NEWBERG, GRAPHIC, THUESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1922

Largest Circulation in Yambill County

Correspondence visit last wek.

SUNNY CREST

back to Gresham with him for a few

E. U. Marr and Mrs. Marie Tangen.

ST. PAUL

lection for Astoria.

itors Saturday.

they struck oil.

McKay.

Holy Names academy.

days.

tletoe

for the cucumber.

NORTHWEST NEWBERG

Frances Nye was at home last veek end.

Mr. Nye has been sick for a few days, but is much better now. The Budd children, who have had diphtheria, are out from under quarantine and are back in school.

Mrs. Persons, who has been living on Mrs. Hammersley's place, moved into town last week.

Out of town people attending the funeral of Mrs. Fred Post last Saturday were A. H. Post of Ghelan, Wash., Mrs. Ruby Behrens of Baker, Oregon; Asa Nichols and family of Dayton, Oregon; and Miss Esther Nichols, also of Dayton.

FERNWOOD

Miss Dessie Jones visited in Port land Sunday with friends. Howard S. Miller spent the week end in Yamhill with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scherf and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Livengood motored to McMinnville Saturday.

Miss Elva Livengood from Newberg spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H: Livengood.

The children of Frank Jones have been absent from school several days on account of an attack of chicken-

There will be a Christmas program given by the Sunday school children at the gymnasium Satur-ry evening, December 23. Everyone is invited to attend the enter-Cainment.

CHEHALEM

Mrs. McDowell was shopping in Portland last Saturday. During the past week Mrs. E. C. Harmon has been on the sick list with a very severe cold. Saturday afternoon, December 9, a few of the ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. F. True to celebrate her thirty-first birthday.

Wesley Winters and John Smith of Ribbon Ridge bagged fourteen nice ducks last Sunday, hunting at the head of Wapato lake.

L. B. Winters met with a slight accident in Portland last Saturday. His truck skidded on the wet pavement and one wheel was broken off.

Charles Rein had the misfortune of losing one of his work horses last Friday... The animal became tangled up in a barbed wire fence and bled to death shortly afterwards.

Mrs. Ed West is on the sick list but is able to help Ed put in the hot and cold water in the house. That is enough to make any woman well-the thought of getting water in the home.

RIBBON RIDGE

Rudy Wenger has sold his say ing outfit to Emil Jensen.

not been found yet. He leaves a father and sister. His only brother Mrs. Rudolph Wenger, Sr., visitwas killed in a railroad accident a year ago. His mother died when

A. O. Peterson made the home folks

The Parent-Teachers' meeting was Who swiped our good Oregon held last week Wednesday and it was weather? This is getting over being voted that the date be changed to the first Wednesday of the month, instead of the second. Everybody is invited to attend the next meeting a joke. C. W. Bradshaw attended the county Farm Bureau meeting at Mc-Minnville last Saturday. Homer Fisher was home for his usual weekly visit and took the folks on January 3. Special business is to be transacted.

SPRINGBROOK

The telephone line has been under-going some repairs the last day or The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Baldwin is very sick with two. The poles are being reinforced pneumonia.

with cedar posts. C. K. Hubbard has been taking a few tomatoes and cucumbers to mar-ket the last week. Rather cool, even Earl Thorne Ferris White came home from O. A. C. last Saturday for the Christ-

Earl Thorne was absent from school for a couple of days last week on account of a fall he received Last Saturday was rather a sad day among the chickens of the neigh-borhood. Of course they were of the Saturday visitors in P

Saturday visitors in Portland were Stella Hubbard, Myrtle Newby, Mr. and Mrs. John Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Newby, Mrs. W. W. White and feathered variety and were plucked and sent to market. Miss Maud Koeber and three friends from Portland, paid a short Mrs. H. Hobson.

visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sewell Newhouse came home the Chas. K. Hubbard, Sunday evening. The young folks were gathering mislatter part of last week for a few days visit. He says it is quite cold in Bend where he is employed as an

The ladies of the Newberg Farm Bureau will organize the "Ladies" Department" on January 6, 1923. All ladies are invited to take part and will be made welcome. Those She was confined to her home on acwho desire further particulars may get them by calling one of the com-count of a severe cold. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kincaid and Mrs. W. W. Dunton motored to Portmittee on organization. This com-mittee is Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Mrs. land Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Kin-caid returned home in the afternoon but Mrs. Dunton will visit for a few > home with an injury he received while working at the sawmill. He fell on the ice and hit his left shoulder and arm and crushed the ribs and bruised his side.

ings, songs and a pantomime. The program will be Sunday evening, be ginning at seven-thirty in church. Everyone welcome. the

Henry Stockman's house caught Monday morning for Seattle to visit their daughter, Sister Estella, at the which had started in the roof, was discovered by a couple of men who happened to be passing and with the Cards are out announcing the arrival of a son born to Mr. and Mrs. aid of some neighbors was soon put Ralph Jackson of Lexington, Ore-

Revival meetings will begin next Monday evening at the church. Fred Mrs. Maurice Merten a daughter on Cope from Portland will be the evan-December 18. Her name is Cecilia gelist, assisted by his wife. Meetings Maurine. The young mother is at will commence at 7:30. Everyone the home of her mother, Mrs. John is urged to come out and hear Mr. Cope.

Donald Kirk was drowned in the Donald Kirk was drowned in the Willamette river Wednesday after-last Friday afternoon in the auditonoon of last week. He left town rium of the school house. After havabout three o'clock with the two ing been entertained by class recita-Buyserie boys and Lester Kirk to go tions by the school children the laduck hunting. Out there he be- dies treated the children with candy came separated from the rest, going and popcorn. The next meeting of out in a cance. A boat picked up the club will be the first Friday in the cance the next day on its way January at the home of Mrs. Stella to Oregon City and his gun was found Saturday, but his body has Carlisle.

WEST CHEHALEM

D. E. Davis sold some hogs in handsome present. Blankets $8.50 each.

E. C. BAIRD

to Baird's and goods will be promptly delivered.

GIVE THE BOYS AND GIRLS A CHANCE

The boys and girls of today will be the men and women of tomorrow. Give them every chance to become

HAPPY AND HEALTHY MEN AND WOMEN

In far too many cases they receive injuries to their spines in early childhood, injuries which, being slight, pass by unnoticed and uncared for. They are therefore obliged to grow up seriously handicapped.

Every boy and girl should have a Spinal Analysis at least once every three months

The value of this Analysis cannot be estimated in dollars, as such Analysis would detect and correct subluxations of the vertebrae (displacem ents of the small bones of the spine) before they would become a menace to Health.

days with her daughter. Lucas Cowgill is confined to his The K. C.s are taking up a col Eugene Davidson and Fred Davidson, with families, were Salem vis-The oil well two miles south of

The Sunday school Christmas pro-gram will consist of tableaux, read-St. Paul has caused excitement, for Fred Raymond has moved into town, having sold his part of the farm to his brother, Henry. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKay left fire one evening last week. The fire out gon. His name is Eugene Kenneth. Born, to the household of Mr. and Mrs. George Wenger Tuesday. Miss Wilda Orr spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Fred Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Pattison spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William Carter.

Miss Gladys Hertig and Fred Williams visited Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Carter Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boyd and son Howard and Billy Sleeper spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sallee.

Kathryn Harford was a guest of Eva Sallee Monday night. They were stringing popcorn for the school Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Harford and Mr. and Mrs. William Carter were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sallee.

Mrs. Leona Lynch has returned to her home at Vancouver, Wash., after a two weeks' visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wenger were Mrs. ZenZen and sons, Hubert, Gussle and Raymond, of Raybell, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Harford and daughter, Kathryn, and Emil Jensen.

Tuesday visitors at the school were Mrs. . Sallee, Mrs. A. H. Boyd, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Fay Harford and Mrs. Lou Carter. The visitors and children were treated to candy and popcorn balls by the teacher, Miss Orr. The children also received some nice presents.

Christmas Sale Of

Potted Plants

POINSETTIAS, CYCLAMENS, PRIMROSES

BEGONIAS AND FERNS

See them at

Graham's Drug Store

Friday and Saturday

John Gower & Son

It will pay you to read the ads.

they were in their infancy. REX

Joe Steager is spending a few weeks at the home of Henry Strate. Josephine Whitney has been absent from school on account of sick-

Miss Mary Strate and nephew, Evert Brickley, went to Portland Saturday.

The Rex community will hold their Christmas exercises at the hall on Friday evening.

Miss May Jones of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her father, A. Jones.

Dr. Louis Walker, from Aberdeen, Wash., visited his sister, Mrs. Abe Jenkins, last Saturday.

Mrs. L. I. Eves, who has for the past two months been at Jesse Edwards of Newberg, returned home Wednesday.

Henry Yokel returned home Thursday from Friend, Neb., where he has been visiting his parents for the past six weeks.

R. E. Brown and family were very much excited over the captivity of two skunks in a barrel, which was standing in the hen house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heskett re-turned home from Baltimore, Md., Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hesket have been in the east about two years.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Morrison and grand-children, Madge and Gene Conway, left for Oakland, Califor-nia, on Wednesday in their car.

imhill Tu lay. Louis Amoth was in Portland on business Saturday. Mrs. Fred Beagle was a recent visitor of Mrs. B. F. Yergen. Ralph Baker came home from Corvallis for the holiday vacation Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and family were in Portland last Saturday.

Joe Sullivan is home from Portland to spend the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Purvis were in McMinnville last Saturday on busi-

Among other recent visitors in Portland were Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Shaw

Lela Yergen, primary teacher at No. 10 has again taken up her school duties.

Mrs. Eda Amoth and two children motored to Salem Tuesday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morgan were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith.

Miles Maxwell is busy preparing large number of turkeys for the Christmas market.

Lois Fendall came home from O. A. C. last Saturday to spend the holiday season at home

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Shaw and sons, Floyd and Virgil, were Sunday din-ner guests of L. L. Amoth and family.

The Ewing Young janitor says he very much appreciates finding the fire already started on the recent cold mornings. Thanks are due Mr. Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Fendall and on, Charles Keith, who have been in Albany and Corvallis several weeks, have returned to West Chehalem.

Rev. Paul Lewis gave us another fine sermon last Sunday and will also preach next Sunday. There will also be a short Christmas program before preaching,

The boys' class will stage an entertainment in the church basement Friday evening, December 29th. The nature of the program has not yet been divulged. If you wish to know, come and see.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

Mrs. Rycer who has been sick for me time is slowly improving. Mrs. M. L. Haynes has been confined to her bed the last few days. P. P. Bryan from Prescott, Wash., is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. P.

Harry Wohlschlegel visited at the E. C. Wohlschlegel and L. T. Finigan homes Sunday.

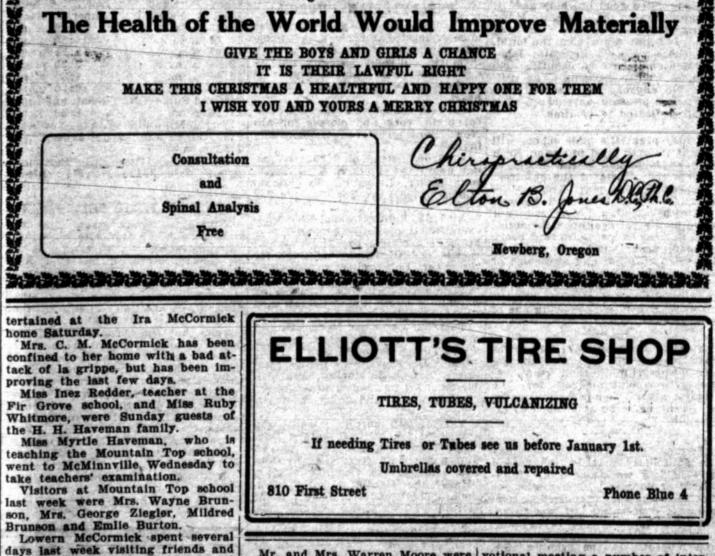

Wayne and Mae Jones, Ray Ego and P. P. Bryan were Sunday visi-tors at Date Hutchens.'

Mrs. Chris Hanson was taken to Portland the first of the week to be operated on for a goitre. D. M. McInnis, who has been working in Klickitat since September, returned home Saturday. Milton Hockenberry, who is work-ing on the Nutcroft farm, was a dinner guest at B. F. Deford's on Sunday.

Mrs. Jake Young from Aloah and Mrs. Charles Cole has Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Deford were en- sick list the past week.

If all parents were as careful about the spines of their boys and girls as they are about the care of their automobiles, it would not be long before relatives in and near Newberg, and returned home Wednesday evening. There will be a Christmas pro-gram at the Mountain Top school P. W. Baughman is spending some time in Los Angeles, California. Miss Esther Marnack is visiting relatives in Milwaukie, Oregon, at house next Saturday evening. An in-vitation is extended to all who wish present.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moore were votional meeting a number of inter-Portland visitors last week.

to come. M. J. Boatwright took a load of wheat to Newberg last week and also one to Hillsboro. He was able Miss Irene Barr is in McMinn-ville this week attending the teachers' examination.

into the parsonage and has taken Rev. Paul Lewis' place as pastor, Mr. Lewis having resigned on account of

The school Christmas program will be held at the school house Saturday evening, December 23. The teachers, Mr. Coleman and Miss Barr have been putting in lots of time in preparation for the occasion.

The W. C. T. U. ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. S. T. Bixler last Thursday afternoon for their meet-ing. It was a rather stormy day but there was quite a good attend-ance. Mrs. Bird McClaflin, presi-dent, was in the chair. After the deesting topics were brought up in re-gard to the work. On motion it was decided to hold a social in the near future, also to bring clothes and sew and make them over for the orphan's nome children at the next meeting. Mrs. Edna Cupples was named as superintendent of this work. The superintendent of this work. The hostess very kindly served coffee, buns and cookies, which were ap-preciated by all. The next January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Marie Tangen. All the ladies are invited to be present—those in the union and other ladies of the neighborhood neighborhood.

The Parent-Teachers' association held their meeting last Friday eve-ning. There was quite a good-sized crowd present. Mr. Coleman gave a very good talk to the parents and students in regard to the school work, and what the parent-teachers' association should stand for. Then followed a debate or discussion on followed a debate or discussion on the question, "Resolved that the home has more influence on the for-mation of character than the school." S. T. Bixler led in the affirmative, also Mr. Coleman and M. P. Johnson followed, alternating with G. E. Mann, Mrs. Edna Cupples and Mrs. Marie Tangen on the negative. Quite

(Continued on page twelve)

to get 12 cents more on the bushel in Newberg. The J. P. Jones family have re-ceived word from Frank Smeltzer saying he and his children will be Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Leighmann were visitors with Mrs. Leighmann's mother, Mrs. Marie Tangen, last Sunday. A Christmas program will be giv-en at the Chehalem Center church down from eastern Oregon to spend down from eastern Oregon to spend Christmas with them. Mrs. L. T. Finigan returned home Sunday from Hillsboro where she spent the week with her daughter, Mrs. Tom Shuck. Little Stanley Shuck, who has the pneumonia, is Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend. Rev. Charles Whitlock has moved poor health.

Mrs. Charles Cole has been on the Shuck, who has the pneumonia, is steadily growing better. After one and a half months, Mrs. E. C. Wohlschlegel has received her little daughters score card in connec-tion with the health show in Port-land this fall. The little miss, whose name is Phyllis Arlene, scored 98 ½ points. CHEHALEM CENTER

Merry, Merry Christmas to all.