HOW ITALY CAN BE HANDLED
What is to be done with Italy if she persists in her mad course? The other allied powers cannot allow her infatuated imperialism to defeat their plans for the reconstruction of Europe on a basis that is just, democratic and calculated to preserve peace. Italy cannot be permitted to grab other people's possessions at her pleasure, denying her neighbors the self-governing rights for which she herself has fought, and denying them the access to the sea which is necessary for their prosperity.

of nations. If Italy continues to defy the principles of the league, it may become immediately operative with respect to her, before its formal establishment. All that Britain, France and America have to do in order to bring Italy to terms is to shut off her supplies. And there need be no question that they are prepared to do that very thing if it comes to the worst. Intelligent Italians know that they can and would do it. And that is a very good reason for believing that Italy, sooner or later, will yield. The fact, too, that Italy needs the moral support of the allies will have its weight, when once the Italians begin to reason soberly. They will realize that German sympathy is a sad exchange for the respect and friendship of honest nations. WHOSE POINTS? "Before the war was over we stated our peace terms. On behalf of the government I made a considered statement, considered by every member of the cabinet, as to what we conceived to be the terms on which we could make peace. That was last year. At that time those terms received the adherence of every section of opinion in this country. There was no protest from any quarter. A few days afterward President Wilson proposed his famous fourteen points, which practically embodied my statement."—Lloyd George to parliament. There is little question but what some of those guilty of wholesale distribution of death bombs will be caught in the police dragnet. When they are, watch the Mooney and Debs element jump to their defense. The same old wall, "persecution of labor," will be raised by the I. W. W. element. "The conspiracy to overthrow the government is wide spread," says Ole Hanson. "These men must be ruled by a rod of iron. Any mayor who permits an I. W. W. convention in his city should be recalled. He is not an American." Hanson also roasts the administration for its kid-glove method in handling anarchists. Hanson has the right idea. Until the method he advocates is rigidly followed, foreign bolshevist agitators will be a menace to the Stars and Stripes. Medford is to have a "fools night" as an opening event for Victory week, May 5 to 10. Meaning, we presume, that there will be a great crowd present.
