

BEND HAPPENINGS FROM DAY TO DAY

Wednesday—

J. F. Taggart has returned from a short business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Ruth Kinsbury underwent a major surgical operation at the St. Charles hospital last night.

C. H. Miller arrived this morning from his home in Redmond to attend a session of the county court.

B. P. Royce of the Pioneer garage will spend the next few days attending a business matters in Portland.

F. J. Harris and wife of Clarkston, Wash., arrived in Bend this morning to spend a few days visiting friends.

Merle Miller left for Wyeth this morning, having secured a position with a railroad tie treating plant at that place.

J. O. Harris, who has been spending a few days with friends in Bend, left last night for his home at Silverton, Ore.

A. E. Coyn was a passenger on last night's train for Roseville, Cal., where he will spend the remainder of the winter.

Miss Ada Edwards has returned to Cottage Grove to make her home after being a resident of Bend for the past four years.

Mrs. E. A. Alley left last night, to attend her father-in-law, who is at St. Vincent's hospital suffering from heart trouble.

Mrs. Ray Anderson and children returned to Bend last night after a short visit spent with Mrs. Anderson's sister at Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pringle and son returned this morning from Portland, where they spent the past few days visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jones have returned to their home at Colfax, Wash., after spending the past week visiting with friends in Bend.

The Baptist Women's union will be entertained by Mrs. M. D. Enloe at her home at 364 East Greenwood at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers MacVeagh left last night for their home in Portland after a visit spent with Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Bailey Jr. of Sisters.

R. B. Mutzig of Portland is spending the day in Bend. Mr. Mutzig was an early resident of this city and still has considerable property interests here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Sumner, left last night for Portland to make their home. Mr. Sumner has enrolled for a six months' course at the Hayward Ignition school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kerns of 1533 West Twelfth street were called to Silver Lake this morning by the death of Mrs. Kerns' father, G. W. Moore.

A. Ripe, for the past three years with the Standard Furniture Co., has become associated with D. G. McPherson in the conduct of the business of the Bend Furniture Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson and children who have been visiting with their son-in-law, R. W. Leifke of Bend, for the past two months left last night for their home at Spokane.

Harold R. Munden, musician in the U. S. marine corps, left this morning to report for duty at Mare Island, Cal., after spending the past two weeks visiting his parents at their home at the Woodbend ranch.

The Odd Shop has moved from the corner of Wall and Greenwood to a more central location on the corner of Wall and Oregon. Miss Genevieve Wagner, the proprietor, plans to put in a complete line of office supplies and to enlarge the stock hitherto carried.

Tuesday—

Thomas Murphy returned this morning from Portland.

Mrs. L. Gaspard left this morning for Pocatello, Idaho, for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. V. A. Forbes of the home service section of the Red Cross was in Madras today.

Mrs. J. Sparbery of 1645 Albany avenue is confined to her home with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. W. H. Hannon, who has been visiting with Mrs. C. H. Jackson of Bend, left last night for her home at Madras.

Mrs. George Borrowman has returned from a visit of two months' duration, spent with relatives in Butte, Mont.

Mrs. Theodore Waigert and daughter of The Dalles arrived last night to spend a few days in Bend visiting with relatives.

Mrs. E. I. Cook was called to Eugene this morning by the death of her sister, which occurred in that city yesterday.

Bert Fuller was able to be out today after having been confined to his home for the past two weeks with an attack of tonsillitis.

Passengers on the Bend-Silver Lake stage this morning were: L. M. Foss to Silver Lake, and Oscar Cate to Fort Rock.

Dr. A. Lesning was called to Seattle this morning to attend to matters in connection with the army compensation board.

Rev. J. Edgar Purdy will spend the coming week in Madras, where he will assist the pastor of the church in holding special meetings.

Mrs. F. A. Rice, who has been visiting for the past few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ellis, left last night for her home in Redmond.

H. H. Sess, together with his son, Theodore, and daughter, Ila, left last night for Seattle, where he will open a studio for vocal culture.

Mrs. Thomas Anders, wife of the foreman at the United Warehouse, will spend the remainder of the week visiting her parents at Stevenson, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doran are leaving for San Francisco and other points in California tomorrow morning. They expect to be gone for the next month.

Mrs. George O'Neil and Miss Edith Hockinson returned to their home in Bend this morning after spending the past 10 days visiting with friends in Portland.

The Presbyterian Ladies' guild will be entertained by Mrs. Blaine Garner at the home of Mrs. J. H. Connar, 655 Ogden street, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Rev. L. C. Foss, president of the northwest district of the Swedish-Lutheran church, left last night for Portland to continue his inspection of various churches in the district.

F. O. Edholm left last night for his home at Albany, after having spent the past week attending to business matters in connection with the purchase of a cattle ranch near La Pine.

Edith and Nona Dudley, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hauer for the past few weeks, left this morning for Portland, en route to their home at Florence, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deon were visitors in the city over Sunday and Monday from their camp on Tumalo creek, where Mr. Deon is taking water readings for the Bend Water, Light & Power Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hauer were morning passengers to Portland, where they will spend a month visiting relatives. While in Portland Mr. Hauer will undergo treatment by an eye specialist.

Al Miller has taken his departure for South Bend, where he has secured a position with the Case Lumber Co.

K. E. Sawyer will spend the next few days in Portland attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pojnede were passengers this morning for Wasco, where they will make their home during the construction of the Standard Oil company's tank at that place, on which Mr. Pojnede will be employed.

Degrees of past master and most excellent master were conferred upon Dr. Grant Skinner, Lloyd Magill, B. P. Royce, E. E. Gasbar and B. B. Moore at the regular meeting of Bend chapter No. 39 Royal Arch Masons, at the Masonic hall last night.

Monday—

N. S. Olson will spend the time between trains attending to business matters today at Redmond.

Earl Weymouth returned last night from a two weeks' vacation spent with relatives in Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Maunheimer and son Robert, left Saturday night for a visit with friends in Portland. A. R. Cunningham, section foreman at Madras, was in Bend Saturday attending to business matters.

Orville Shultz returned this morning to Prineville, after visiting over the week-end with his parents at Alfalfa.

George W. Dearing and J. B. Brinkley, of Grays Harbor, Wash., are in Bend attending to business matters.

C. H. Miller and wife, of Redmond, attended the Shrine club ball Friday night, leaving for their home on Saturday.

Mrs. H. S. Fassett was a morning arrival from Ritzville, Wash., where she visited with relatives during the past week.

THESE ARE EXTREME SACRIFICES WE OFFER TODAY

You can find lower sale prices perhaps and you can find them higher—but quality is just as necessary at a reduced price as it is at the regular price—and when you consider this—then you will readily admit when you see these clothes that we are paying the extreme limit for a set of clean shelves.

Everything must go—when March 1st blows its whistle we want to be without a speck of Winter apparel.

You can save substantially—yes, sensationally this week.

It's worth a look into anyway. Make it today.

- Men's $65, 70, $75 Suits and Overcoats...$44.00
- Men's $60.00 Suits and Overcoats.....$36.75
- Men's $50.00 Suits and Overcoats.....$31.50
- Men's $40.00 Suits and Overcoats.....$26.75
- Men's $35.50 to $37.50 Suits and O'coats...$19.50

One-Third Off on all Boys' Suits, Overcoats and Mackinaws

Men's Corduroy Coats and Pants, Sweet Orr make, now priced at.....$20.75

All Flannel Shirts reduced 30 per cent.

All Dress Shirts reduced 30 per cent.

All Dress & Work Gloves reduced 20%

Holeproof and Interwoven Sock Prices Slashed
50c quality now priced at.....35c and 40c
60c and 65c quality now priced at.....40c
75c quality now priced at.....60c
$1.00 all silk Socks now priced at.....75c

Ready-to-Wear Department

Just received this morning, a shipment of Dresses, Suits and Coats. The Dresses are of Taffeta, Satin and Cretonne Crepe—the very latest of models. The Suits and Coats are of Fancy Plaids, Velours, Tricotine, Jerseys and Serges—latest cape and coatee styles. Priced $11.50 to $47.50

It Pays to Stop and Shop at

MANNHEIMER BROTHERS

Passengers on the Bend-Silver Lake stage this morning were: F. O. Edholm to La Pine, and George A. Theil to Freemont.

L. S. Tennes, oiler at the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Co. mill, will spend the coming two weeks visiting his brother at Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. Hugh O'Kane returned this morning from Portland, where she has been under the care of a physician for the past four weeks.

E. P. Jech, of the Cent-Ore Motor Co., and wife, returned this morning after having spent the past week visiting in Portland and Seattle.

George Nordgren and B. Benson, boiler-makers employed by The Sherwin-Hixon Company, left Saturday for their home in Portland, having completed their work here.

A. E. McFarland returned with his children from Snohomish, Wash., this morning, the youngsters having been visiting with their grandmother at that city for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Martha Warnstaff, accompanied by her son, George Roe, arrived in Bend Saturday evening, after a visit of two months spent with her sister, Mrs. Henry Landt, at Watsonville, Cal.

Dennis Hunt, watermaster of the Squaw Creek irrigation project, arrived this morning from Salem, where he spent the past week attending to business matters in connection with the district.

Verlie and Bernice Hodges, students at the Link Business college, Portland, returned Saturday night after having been called to Bend to attend the funeral of their grandfather, W. M. Hodges.

Saturday—

Jacob J. Boylen of Alfalfa was attending to business matters in Bend yesterday.

Mrs. H. Dugan of Park place is spending a few weeks with relatives in Portland.

Fred Carlson of Portland was a visitor in Bend, leaving for his home this morning.

Mrs. C. F. Cline is recovering from an attack of gripe at her home, 154 Hawthorne street.

Thomas Murphy will spend the next few days attending to business matters in Portland.

The Episcopal Sunday school will be held at Sather's hall at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Troy Beaver is able to be out again after spending a week in bed suffering from a light attack of heart trouble.

Emmett Molitor and Olaf Halversen furnished the music for the dance last night at the Grange hall at Opal City.

Joseph Goddard, who has been employed by the Standard Oil Co. at Condon, returned to his home in Bend yesterday.

Miss Grace Mitchell, who has been visiting with relatives in Bend for the past week, left last night for her home in Redmond.

Mrs. T. H. Marsden and daughter, Patricia, will spend the coming two weeks visiting with friends in Portland.

Mrs. Roy Anderson and children left last night for Prineville to spend a few days with Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Harvey Puett.

Ace Dobson, 1935 Milwaukee, who has been confined to his home for the past week with an attack of pleurisy, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Turner, Miss E. Babcock, Miss E. McCulloch and L. H. Irving of Madras attended the Shrine ball here last night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Wood and son, Billy, of Olympia, Wash., arrived yesterday to spend a few weeks visiting with relatives in Bend.

WARNER'S Closing Out Sale Saves You Money! Woolen Dress Goods 1/3 to 1/2 Off Hosiery & Underwear 1/3 to 1/2 Off Shoes, 1/3 to 1/2 Off

It makes no difference what it is—if it's here it is priced 1/3 to 1/2 off.

spending a few weeks with relatives in Bend.