OREGON WEATHER

Fair; continued warm in interior. Gentle, variable winds.

VICTORY

The Victory loan over the United States is coming along nicely. The state of Oregon, outside of Portland, is over the top and many counties and cities over the country have made similar progress.

But the loan will be raised. How foolish it is to fear the snafu and good sense of the American people is plainly seen in this instance.

Upon this stage, set with weeping willows, while the orchestra was playing the mulligrubbers' march and the despondent drag and the dark, dark indigo dirge, the curtain rose on April 21.

And what happened. Miss Victory Liberty Loan smiled once, and the audience began digging right down into its pockets.

The American people are pretty much Yankee after all. They like to put on a long face and growl, but when the time comes for action they are ready.

And it's a fact that the Victory loan is a mighty good investment.

RECEPTION WILL BE GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT

The Josephine County Chapter of the American Red Cross invites the citizens of Josephine county to join in extending a reception and dance to the returned soldiers and sailors, on Friday evening, May 2, at 8 o'clock, at the courthouse, as a means of publicly expressing our appreciation of the sacrifices these boys have made in entering the service of our country during the war.

CLAIMS PROPELLER WAS SHOT FROM PLANE
Mrs. Ed. Wallace, who has returned from an extended visit at Portland, states that she witnessed the airplane accident in that city which occurred on April 21. She is positive that the propeller was shot from the airplane, having heard the shot fired. The blade, when it fell to the ground, barely missed striking a woman's head.

SKELETON BELIEVED THAT OF LOST TRAPPER

The skeleton of a man was found just across the line in Oregon Sunday by a party of picnickers from Butte Creek valley, and it is thought to be the remains of a trapper who lost his life in Lower Klamath lake in the latter part of November, 1916.

The trapper who was lost two years ago, according to the Yreka News, started from Lairds ranch in this county to cross the frozen lake with a sled to which a sail had been attached. Shortly after he left, a stiff south wind arose which broke up the ice on the lake, and the supposition is that the man made for the tules at the edge of the water and abandoning his outfit tried to walk through the shallow water.

The tules in this neighborhood were burned early in the spring and no trace of clothing was left. A pair of pliers and two pocket knives were found with the bones. Identification was made by some gold bridge work which had been done on the man's teeth. The sheriff of Klamath county, Oregon, was notified of the find.—Ashland Tidings.

waster, while she was working for a living in John Boland's cafe.

Perry followed Mary to her apartment, but Boland, who loved her, despite his moral character, intervened. He was knocked out by Perry, and Mary, making him believe that he had killed the cafe proprietor, secured his confession of the crime for which her husband was serving time. Then Boland recovered and with a change of heart agreed to help in freeing young Bowen from prison while Perry was arrested.

This is the plot of "Quicksand" the new Dorothy Dalton photoplay which will be shown at the Joy theatre tonight. It is a Paramount picture, produced by Thomas H. Ince and directed by Victor L. Schertzinger.
