

TAKES TO THE HOSPITAL.

Several days ago Dr. A. T. Anderson was called to the Imperial hotel to see a woman who claimed to have received her injuries in the wreck of the passenger train between San Francisco and Los Angeles. Upon examination her injuries proved even more serious than she claimed. In the wreck she was caught between broken timbers, pieces of which pierced one of her lower limbs near the knee ending her to being suspended head downward for more than an hour and a half. She was also struck on the head by a heavy iron bar which rendered her insensible. After a few days treatment at an improvised hospital, she bought a ticket for Cottage Grove hoping to meet a brother-in-law, John Swain of Bohemia but owing to some misunderstanding he failed to meet her. After arriving here she grew rapidly worse becoming at times like a raving maniac, she also had many epileptic fits which became more frequent and severe. Dr. Anderson recognized the cause as being choked blood crowding the brain and immediately set about to get the sufferer to the hospital and perform the necessary operation. Thirty dollars was soon subscribed by several who knew of the circumstances, to which Dr. Anderson added thirty more and the unfortunate woman was taken to the hospital at Portland. An opening 1 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches was made in the skull and the clots of blood removed. Dr. Anderson received a letter from the lady Wednesday morning stating that she was doing nicely and that she would be able to leave the hospital within six weeks.

GOOD SELECTIONS.

Chas. Grissen, well known in this city has been elected president of the Oregon Fire Relief Association at McMinnville. Mr. Grissen is a native of Germany, and is a long-time resident of that city. He is the father of this mutual insurance, which has grown since 1894, from the first policy issued to him, into an aggregate of over 20,000 policies, representing over $12,000,000 of insurance in force, and increasing at the rate of over $2,000,000 per year. He has in his possession the original draft of the compact of citizens here to start the company. It bears the date January 10, 1894, and is in his hand writing. E. J. Martin, of Seattle, and G. H. Irvine, now deceased, were co-founders with him. Under his management the company has ever before, as his entire time will be devoted to it, and his heart is in the work.

A VERY OLD WITNESS TOLD.

While surveying to establish the corners of the portion of land which heretofore sold, Edgar King and his surveyor, assisted by H. C. Veatch, succeeded in locating the northeast corner of Mr. Veatch's old homestead claim, he having formerly owned the farm now occupied by Mr. King. The corner was established 45 years ago on a small halm sapling about 11 inches in diameter. The tree had grown to such a size that the surveyor thought it was impossible for it to be the one mentioned in a field notes, but Uncle Bern was of a different opinion and insisted that they cut it down, which was done and 15 inches beneath the surface was found the marking of the surveyor's instrument of 40 years ago. Every letter and figure was as plain as when placed there. Had not the tree been much larger.

HOODED ROBBER.

Monday afternoon the house of Mr. Tom Cox, near Latham, was entered by way of a window and $1.75 in coin and a fine $6 pipe was taken. Mr. Cox, as soon as he discovered his loss, hurried to town and informed Marshal Underwood of the affair, who, immediately instituted a search, and after a lively chase, the new candidate for the penitentiary was run down back of Heneway & Burkholder's store. The pipe was found near the place of arrest, where the man had thrown it when arrested. The money, one piece of which was marked so that it could be identified, was on his person thus insuring his conviction and a trip to Salem. At the trial Tuesday he was bound over in the sum of $250 in default of which he went to jail.

LOOKING FOR SAW MILL LOCATION.

C. W. Porter of Nebraska, was here late last week in the interest of several capitalists who wish to engage in the saw mill business. Nat Martin, Jr., escorted the gentleman around town also took him into some of the immense timber belts of this section. Mr. Porter expressed himself well pleased with this section and expects to make a favorable report to his people. Should the company establish a business here it will be on a large scale and it is Mr. Porter's desire to place the plant on the S. P. Co's main line.

"Jim" is a clever fellow and has many friends who will be pleased to know that, while he reaches high and tall short last June, he has a good position in the office with which he is so familiar.

The locomotive output of the United States is 15 per day, and each day of the year twelve old locomotives are consigned to the scrap pile. As an exchange says, this is a net gain per day of three locomotives to have a business which seems to be growing at the rate of about ten locomotives per day. There would seem to be room for another factory or two, and the wonder is that some of the big systems, which certainly could use to advantage the entire output of an immense factory, do not build factories of their own.

DIED.

TAYLOR—Jan. 15, 1903, John Henry Taylor, aged 39 years, 11 months and 12 days. He was the son of Joseph P. Taylor of Coast Fork. For the past 6 years he has resided at Roseburg where he has been engaged in the photograph business. He was a consistent Christian and was a member of the Christian church.

He leaves besides a wife and three children, both parents, two brothers and three sisters. He was laid to rest in the Taylor cemetery followed by a large crowd of mourning relatives and friends. The funeral services were held at the Christian church, Rev. Billington officiating.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. L. D. Waverly, Texas writes, "Of a morning, when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge, but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottles at New Era Drug Store.

CROUP.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by Lyons & Applegate, Druggists, Benson Drug Co., Cottage Grove.

A FORTY-ACRE RANCH

Isn't a bad piece of property to own especially when located handy to town and on a good road, as this one is, and comparing what it does. It consists of cleared land suitable for farming, containing 40 acres. There is a fairly good two room house and out buildings on the place, several hundred fruit trees, two root cellars, springs, ten or fifteen acres of plow land, enough large saw timber to more than pay for the place and over a thousand dollars worth of dry logs for stove wood, and the whole business is fenced and cross fenced with good rail fences. And I am going to sell this place.

AT A GREAT BARGAIN

within the next sixty days, (if I had a buyer) this place is a bargain at $600.00 and if you want it you will "have to hurry." It will bring a clean thousand dollars before the summer is over and is well worth it to the right man. He can make it bring him that during this year and have the place left. A proposition to trade for property in this city might be considered or a proposition to pay part in cash would be delivered here during the summer.

Lee W. Hervey.

Lee Martin, who has been employed at the Champion mine for the past several months is in town.
