RARE MUSICAL TREAT

day Night. Cosgrove's Concert Orchestra will give a musical entertainment at Dallas City Hall next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Lewis and Clark Club. This company includes a lady violinist, vocal soloists, bell ringers and a 7-piece orchestra, and comes with the flattering endorsement of the press and public wherever it has appeared. In the Eastern States and Canada, where the company has beer playing for years under the auspices of fraternal social societies, hundreds of favorable notices have been received from the daily papers and prominent citizens. The following telegram was received in Dallas from Walla Walla this
