osteopathy a sure cure for headache.

W. E. Taggart returned Thursday from a visit with his family at Garfield, Wn.

Monday was observed as a holiday by the public schools, county offices, banks and some of the stores.

Osteopathy the only cure for sciatic rheumatism.

A. F. Linn returned to his home at Summerville, Tuesday, after a week here with friends.

Sheppard Morgan will leave Thursday morning for Portland where he will undergo a minor surgical operation.

C. L. Hartshorn, the big wool-grower of the Buttes, went to Portland, Sunday to attend the conventions.

R. F. Stubblefield, the veteran woolgrower, was among the crowd who left Sunday for the conventions at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graves are in Portland, where he will attend the state and national convention of woolgrowers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doss, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam Gotter, left Tuesday for their home at Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dobbin left Sunday for Portland to attend the state and national conventions of woolgrowers.

Sam Litch is in Portland and he will let escape none of the good things coming the way of the wool-growers this week.

Henry, Bascome and Pleas Doan, who have been working here the past season, went to their old home at Pilot Rock, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson, who have been residing with their son near Joseph for the past summer, have moved back to town.

Will Trainor and family of Boise, who had been visiting Mrs. Trainor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carter, left Sunday for their home.

Miss Beatrice Boehmer, who teaches in the Payette schools, visited here during the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boehmer.

O. H. Brady and children went to Wallowa, Wednesday, to see his mother and brother, Ed. F. Brady. The latter will leave for the East soon.

Miss Etha Kooch, teacher in the Wallowa schools, returned to Wallowa, Tuesday, after spending the holiday vacation with her parents on Alder Slope.

The Enterprise State Bank has moved into the new Funk building next to Keltner's hardware shop. New bank fixtures are expected about the last of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. McKennon and baby returned Tuesday to their home at Alceel, after a few days visit with Mrs. McKennon's sister, Mrs. Mrs. S. D. Keltner, and family.

Miss Iva Loftus, who is attending Sacred Heart academy, returned to La Grande, Tuesday, after spending the holidays with her parents at Elk Mountain.

Mrs. R. L. Thompson and baby left Wednesday for their home in West Grossman after a pleasant holiday visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Miller.

Miss Laura Weaver, who had been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weaver of Alder Slope, returned to her school on Smith Mountain, Sunday.

Premises Homan has rented the room next to his confectionery shop, formerly occupied by the meat market. The partition is being torn out and the two rooms will be thrown into one.

Mrs. S. F. Wiley of Shattuck, Okl., who had been visiting here with her mother, sister, Mrs. S. F. Pace, and other relatives, left Tuesday for Shattuck, and from there will move with her family to Kentucky.

J. A. Funk's team made a lively run through town Monday morning from the high school to the White Front barn, tearing around corners, smashing a couple of doors at the barn, and partly breaking the holed to which they were hitched. No one hurt.

Joseph E. Lent of Parma, Ida., resident of this valley for 25 years, is visiting here with his brother-in-law, J. C. Surber, and other friends. He will leave the first of the week for the Willamette valley and Southern California to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whitmore of south of town entertained a number of neighbors and friends to a fine New Years dinner, Sunday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Roe and daughter Ramona, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kooch and family, Misses Hooper, Mabel Murray, H. Mae Jefferson, Etha Kooch, and Mr. Mc-

Edwin A. Anderson has been sick during the past week.

Mr. Meikler trapped a coyote recently.

Miss Iva Loftus gave a card party at her parents' home last Wednesday night. Those present were Mrs. and Miss Loftus, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coffman, Mrs. and Miss Thomas, recently of Texas, Mrs. L. D. Roberts, Messrs. Frank Reed, J. J. Burleson, James Weaver and Willie Loftus. All enjoyed themselves hugely, and returned home happy at an early hour.

AN ELK.

THREE CARS, FAT HOGS.

Carl Whitmore and N. D. Varner went to Portland, Tuesday, with 3 carcasses of fat porkers, one each of their own raising and one of North Country hogs.

The following from out north contributed to the car load, each bringing a wagon load in: Dave Kuhn, Dale Beach, George Hendrickson and Oscar Berland of Paradise, and Grant Johnson of Flora.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS TAKE OATH OF OFFICE.

County court met in regular session Wednesday, the new commissioner, L. Couch, taking his seat, and at once was given a taste of high life in helping to go over and audit road supervisor's reports. The court will be busy with this work today and a part of Thursday. There are a number of petitions in for changes in the personnel of the supervisors.

The new treasurer, G. W. Franklin, and county surveyor, A. H. Rudd, took oath of office, presented their bonds and assumed their duties. The approval of the bonds is deferred until the return of Deputy District Attorney Dill from Wallowa.

WALLOWA CUTTING AFFRAY; E. SMITH BOUND OVER.

Deputy Prosecutor Dill went to Wallowa Wednesday to try a man accused of carving a cook in a restaurant with a butcher knife. The affair occurred Monday night. Both men are newcomers. The injured man is said to have a gash in his head 3 or 4 inches long.

Edward Smith, accused of helping himself to the goods and money of his employer, Max Gumerman, was given a preliminary hearing, Tuesday, and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300.

ELK MOUNTAIN.

Dec. 31—Mr. and Mrs. John Fine passed Elk Mountain Thursday on their way home at Chico.

Mr. and Mrs. Meikler were visiting at Mr. and Mrs. M. McFetridge's Thursday.

For either acute or chronic kidney disorders, for annoying and painful urinary irregularities take Foley Kidney Pills. An honest and effective medicine for kidney and bladder disorders. Burnaugh & Mayfield.

Circuit Court Suits.

Dec. 30.—C. H. Finn vs. Silver Creek Lame and Marble company, R. B. Bowman.

KILL MORE THAN WILD BEASTS.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in water, dust air, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroys and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back if not satisfied. Only 50c at all druggists.

REOPENED
The Red Front
Blacksmith Shop
 by the reliable
 blacksmiths
W. P. Hambleton & Son
 Machine Repairing
 Horseshoing
 Same old stand
 Enterprise Oregon

Annual
Clearing Sale
 COME! SEE!
 What your money will buy. With such goods as we sell, a clearing sale means something worth while. It's isn't simply that you have a chance at this season of the year to buy merchandise for less money than is usually paid for it, but you have a chance to buy unusually good merchandise at less than usual.

All Dress Overcoats }
 All sheep-lined Overcoats } Reduced
 All Wool Blankets } 20
 All Suits } per cent

Now is the Time--This is the Place
C. H. ZURCHER
 The Men's Outfitter