

Get Under a Roof of Your Own and Smile

Decide right now that you, too, will smile the smile of American independence next year.

Renting is a habit that ultimately becomes slavery. Why live in another's house?

Come in and let us show you how easy it is to get under your own roof—and smile!

ning as a whole a decided success. Santa said in his letter he would come either by sleigh or airplane, but here was no snow and he said he lost the cars to his airship, so he just wore rubber boots and got along as best he could. He had a fine basketful of candy, nuts, etc., for the children. As Mr. Graves seemed to be the biggest "kid" present, his name headed the list and none were forgotten down to the smallest. Everyone wished Santa a happy and prosperous new year and promised to see him again next year.

CHEHALEM CENTER

The Misses Irene Barr and Eleanor Ford were in McMinnville last Thursday and Friday.

The Sunday school gave a very nice Christmas program at the church Sunday evening.

R. W. Staley was the recipient of a fine large turkey sent to him by his sister in North Dakota.

Mrs. Cole and Mary Lou and Jimmy went to Portland to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ballard and little son and daughter were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blanchard Sunday.

The Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Staley Monday were Messrs. Charles Shires and wife, Robert Sires and wife and Forest Staley and wife.

Mrs. Chester Loveland had the misfortune to fall in some way and burn her left arm very painfully on the hot stove recently. She is carrying her arm in a sling.

L. H. Meyer motored to Portland to spend the Christmas program with his daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cate.

Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Crocker and son, George, arrived home from Oregon City Friday evening, for a short Christmas vacation. Rev. Crocker is doing pastoral work at Oregon City and George is attending high school.

Amidst the holiday joys and festivities Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson received the sad intelligence of the death of their daughter, Mrs. Mildred Waterbury of Cleveland, Ohio. She was taken sick with pneumonia which proved fatal. Mrs. Waterbury and children came out last summer and spent a few weeks with her parents. They have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

Last Saturday evening the Christmas program was held at the school house. The room was nicely decorated with cedar boughs and ferns appropriate for the season. The old school house was filled with people of the community notwithstanding it was a rainy night. The tree was beautifully decorated with tinsel and popcorn. The program was very well arranged and nicely carried out with various recitations and singing by the children. One sketch was very good, "Courtship Under Difficulties," by Miss Smith, Earl Agee and Russell McClafflin. The special music was furnished by the orchestra consisting of the cornet by Mr. Coleman, violin by Mr. Staleup, with Mrs. Coleman at the piano. All enjoyed the music as each one demonstrated real talent and this added very much toward making the program interesting. Then as the program drew to a close Santa Claus appeared and helped distribute the candy and nuts and some presents to the school children. Everyone, apparently, received a treat, and all departed at a late hour, feeling that Christmas comes but once a year and when it comes it brings good cheer.

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN

J. A. Brunson has been quite ill the last few days.

Mrs. F. J. Clark was in Newberg the most of last week doctoring.

P. P. Bryan came up Tuesday to visit his sister, Mrs. J. P. Jones.

L. D. Warden went to Portland Sunday to spend Christmas with his sister.

Alfred Hutchens was a week ago Sunday guest at the Henry Edwards home.

Frank Smeltzer and children are visiting this week with the J. P. Jones family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ansal Tykerson of Sheridan visited relatives on the mountain Christmas.

Elden McCormick went to Newberg Saturday and remained over Christmas with relatives.

Miss May Jones and Ray Ego went to Hebo Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lane and children.

Willie Haveman is home from U. of O. this week; his first vacation since school opened last fall.

Miss Bernice Finigan is spending this week in Hillsboro at the home of her sister, Mrs. Tom Shuck.

Last Tuesday week seven couples enjoyed a taffy pulling and game party at the Pleasant View school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira McCormick and children ate Christmas dinner with Mrs. McCormick's father and sister at Whitford.

Beryl Deford came home Saturday from Normal at Monmouth to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Deford.

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Hull of Newberg, Mrs. Clara Wohlschlegel and Milton Hockenberry were Christmas guests at Ed Wohlschlegel's.

The Pleasant View school gave a nice program and had a Christmas tree Friday afternoon. The teacher, Miss Flossie Virden, has gone home for the week.

The L. T. Finigan family drove to Hillsboro and were dinner guests at Tom Shuck's Christmas, where they were joined by Joe and Emma Finigan of Portland.

Mrs. John Davis and daughter, Mildred, went to Portland Saturday and are visiting with Mrs. Davis' daughter, Mrs. Brown. They expect to remain a week.

F. W. Mattern and Earl Etrwiler drove to Portland Monday of last week and visited at the home of Mrs. Ella Hanson, returning home Thursday evening.

In spite of bad roads there has been a great deal of going and coming this week. Most everyone, who didn't go off the mountain to spend Christmas, entertained at home.

Mrs. Jake Young, who has been visiting her mother, sister and brothers on the mountain, spent brother Tom Haynes and family, who live in the Scholls neighborhood and returned to her home at Aloha Friday.

The program given by the Mountain Top school was very much of a success, in spite of the teacher having to be in McMinnville three days last week taking teachers' examinations. There was a good program and a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marlin came up from Huber Sunday and remained until after Christmas at the McMinnville homestead. The Misses Laura and Alice McMinn returned home with them Tuesday and will remain the rest of the week.

The mountain has been trying to do its bit to help with Christmas dinner this year. L. T. Finigan and Will Wohlschlegel sent 100 dressed chickens and F. J. Clark nine dressed geese to be sold on the public market the day before Christmas.

Last Sunday the mountain folks who had retired for the night were awakened by a charivari at Callie Whitmore's on Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lee, (Miss Olive Whitmore). The newlyweds will make their home at Cherry Grove in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Date Hutchens were host and hostess at a dance Christmas night, when about sixty neighbors and friends were present, and such a good time was enjoyed by all that it was near three o'clock in the morning before good night was said.

Mrs. Ira McCormick surprised the Buck Haven school children and teacher with a hot lunch Friday. Mrs. E. C. Wohlschlegel furnished a big dish of pickles. Other visitors at the school this week were the Misses Gracie and Marion Otis, Fred Haynes and Miss Winnifred Finigan.

NEWBERG LOSES A FINE CITIZEN

about seven years, beginning with the first McKinley administration; he was postmaster at Newberg, during the greater part of which period he was assisted in the management and editorship of the Graphic by his son, Walter C. Woodward.

As editor of a live newspaper with steadfast and forcibly expressed convictions, Mr. Woodward was held in high esteem by the newspaper men of the state, evidence of which is found in the fact that he was at one time president of the Oregon State Press association. At the time of his retirement he was, perhaps the longest period of continuous service of any editor and publisher then active in Oregon. The last editorial from his pen, a valedictory in which he reviewed his editorial service, on turning over the paper to his successors, was entitled "The End of the Road." Little did he realize the full truth of that caption.

It was natural that so positive a personality should meet misunderstanding, criticism and opposition along the way of duty. Those who opposed him, however, were ever mindful of his straightforward integrity, and respecting his fearless devotion to the cause he championed, unite in doing him honor. As for himself, with a breadth of view, a spirit of tolerance for the opinions of others, and with a warm human sympathy, it was foreign to his nature to harbor ill-feelings toward anyone. His was the soul of a Christian gentleman.

He leaves his wife, a son, Walter C. Woodward of Richmond, Indiana, general secretary of the Five Years Meeting of Friends in America and editor of the American Friend; and a daughter, Mrs. W. A. King of Portland. Preceding him were an infant son, Benjamin, who died in Indiana; a son Herman, aged 17, and a daughter Sibyl, aged 38, who died in the years 1908 and 1920 respectively, and who lie in the family burying ground in the Newberg cemetery. There are four grandchildren—Edward and Sibyl Lou King, and Bernice Louise and Mary Ellen Woodward. He leaves also two brothers, Ira H. and Riley D. Woodward of Haviland, Kansas, and Plainfield, Indiana, respectively, who spent last winter here; a sister, Mrs. A. E. Moore of Newberg, and a half-brother, Albert Dixon of San Diego, California.

BERRIANS WILL HOLD MEETING

rian members. It is an important event in the life of the community and should be largely attended by farmers, fruitgrowers, citizens of Newberg, business people and anyone who is at all public spirited. If you have been dissatisfied in any way with the things which have been done by the Berrians this is the time to come out and say so, and use your influence to get them righted. If you are satisfied with the work which has been done, you should come out and encourage those who have been sacrificing their personal interests to make the movement a success.

The following financial report of the treasurer of the Berrians will show something of where the money has come from and where it has gone. It will be noted that there is at present a deficit of nearly $270. This is not large when it is considered that nearly $1,000 was paid out for band uniforms this year. In fact it is remarkable that the Berrians have been able to accomplish so much when the small membership which has responded to repeated appeals is considered. Any person who lives in trading distance of Newberg and who is not maintaining at least one membership in this organization should be ashamed of themselves for their lack of public spirit. There should be a membership of at least 500. There should also be fully 50 members of the drill team which now only numbers 27. Don't forget the meeting Wednesday night and come prepared to say something.

COMPLIMENTS GRAPHIC

The Newberg Graphic, Nottage & Dimond, publishers came out in holiday attire last week and the edition is most creditable to the city from which it emanates and the print shop from which it was produced. The ads. were attractive, and the reading matter in keeping with the Yuletide thought. As usual the newspaper covered the news of the city and surrounding country excellently.—News-Reporter.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

The legislative committee will have a report on recommendations to be made to the legislature. This should be especially interesting at this time owing to the active part being taken in legislative matters by the various farm organizations this year.

The Sunnycrest orchestra will favor us with a number of selections and Mr. Bateham will furnish some entertainment with some children.

Don't forget to turn in your orders to the pooling committee. Special prices have been secured on some items already, and others will be as soon as you let us know what you want.

The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall.
