Drinking Fast and Furious—

According to reports received from the various cities and towns of Oregon, bootleggers and those who are not bootleggers but who have a terrible thirst, are putting in extra time before July 1st to lay in a supply of "Hornbrook Special." This makes fat picking for the officers and many arrests are made. Monday six men and a woman were arrested and fined at Medford, Ashland officers are "hooking" a few, while Deputy Sheriff Hopkins at Canyonville is kept busy taking transgressors to Roseburg. One man, anticipating a long dry spell, had 50 quarts for "his own use."

Albert Anderson returned this morning to Divide.

WARDEN SAYS FISHING AT DAM IS ILLEGAL

Game Warden Ed Walker, of Medford was in Grants Pass Monday and made a visit to the Golden Drift dam, three miles up the river from Grants Pass. Mr. Walker was informed that it is the usual thing now for people to fish off the dam under the impression that it is legal, the dead line being removed since a portion of the dam went out last winter. Mr. Walker says the dead line, 200 feet from the dam, is still in effect and it is a plain violation of the law to fish closer to the dam than the 200-foot line. He desires to warn all fishermen that violations will be prosecuted.

Mr. Walker is on a trip to Curry county, where he expects to spend 10 days or two weeks.

Proving Up on Homestead—

William C. Jackson, with J. H. Turner and J. L. Pierce as witnesses, proved up on his homestead, located three and one-half miles east of the city today. This property, which was known as Love Lawn ranch is at the edge of the Dry Diggings and has been occupied at different times for the past 60 years. Mr. Jackson has been on the place during the past five years.

While at Portland the city turned out to welcome the 200 engineers and music, dancing and rides on the Columbia highway were enjoyed by the boys.

The Berry Harvest—

The season has arrived when the demand for loganberry pickers exceeds the supply of help. While there is not a great acreage of these berries in the Rogue valley, yet there is a demand for pickers, while in the Willamette valley the growers are preparing to receive thousands of pickers from Portland and vicinity. The loganberry, when allowed to become thoroughly ripe on the vine, is one of the finest flavored berries on the market; however, when picked while yet a bright red color it somewhat resembles a young persimmon.
