TWO ARE FINED FOR PHEASANT SHOOTING

POWELL BUTTE, Dec. 13.—Otto Pauls, Rudolph Wellpott and Marvin Thomas were arrested recently and taken before Judge Hyde of Prineville on a charge of killing pheasants.

Pauls and Wellpott pleaded guilty and were fined $50 apiece. Thomas claimed to have had no gun at the time and was discharged.

It is reported that the game warden will pick up some more soon who have been killing pheasants.

At the regular monthly meeting of Powell Butte Co-operative association last Thursday night, much business of importance was talked over. The association voted to buy auto plates bearing "Powell Butte, Crook County," on them. It was also decided to hold a community Christmas tree and entertainment, and committees were appointed for the arrangements. The program committee is Mrs. E. A. Bussett, Mrs. Marvin Cook and Mrs. Ellen Irving.

Mr. Tucker, county agent, was present and made a very helpful talk.

Perma Marke and family have moved in the house formerly occupied by George Whitsett and family. George C. Truesdale recently sold his hay to Will Wurzweller and sons. Price in the stack was $12, we are told.

George Drumm of Paisley, is visiting his nieces, Mrs. Harry Reed and Mrs. Roy Oliver.

Harry Reed is quite ill at his home here.

Frank Kisler butchered a fine beef last week and peddled it out to his neighbors.

The young people are having great sport skating on the pond on the Wurzweller ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCaffrey are in Portland on a business and pleasure trip combined. McCaffrey was subpoenaed on the bonus case and Mrs. McCaffrey will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brown visited their daughter Mrs. Gladys Milner, who is teaching at Roberts, recently. Mrs. Huston accompanied them home and will go on to Prineville for a brief stay.

About one foot of snow fell at Powell Butte and then a strong wind came up and the snow was driven here and there filling the roads and highways with drifts, in some places two deep to be traveled over. Near and in the vicinity of Community hall, many cars were stalled, some times six or eight cars being lined up waiting for the stalled car to break a track that all could follow.

R. F. D. Carrier Foster was unable to cover all of the route because of the drifts.

Many of the Powell Butte people are dressing and shipping turkeys for the Christmas markets.
