

NEWS IN BRIEF

Flu shot clinics continue Friday

DALLAS — The flu season has arrived. The Polk County Public Health Department will sponsor several flu shot clinics. This year's flu vaccine is $26.

Payments may be made by cash or check. Oregon Health Plan and Regence Blue Cross Blue Shield of Oregon, non-Medicare, is accepted. No one will be turned away for inability to pay.

Pneumonia vaccines also are available. The flu vaccine is recommended for those 6 months of age and older, according to the public health department. This year's vaccination is the quadrivalent flu vaccine, which protects against four strains of flu instead of the three strains offered in previous years. This year's vaccine should be more effective in covering the strains that are most prevalent during flu season.

The schedule is:

- Friday: 10:30 a.m. to noon, Polk County Courthouse, First floor Conference Room, 850 Main St. Dallas.
- Nov. 13: 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Polk County Public Health, Suite 302, Academy Building, 182 SW Academy St., Dallas.

Indy Event Center gets new coordinator

INDEPENDENCE — Courtney Williams started as the new coordinator for the Independence Event Center on Oct. 19.

Williams, of Salem, has experience as a wedding planner and as a property manager.

Her job will be to monitor the event center and market the space to businesses in the community and surrounding areas, bringing more revenue to the city. Previously, the city of Independence contracted the job out or added it to the duties of other staff members.

"Now that it's an actual position (within the city staffing), I can use it more to plan events for the community, branch out there and do things that I don't think they were expecting," Williams said.

The event center will likely see more use as the holidays approach, both for business parties and for family gatherings, she said.

Local officers to be honored at banquet

GRAND RONDE — Polk County deputy Casey Gibson and Dallas officers Colby Hamilton and Jim Rodriguez will be given lifesaving awards Friday during the Oregon Peace Officers Association annual awards banquet.

The 46th annual event will be held at 7 p.m. at Spirit Mountain Casino in Grand Ronde.

The three officers are being recognized for their actions in rescuing injured Polk County deputy Shon Latty from his burning patrol car after he was involved in an accident in July.

In addition to lifesaving awards, police officers from across the state will be presented with medal of valor, medal of honor, purple heart, distinguished service and unit citation honors.

Five industrial properties originally offered in the spring are back on auction this month.

Realtors hope five parcels in Dallas will go quickly

DALLAS — The unsold properties off Monmouth Cutoff Road in Dallas included in an industrial land auction held last spring are once again slated for auction this month.

Auction firm Realty Marketing/Northwest is hoping the second time all properties sell, but to make sure that is the case, the firm is making a few changes from its first offering of the properties.

The prices have been reduced on all but one of the properties, but the firm also noticed a different trend.

Realty Marketing/Northwest President John Rosenthal said many parcels in the 107-acre sale in the spring were offered in large tracts.

About half of them sold, including the largest, a 52-acre property off Godsey Road, Rosenthal said.

With the rest of the pieces, Rosenthal said potential buyers were interested, but not biting for a specific reason.

"That's what we learned in the spring, nobody wanted large tracts," Rosenthal said. In response, one of the properties previously offered in a 26-acre chunk has been subdivided into 3-acre, 4-acre and 19-acre tracts.

Rosenthal said if the property is sold in that fashion, the owners will have to apply to the city of Dallas to have it subdivided.

Two residential properties near Clay Street just outside Dallas city limits of also are up for auction. One is a 2-acre home site (Property No.

110) and the second is a 2.17-acre site (Property No. 111) both are listed at $47,500.

Sealed bids on the properties in both auctions are due by Nov. 18.

Industrial property for sale:

- Property No. 112 — about 4 acres, minimum bid of $195,000. At the corner of Southeast Godsey and Monmouth Cutoff roads adjacent to the former Tyco building.

- Property No. 113 — about 3 acres, minimum bid of $150,000. Has frontage on Southeast Godsey Road and adjacent to the former Tyco building.

- Property No. 114 — about 19 acres, minimum bid of $500,000. Has frontage along Southeast Godsey Road.

- Property No. 115 — about 6 acres, minimum bid of $225,000. An irregular-shaped site including a 6,500-square foot shop building.

- Property No. 116 — 13.75 acres, minimum bid of $395,000. Frontage on Southeast Holman Avenue.
