

The Bend Bulletin

(Weekly Edition)
Published by
THE BEND BULLETIN
(Incorporated)
Established 1909.
ROBERT W. SAWYER, Manager

An independent newspaper standing for the square deal, clean business, clean politics and the best interests of Bend and Central Oregon.
One year.....$2.00
Six months.....1.00
Three months......50

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1921.

Fifteen Years Ago

(From the columns of The Bulletin of March 16, 1906.)

Bend now has a "push" club, under the official title of the Bend Commercial club. The officers are: John Steidl, president; Dr. U. C. Coe, vice president; P. L. Tompkins, secretary; H. C. Ellis, treasurer. The yearly membership fee is $2.

At a recent meeting of the Prineville city council the Sunday closing ordinance was repealed, as was also the liquor ordinance which has been on the city's statute books for the last few months.

The Bend city council at its Tuesday night session repealed ordinance No. 27, which prohibited gambling.

The largest ranch under cultivation this year in the vicinity of Bend will be the Johnston ranch, about 18 miles north and east of Bend. At least 600 acres will be seeded.

A number of Indians are camped east of Arnold's and are hunting deer. Complaints are reaching The Bulletin that the Indians are allowed to hunt these animals, while the settlers are prevented from doing so by the watchfulness of the wardens.

BEND HAPPENINGS

Monday—

Two large chimneys of the new Methodist church were finished today. Work on the basement is proceeding rapidly.

Ben A. Bellamy, traveling salesman, reached Bend this morning, making the trip from Portland in his Buick roadster.

Rock is being blasted out of the lot on which the Catholic church stands, in preparation for putting in the lawn this spring.

Miss Ida Niswonger is expected to be home about April 1 for a 10-day vacation. She is attending Willamette university at Salem.

William Bagley, formerly connected with the White Lunch here, moved his effects to Redmond this afternoon, where he will open a restaurant.

Francis Meagher, who has been seriously ill for the past week with pneumonia, is convalescing. Mrs. Meagher is suffering from the same disease.

A baby boy was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coffey of 302 Hill street at the home of Mrs. Coffey's mother, Mrs. Eva Neff, five miles east of Bend.

R. L. Hutton returned today from his ranch at Wagonite, making the 120-mile trip by machine. He reports the roads in excellent condition for this time of year.

According to a letter received here today, Frank Knowles, local ex-serviceman, who is in the military hospital at Tacoma being treated for a shoulder injury received in service, is improving greatly. It is not known when he can return to Bend.

Saturday—

J. N. Church was a business visitor in Redmond today.

A. J. Whistler returned this morning from Portland.

W. Harback left last night to make his home in Portland.

J. H. Meister returned this morning from Pritchard, Idaho.

D. Brown is attending to business matters in Redmond today.

Mrs. J. L. Caldwell will spend the week-end with her husband in Portland.

C. P. Dorian left this morning to attend to business matters in Redmond.

O. M. Whittington will spend the coming week visiting his family in Portland.

Mrs. H. Allen, 910 Broadway, will spend the coming week with friends in Portland.

The ladies of the Catholic church are planning to hold a cooked food sale on March 19.

Mrs. C. H. Jackson returned to her home in Madras last night after spending the winter in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin W. Fowler are the parents of an eight-pound baby boy, born this afternoon.

F. Walstrom, Bend resident for the past five years, left last night for Portland to make his home.

Mrs. J. C. Wood was a passenger on the morning train for Portland to spend a few days visiting friends.

E. D. Marsh left last night for Portland to spend a few days before leaving for Weed, Cal., to make his home.

Mrs. A. Sheppard, who has been visiting friends in Camas, Wash., returned to her home in Bend this morning.

The recently organized male quartet and the mixed choir will sing tomorrow night at the Lutheran church services.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Foss are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a 9½-pound baby boy, born Friday evening.

R. R. Troutman left Bend last on the way from his home near Fort Rock to Portland, where he will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMurtrie, Bend residents for the past year, left this morning for Puyallup, Wash., to make their home.

County School Superintendent J. Alton Thompson was in Terrebonne the features of the St. Patrick's so-called night to address a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Whitmore returned to their home in Bend this morning after spending the past month with friends in Spokane.

Miss Pearl Catlow left this morning for her home in Portland after spending the past five weeks visiting with her cousin Mrs. E. J. Catlow.

Sixty members of the Moose lodge and their friends again motored to the Sellars ranch last Tuesday evening to enjoy dancing until midnight, when an elaborate supper was served.

Excavation has started for the new Pierson & Coble blacksmith shop on Greenwood. The building will be of stone or concrete construction, 50x30 feet, and will cost $5000.

Local music lovers are receiving with interest the announcement that Helen Stover, soprano, will appear at the Heilig theater in Portland on March 16. Miss Stover is a sister of B. A. Stover, formerly a resident of Bend.

Charles Pitcher, William G. Lane and W. B. Gwaley, directors of the Silver Lake school district, are in Bend today settling details in connection with the contemplated construction of a new $40,000 school building to take the place of the structure which was recently destroyed by fire.

Safe Medicine for Children.

Foley's Honey and Tar is a family cough remedy that mothers can depend upon. It will not upset a delicate stomach and children like it. Mrs. Agnes Barnes, 208 E. 4th St., Altoona, Pa., writes: "I gave Foley's Honey and Tar to my baby for croup and it helped her immediately." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Friday—

Dick Lucas is visiting friends in Portland.

Joe Bush is spending a few days in Portland.

R. W. Nicholson returned this morning from a short visit with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Buegler and son Vernon left yesterday for Portland, traveling by auto.

Mrs. E. Marshall arrived in Bend this morning from Portland on her way home to Silver Lake.

LATE SNOW HELPS CLOVERDALE FARMS

CLOVERDALE, March 17.—The four inches of snow which fell Saturday night was a great benefit to the rye, just sown, and will also help the range grass, which is started nicely.

A number from this vicinity attended the "hard times" dance in Sisters Friday night.

P. J. Skelton and Vern Skelton were visitors Monday at the county seat.

Rev. Schnable conducted services here Sunday, but owing to the disagreeable day the attendance was rather small.

Mr. Lund and Mrs. B. C. Kline called on Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Brougher last week.

Charles Arnold and W. F. Arnold were business visitors in Redmond Monday.

Mr. Chalfan and Mr. Powers of Plainview were business callers at the home of Mr. Aldrich last week.

J. L. Parberry is working on the highway east of Redmond now.

Mrs. Christy and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. R. J. Skelton.

A. E. Aldrich purchased a new Ford truck last week.

J. B. Miner of Bend was a business visitor in this section Saturday afternoon.

A. F. Smith was in Redmond Monday. He was accompanied by Miss Allie, who returned to school after having spent Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Brougher spent Sunday afternoon with the latter's sister, Mrs. F. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Doty were shopping in Redmond Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Christy of Washington arrived last week and will live on the ranch this summer.

Mrs. Doty called on Mrs. Cyrus and Mrs. Peck Saturday.

Esther Cyrus was ill several days last week.

Miss Anna Doty and S. E. Kline motored to Bend Saturday.

Henry Beard and family of Redmond spent Friday evening with his sister, Mrs. George Partins.

Residents of this neighborhood visiting Bend last week included: G. Relling, B. Black, W. F. Harrison, W. F. Arnold, R. O. Andrus, W. F. Fryrear, H. Kilgore, W. Mills and J. Rose.

G. B. Smith of the High Desert was a visitor at the H. Kilgore home Saturday. Mr. Smith is looking for a location here to establish a dairy ranch.

Miss Julia Clock, county nurse, visited our school Wednesday afternoon and tested the children according to the Health Crusade chart. Several mothers were in attendance to meet Miss Clock.

George Partin started work on the lower end of the Squaw Creek canal this week.

The directors of the Squaw Creek Irrigation district have decided to do the work of building the ditch through the Long Hollow ranch themselves. All bids received for the work on contract were rejected as they were considered at least one-third too high. The work will be in charge of Gus Stadler.

B. C. Kline was a business caller in Redmond Tuesday.

This Woman Suffered.

Mrs. H. A. Leaman, Sturgin, Col., writes: "I suffered with bladder and kidney trouble for years. Foley Kidney Pills helped me so much I feel fine now. Suffered so it seemed I hardly could live. I recommend Foley's Kidney Pills to all who suffer from kidney trouble as I did." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

CITATION TO CLAIMANTS

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Deschutes County. In the matter of the estate of Charles A. Douglas, deceased. George Warren Douglas, plaintiff, vs. Mrs. Lorella L. Downing, Mrs. Irene P. Lightner, Mrs. Olive N. Westrich, Robert E. Lee Giers and all persons, unnamed or unknown, having or claiming any interest in the estate of Charles A. Douglas, de-

Minorea eggs for hatching Call Hagan's market, Black 1161 169-3-46
FOR SALE—Good alfalfa hay, $15 per ton, waled. Phone 2522. B. L. Reynolds, Powell Butte, Oregon. 47-50-53P
FOR SALE—Everbearing strawberry plants for spring delivery. Apply or write Chauncey D. Becker, Tumalo, Oregon. 45-47-60.

FOR SALE—Hatching eggs; full-blooded Black Minorca and color-strain White Rocks; 15 for $1. Agnes M. Sottong, Rural 1118. 32-34P
FOR SALE—One Holstein cow, giving 4 gallons a day. Address O. B. Caldwell, Rt. 1, Box 13, Bend, Oregon. Phone 4F33. 45-3-5P

Make Your Own Easter Bonnett

Straw and Buckram frames full assortment of shapes and styles also a full line of flowers.

HAT LININGS AND HAT WIRE
HAT DYES, All Shades, 15c

The FAIR STORE

"I Can Hardly Believe It"

said a satisfied customer recently, "that that classy job is my old bus done over."

Let us renew your car with a New Top for Spring

By availing ourselves of the opportunity to buy the highest quality auto top material at low cost—we are now in position to give you a complete job at the lowest possible price. Ask for an estimate.

HARNESS MADE TO ORDER OR REPAIRED THE CHAMPION

Auto Upholstering, Harness and Shoe Repairing Shop
153 Minnesota St. Bend, Oregon

CHEVROLET

"The Product of Experience"

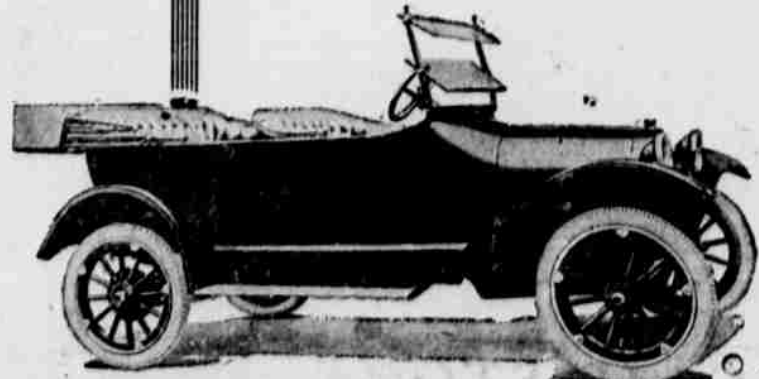

THE popularity of the Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Touring Car is based on the completeness of its service and its great operating economy under all traveling conditions.

In equipment, appearance, and comfort it affords all that experience has shown to be desirable in a modern motor car.

Its balanced construction and valve-in-head motor make it equal to all transportation needs at all times, at least expense for fuel, tires and general up keep.

At its price Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Touring Car represents the utmost in value.

BEND GARAGE

Chevrolet "Four-Ninety" Touring Car, $993.60 f. o. b. Bend

The Central Oregon Bank

D. E. HUNTER, President
CARLETON B. SWIFT, Vice President
E. P. MAHAFFEY, Vice Pres. and Manager
H. M. STEPHENS, Cashier

BEND, OREGON

To Deschutes County Parents:—

The boys of today will be our business men of tomorrow. It's up to you in the first instance to start their training along lines that will make them real business men, but The Central Oregon Bank stands ready to help in the training.

We will welcome savings deposits from the boys. One dollar will open an interest bearing account.

Four per cent interest will help make the account grow, and it will help teach that boy of yours the value of money and the importance of saving.

Think this over. It's decidedly worth your while.

The Central Oregon Bank

D. E. HUNTER, President
E. P. MAHAFFEY, Vice President