Inspecting Forestry Work—
C. A. Lord, of the Portland forestry office, who has just finished inspecting the new trail near Mule Creek, has left for Crescent City where he will inspect the Winchick forest road.

Going to Murphy?—
Then call Jitney Luke and jazz right over. Two cars at Palace hotel, phone 22-J and one car at Spa, phone 262-R. 28

Union Sunday Evening Services—
Commencing tomorrow night and continuing throughout the summer the churches of the city will unite in union out-of-doors services Sunday evenings, the morning services being held in the various churches as usual. The evening services will be held on the lawn at the Junior High school at 8 o'clock.

20 Fires From Lightning—
M. L. Merritt, of the Portland forestry office, spent a few days here this week looking after the forest fire situation. He is now in the Medford district, where it is reported that lightning set 20 fires in the timber. N. F. Macduff, in charge of the local office, states that there are no serious fires in his district at the present time.

Excursion Rates to Coast—
Grants Pass to Crescent City, by easy riding cars, for $7.50. Grants Pass and Crescent City Stage company. Phone 26. 74tf

All Cars Are Barred—
Contractor S. S. Schell states that many people are taking advantage of the workmen's absence after 5 o'clock in the evening and are driving over the highway now under construction on the south side of the river. During the past few days some of the newly-laid paving has been marred and the workmen hampered. Everyone should remember that the road is closed to all traffic.

Lawn Social Next Wednesday—
There will be a lawn social by the ladies of the Newman M. E. church on the Bartlett lawn, 648 North Fourth street, Wednesday, July 30. There will be a program by the Methodist college young people, as follows: Selections from "Pan," by Bliss, ladies' trio, Marguerite Wible, Helen Ellis and Vivian Isham; clarinet solo, Lynn Sabin; reading, Estelle Feldmaler; vocal solo, Marguerite Wible; piano solo, Vivian Isham; selections from "Pan," ladies' trio. Mrs. Geo. Sabin will be the accompanist. Refreshments consisting of ice cream sundaes and cake. Everybody welcome. Bring 25 cents and come help the ladies. 28

Return From Vacation—
Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bratton and baby and P. A. DeGenault and son, Lewis, returned Friday night from a week's camping trip at the mouth of Grayback creek, near the Oregon Caves. They report having had a splendid time. They did not visit the caves, but had some fine fishing in Bolon lake, where they caught some fine dolly vardens. This is a small lake, about 300 by 900 feet in size, high up in the mountains, and was stocked with trout ten years ago. A few three-pounders were landed, the fishermen having constructed a raft in lieu of a boat.
