

CALORIC COOKSTOVES

The Modern Kitchen Marvel
Hygienic Scientific Economic

THE modern "Caloric" Cookstove is a wonderful advance in fireless cookery. It is entirely different from the ordinary, so-called fireless cookers, including hay boxes and similar devices. It is different in construction and equipment and far superior in cooking efficiency. In it are embodied patented features and principles that can not be obtained elsewhere. The "Caloric" is a complete cookstove and will cook practically everything that can be cooked on an ordinary stove or range. It is the only one that will bake and roast perfectly without first partially cooking the food or reheating it before serving, as well as stew, steam, boil, etc. There is no cheaper nor better process of cooking. It will save at least seventy-five per cent in fuel alone and a wonderful amount of time, labor and discomfort. All the nutrient and delicious flavors of foods are preserved and the toughest cuts of meat are made tender and palatable. With the "Caloric" there is no danger of scorching or burning—everything perfectly cooked and ready to serve at your own convenience. It is used in thousands of homes, sanitariums, Domestic Science Schools, etc. Every "Caloric" is guaranteed. Several sizes.

LABOR OF LADIES' AUXILIARY APPRECIATED.

The work that has been done and is being done by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Commercial Club is resulting in a large amount of good to the city of Grants Pass. These ladies have been encouraged to go forward to make this the city beautiful of the Rogue River valley and that they will succeed there can be no possible question. There are reasons why success will come from the efforts made. First, they are women of superior ability, true courage and high aims. Secondly, it is because the men of the highest ideals in the city never fail to render assistance that may be called for by these earnest workers of the auxiliary. In all kinds of good work men and women deserve appreciation, and unless this is bestowed success is never reached.

This is true in religious affairs as well as in politics, and in industrial undertakings of all kinds. This means that we are not doing our duty if we fail to show appreciation of the best efforts put forth by individuals to benefit the city of Grants Pass or its people.

THE PEOPLE MUST RULE.

Soon the rush and scramble for public office will commence and then we shall see the working out of designs and selfish schemes of politicians to hoodwink the people. Republicans and democrats will vie with each other in this work and the looker on will have trouble in determining which party is deserving of the severest censure for the methods they employ. The people of Oregon have taken the preliminary steps to do away with the corruption of parties and the state has become prominent before the whole country because of the efforts of its legislature to eliminate the political boss in every community. The people of Oregon have resolved to rule in all matters which come before them to be determined at the ballot. They have made the standard of office holding ability and honesty and the party which refuses to meet these requirements must expect defeat. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Not a few of our readers will recognize the individual mentioned in the poem of the "Village Oracle," published in this issue, as Old Dan'l Hanks. Dan is a character who is loyal to this section of the country, but his likes can be found in many communities.

The Banking Law of Oregon

requires State Banks to carry cash resources amounting to 15 per cent of their demand deposits and 10 per cent of their time deposits. During the past year the GRANTS PASS BANKING & TRUST COMPANY has held cash resources of more than double the legal requirement.

BORN.

LEONARD—At Grants Pass, Monday, June 20, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Leonard, a son.

DAVIS—At Grants Pass, Friday, June 17, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis, a son.

MARRIED.

CAREY-BENNETT—At the home of the county judge in this city, Friday, June 17, 1910, Claude E. Carey and Miss Clara E. Bennett; Judge Stephen Jewell officiating.

STUTENROTH-MACNEILL—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stonaker, on Wednesday evening, June 22, 1910, Chas. E. Stutenroth, of this city, and Miss Josephine MacNeill, of Redfields, S. D.; Rev. Frederick Bartlett officiating.

The wedding was a very quiet one, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only a few intimate friends of the young people. The bride visited in this city last summer and during her short stay here made many friends by her charming manner and prepossessing appearance, and all who know her admire her for her many womanly qualities and accomplishments. The groom has held a position of salesman at the Bishop clothing store in this city for the past three months and is a gentleman of excellent qualities and splendid business ability, and has made many friends in this city by his genial, courteous manner, both in social and business circles. Mr. and Mrs. Stutenroth will make their permanent home in this city, having leased the J. M. Demaray cottage on E street.

GROFF-VEATCH—At Cottage Grove, Wednesday, June 15, 1910, B. B. Groff and Miss Margaret Veatch, both of Cottage Grove; Rev. Mr. Elkins officiating.

The bride was formerly a resident of this city and will be remembered by many friends here. She is a young lady endowed with all the estimable qualities requisite for the making of a true woman, and will be a blessing to the home to which she goes as a bride. The groom is a young business man of Cottage Grove and the young people will reside in that city, where they have their bungalow home all prepared for occupancy. A wide circle of friends of this city extend hearty congratulations for the future happiness of the young people and wish them all the happiness which comes of truly wedded life.

DIED.

SCHORTZ—At South Grants Pass, Wednesday, June 22, 1910, Christina Schortz, aged 80 years.

He is a remarkable character. He enlisted in the regular army previous to the Civil war and his regiment was in active service in Virginia during the four years of the war of the secession. He fought in more than twenty of the largest battles in Virginia, doing his modest part well on every occasion. He served 19 years continuously in the regular army. He came to Oregon some years ago and located on a ranch. Last year he traded his ranch for a home on the south side of the river, where he has lived up to the time of his death, which took place at one o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. His funeral was held at Hall's undertaking parlors at two o'clock on Thursday afternoon. Rev. Frederick Brooke, of the Christian church, officiated. The interment was in Granite Hill cemetery. He leaves a wife and many friends to mourn his loss.

"The Mikado," which will be produced next Wednesday and Thursday evenings under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary, is nearing completion and the arrival of Mr. Carlyle has given rehearsals an added impetus. The cast is especially good, and with such people as Miss Mangum, Miss Parker, Miss Galbraith, together with Messrs. Van Dyke, Bartlett and Steelhammer, the theatergoers of this city will be given an unparalleled treat. Miss Jewel Galbraith will repeat the success she made in "The Military Girl," and Miss LaCosta Mangum has a fine chance to display her splendid soprano. The fun making abilities of Mr. Steelhammer are too well known to the people of this city to further comment upon. This gentleman will play the role of the Mikado. Fred Carlyle will be seen in his favorite role of Koko, the lord high executioner, and in this part he is a scream. The tickets for this performance will go on sale at Russell's next Monday.
