NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING. EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS: E. H. WOODWARD & ORIN C. EMERY.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1891. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Newberg, Oregon.

HON. O. N. DENNY, who has been in China and Corea for several years, will return to this country in June.

It is the old, old story. A young man named Richards living near Melama, Marion county was out deer hunting and on his return with a deer he climbed up an embankment and pulled the gun after him.

THE last Oregon legislature granted state diplomas to those graduating from the different colleges in the state.

ABOUT the closest man we have heard of for some time is the fellow who sold his son-in-law one half of a cow, and then refused to divide the front half.

When the steamer Northwest reached this city last night a telegram was awaiting her giving instructions not to contract for any more freight, but to clear up her work as she goes down preparatory to her on the Columbia river route.

In the selection of teachers for public schools it is not always the teacher who will work for the smallest pay that is the cheapest in the end.

WALTER SAUBAY, editor of the St. Paul Sunday Sun, has been sentenced to jail for three months, for publishing an obscene and libelous newspaper.

AN OPENING.

There is one feature of the daily newspaper that is all the time becoming more noticeable, and that is the tendency among most papers to give publicity to all that is evil, and snarl at all that is good.

It is the duty of every man to boycott such representatives of the press as persist in publishing such "news."

INVESTIGATE.

The greatest lack generally noticeable among that majority class known as the "common people," is a lack of knowledge concerning the commonest principles of government.

"How few, indeed, have any just idea of the real province of charity, and what a large class of voters there is, who are influenced by the old argument against prohibition, viz: 'That it would stop the flow of untold revenue into the national treasury.'"

"It is right at this point that economic science touches the temperance question. One of the simplest laws of political economy is, that whatever paralyzes industry is an enemy to the welfare of society, to be fought at every point, to be hunted down and stamped out if possible, and yet a mayor of a certain city protested against closing the saloons of that city, because, as he said, it would reduce 25,000 people to beggary.

Carefully prepared statistics show without possible doubt of the truth of the facts, that the liquor traffic robs labor of its market for its product, robs labor of the right to do good work for bread, and also the right to get bread for its labor.

curled invalids, snorer run-born paupers, punish run-inspired criminals. And now, having read it, let us investigate and see if the ground taken is not only tenable, but very clear to any mind not blinded by willful ignorance.

YELLOW IN PEACHES—BEWARE!

Says the Marjorie (Cal) Appeal: "Peach trees can scarcely be planted in California fast enough to make up for the large number destroyed in the East by the disease known as the yellows.

AN IMMENSE STRAWBERRY CROP.

A prominent fruit grower of western New York, from a single patch of sixteen acres, sent to market in one year thirteen hundred bushels of strawberries.
