

WINTER OPENS WITH GENERAL FALL OF SNOW

Bend Blanketed Under Six Inch Covering

WIRES OUT OF ORDER

Railroad Lines Used at Intervals by Western Union—Building and Project Workers Refuse to Recognize Storm

Winter settled down on Central Oregon in earnest Tuesday morning when snow started falling early, continuing with scarcely an interruption until shortly after noon, when it ended with a fine drizzle of short duration. At noon six inches of snow lay on the level. More snow and rain fell later in the afternoon, and four inches of snow fell Tuesday night.

The storm was apparently general through Central Oregon, extending to the south as far as Lakeview. At Crescent lake, snow falling yesterday and today had reached a depth of 19 inches early this morning. The only bad effects reported were in the way of telegraph and phone communication. Western Union wires north from Bend were out of commission this morning, it being necessary to use railroad wires during the intervals when these were not required for railroad business. Telephone calls to The Dalles could not be put through.

Construction Unhindered

Building construction in the city continued with utter disregard for the storm.

Despite the heavy fall at Crescent lake, the United Contracting Co. crew there was at work today on the sheeting of the dam and dredging the channel approach. Even if more snow falls now, the dam will be in shape to hold water and let the overflow go over the spillway without damaging the dam this winter.

There were 17 inches of snow at the lake Monday, and two inches more fell during the night. A truck which left Bend at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon reached the lake at 11 o'clock the same night. It was raining there this morning.

Project Work Goes On

Work on other units of the irrigation system being built for the Deschutes County Municipal Improvement district was going on as usual today, except for concrete work, which has been stopped. Crews are still at work on the dam in the Deschutes, on the tunnel, blasting on the main canal, and on construction of trestles for flumes. Much of this work can be continued, no matter what the weather, and some concrete work will be possible at intervals during the winter, officials of the United Contracting Co. believe.

The Southern Sahara. The Kalahari desert covers fully 120,000 square miles, and is part of the immense inner tableland of South Africa, with an average elevation of 3,000 feet. It has been called "the Southern Sahara," and like the great desert of north Africa is scarred by the beds of dried-up rivers.

Starts Term in County Jail at Own Request; Farmer Can't Pay $300 Fine, Asks Sheriff to Assign Him to Cell

At his own request, Mont Mellon, of the Tumalo section, started a five months term in the Deschutes county jail Saturday afternoon.

Mellon was arrested early in the fall and pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession after officers had found several gallons of moonshine and parts of a still on his place. The justice court imposed a fine of $300, and gave Mellon until after his potato harvest to pay.

Weeks passed, and Mellon finally came to the conclusion that $300 was more than he could accumulate in one autumn, and he reported to the sheriff, asking to be permitted to start serving out the fine.

CENTRAL OREGON FOOTBALL IS PROVEN EQUAL TO VALLEY GAME

Undefeated Oregon City Team Scores Only One on Redmond Eleven

That very little difference exists between the class of football played by high schools in the Willamette valley and in Central Oregon was demonstrated in the Thanksgiving day game at Redmond, when Oregon City, undefeated valley champion, was unable to get more than a 7 to 0 victory over Redmond high. Redmond had the ball in Oregon City's territory for practically the entire game except the few minutes, early in the third quarter, when the visitors took the offensive and scored on straight football.

Gillette, speedy Redmond quarterback, was the outstanding star of the game. He tore off repeated gains of from 20 to 40 yards around the ends, and ran back punts for similar distances. These plays were almost entirely responsible for the fact that Redmond kept Oregon City on the defensive, although Freeman made some good yardage through the line. Both teams played exceptionally clean football.

Oregon City men blocked a number of Redmond punts, but the Central Oregon boys were on their toes and recovered all of them. A pass to Losh gave Oregon City an opportunity to score. Mayfield carried the ball across the line, and Tobin kicked the goal from placement. A crowd of about 2,000 attended the game, which was played in a snowstorm which was blinding at times to the team facing it.

WILL FEATURE KLAN PROBLEM IN CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS

Subjects of Water Power and Irrigation Also to Be Developed

By Herbert Little

(Written for The United Press.) MADISON, Wis., Dec. 5.—The Ku Klux Klan problem in its relation to state governments will be an outstanding feature of the 14th annual conference of governors at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, December 14, 15 and 16, it was indicated by the program of addresses, as made public here today by Miles C. Riley, secretary of the conference. Governor Henry J. Allen, Kansas, will speak on "The Ku Klux Klan—the Problem It Attacks and the Problem It Creates." His militant opposition to the organization in the Sunflower state leaves no doubt as to his stand.

Governor John M. Parker, Louisiana, who recently made a trip to Washington to complain to President Harding of alleged extra-legal activities of the Klan encroaching on the state's governing prerogatives, has given his subject as "Citizenship," but it is believed that this is a cloak for a defense of his attitude and for new revelations of the masked organization's activities in the Creole state. Eight other papers will be given during the business sessions, which will be held at The Greenbrier.

Governor J. A. O. Prouss of Minnesota will speak in advocacy of the St. Lawrence-west to the Atlantic, outlining the position of the northwest and the middle west and asking the support of the west against the opposition put up by the eastern states.

Governor Samuel R. McKelvie, Nebraska, will go into "Legislation and the Farmer." Water power and irrigation in the west will be the primary subjects of "Conservation and Development of National Assets," by Governor Thomas E. Campbell of Arizona.

State administration will be dealt with directly in two talks, "The Budget System in Virginia," by Governor E. Lee Trinkle, and "The Reorganization of the State Government of Maryland," by Governor Albert C. Ritchie.

"America Adrift," by Governor Benjamin W. Olcott of Oregon, "The Undertow of Crime Waves," by Governor Dilson G. Harvey, South Carolina, and "The Industrial Code and Humane Economics," by Governor James Hartness of Vermont, complete the program of papers.

More than forty state executives and governors-elect already have signified their intention of attending.

SHEVLIN-HIXON WINS OVER B.S. BOWLERS

Shevlin-Hixon bowlers won two games out of three from the Brooks-Scanlon team on the American Legion alleys last night. Boles of Shevlin-Hixon bowled the high single score, 215.

V. P. Webb of Brooks-Scanlon was awarded the prize for the highest single game score of the month, having scored 237 pins. He received a box of cigars offered by O. W. Grubb, manager of the alleys.

MARION TEACHERS BACKING BEND MAN

Will Support G. W. Ager for Presidency of State Organization of Educators

SALEM, Dec. 2.—Marion county teachers, in annual institute here, have decided to support G. W. Ager, city superintendent of the Bend schools, for president of the state teachers' association. A. C. Strange of Baker will have the support of the Marion county teachers for vice president of the state organization.

Ever Welcome Bags

Christmas time is the springtime of bright cretonnes when they blossom out into all sorts of ingenious and beautiful gifts. The picture shows a work or shopping bag folded and unfolded. It is merely a capacious oblong bag of cretonne, with small envelope, bound with braid, sewed to one side, and, by means of snap fasteners, it can be folded and converted into a pretty shopping bag.

Myths Are History.

Mythology, or the study of the beliefs of ancient peoples, is a fascinating study. Myths do not just happen to be. There were no story writers in olden times who said, "I must write a popular story," and forthwith a story appeared that lived and went from mouth to mouth for thousands of years. A myth, in its last analysis, is an historic account, every detail of which is based on fact.

The tales of Homer were thought to be poetic fiction until the burned ruins of Troy were uncovered. The story of Theseus slaying the Minotaur is no idle creation, for every detail of it—the Athenian children for the sacrifice, the labyrinth palace, the wild bull in the center, and a host of other details—has been abundantly verified as fact.

LODGE HONORS ABSENT ONES

Eloquent Address Given by Judge Kavanaugh on Memorial Day

Members of the Bend Elks lodge and others gathered at the Elks hall Sunday afternoon when the annual "Lodge of sorrow" was in session to honor the memory of the "absent brothers," heard one of the most eloquent addresses ever delivered on a similar occasion here, from the lips of John P. Kavanaugh, former circuit judge in Multnomah county. His message was one of comfort to the friends and relatives, founded on the belief in a future existence. He urged every day practice of the virtues taught by the order. H. H. De Armond delivered an inspiring eulogy. Musical numbers were of unusual excellence, consisting of De Koven's "Recessional," by the Episcopal choir, a duet, "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears," by Mrs. R. S. Hamilton and Dr. L. W. Gatchell with Mrs. K. E. Sawyer at the piano, and a solo, "A Spirit Flower," feelingly interpreted by Mrs. E. E. Gray, who was accompanied by Mrs. Hamilton.

In the ritualistic opening and closing, officers of the lodge took part with J. H. Jeffries as chaplain offering the opening prayer, and Captain L. S. Broadbent of the Salvation Army giving the benediction. The services were under the direction of Wilson George, who was at the piano during the ritualistic parts of the program.

W. C. T. U. CHAPTER IS ORGANIZED IN BEND

Members of the local chapter of the W. C. T. U., organized Monday, and others interested in the work, are asked to attend a meeting next Friday at Epworth hall. Fifty-six ladies attended the organization meeting. Mrs. H. J. McClure was elected president, Mrs. R. E. Brown secretary, and Mrs. C. V. Enloe treasurer. Vice presidents have not yet been elected. Meetings will be on the second and fourth Fridays of each month.

Put it in The Bulletin.

BULLETIN HOME RAPIDLY BUILT

Exterior Completed, Press Delivery Ordered—Here in Two Weeks

Exterior construction of the new Bulletin building, except for the windows and skylights, has been completed, so that weather changes should have no effect on steady progress toward finishing the building to the point where machinery may be installed. Delivery of the new Goss press was ordered last week. It should be here in two weeks, by which time it is expected that all will be ready for its installation.

Skylights will be enclosed at once, and the partitions were being built today, after which the interior finishing will be begun.

MINISTERS PROPOSE EVANGELISTIC WORK

Association Holds First Regular Meeting—No Community Tree This Year, Indicated

Plans for an evangelistic campaign to be conducted jointly by the Protestant churches of Bend, starting in February, were discussed at the first regular meeting of the ministerial association, held Monday at the Methodist church parlor. A general exchange of problems and ideas, and reports on the situation and present plans at each of the churches, occupied most of the meeting.

While no discussion was had yesterday, it is understood that the association is opposed to the holding of a community Christmas tree this year under the auspices of the Sunday schools, for the reason that each of the Sunday schools holds its own exercises, and because of the lack of a hall large enough to accommodate the crowds that would turn out for such an affair.
