Odd Bits of News.

Cromwell, Ia.—While Harvey Hoak was lying in a hammock at his farm near here he was attacked by several hogs, which acted as if crazed by the heat. Part of his clothes were torn from his body before he could get away from the infuriated beasts.

Racine, Wis.—Herman Raethers, hotel porter of Racine, who attracted much attention because of his bathing in Lake Michigan during the fall and winter until Christmas day, was killed at his home by falling down a stairway.

Lansing, Michigan.—Michigan will not take a vote on the question of state wide prohibition for at least two years, according to Grant Hudson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, who states that, though they have a number of petitions, the signatures which they have been able to get are not sufficiently numerous to warrant a demand that the question be submitted to the electorate with any hope of success.

Pontiac, Ill.—When Mrs. Katie M. Welch, 42 years old, became the wife of Luther G. Welsh, 66, of Littleton, father of her divorced husband, she started a new muddle in relationship. By her first marriage she had a son, Jay Welsh, now married and the father of a daughter, Viola. By her second marriage Mrs. Welsh becomes stepmother to her divorced husband from whom she got a decree two years ago. She is stepgrandmother of her own son, stepmother of herself, grandmother and step great grandmother of Viola Welsh, daughter of her son by her first marriage. If she has any children by her recent marriage she will not only be their mother, but also their sister-in-law.

London.—In the event of Germany's defeat in the big war, the Kaiser probably would take refuge in America. Ever since German began to make preparations for the attack, the Kaiser has been investing large sums of money on the other side of the Atlantic. He is one of the largest land owners in the western states but not in his own name of course. These investments indicate that the Kaiser, when he was preparing to stake the fortunes of his dynasty upon the attempted conquest of western Europe also was preparing for the possibility of failure, by consolidating his huge financial resources in the United States in case he has to escape to that part of the world. If he cannot conquer Europe the Kaiser means to have the finest farm in America.

Nashville, Ind.—John Artis, a pioneer living seven miles southwest of here in his ninetieth year, has advertised in the local paper for a wife. He specifies that she must be about sixty years old and have "ginger and snap" enough in her to milk two cows morning and night.

Banks in Good Shape.

Salem, Ore.—State Bank Superintendent Sargeant states that there is a peculiar condition in deposits as shown by the recent bank statements. It is that accounts subject to check have been greatly increased, while the savings deposits have decreased. The total resources amount to $104,000,000, an increase of $600,000 since June 30th, and an increase of $4,000,000 since August of last year.

For Rent.—Four room house with bath and pantry, on corner of Franklin Avenue and Twelfth Street. Good wood shed. Inquire at above address or at Office column—7114

RHODES MEN FROM U. S. HAVE BEST YEAR

Five Firsts In Jurisprudence Help Record of 1913

Oxford, England.—The annual report of the Rhodes trust shows that the American scholars during 1913 had a better scholarship record than in any year since the system was started.

The whole number of Rhodes scholars in residence during the year was 175. Altogether the Rhodes system now represents about an eighteenth part of the whole student body.

Only three Rhodes scholars are working merely for a pass degree. Most of them are out of honors, and on the whole they seem to be standing the test of Oxford standards well except in classics. Only one first was obtained in classics, and this was by an American from the Pacific coast. In the other departments the scholars held their own. In jurisprudence they gained five firsts out of seven awarded.

The question of what becomes of the Rhodes scholars after their many years of study is answered in the report:

More than one-fourth of the 431 Rhodes men who have been graduated from Oxford since the system was started have kept on with education as their life work. About 100 have turned to law, nearly fifty have gone into the civil service of the British empire, the United States or Germany; twenty-five have become physicians, eighteen have gone into business, eighteen have turned to the church and a small group is divided among journalism, agriculture and science.

Can We Pull Anything?

Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent English scientist, said in a lecture once that there is no such thing as pulling. To speak of a horse pulling a cart was, he said, incorrect. The horse did not pull the cart. It pushed against its collar and thereby produced motion in the cart. Similarly the oarsman pushed the water, and the man drawing a handcart had to clasp the handle, and the driving force was caused by the part which clasped the handle and was therefore behind it. Even if the cart was fastened to the man's coat tail he did not pull it. He pushed against his clothes.

GENERAL SELECTS HIS COFFIN

John P. Taylor, in Good Health, Makes Funeral Plans.

Philadelphia.—General John P. Taylor, a civil war veteran and member of the Gettysburg battlefield commission, although apparently in good health, is making advanced preparations for his funeral. He has placed an order for a solid bronze coffin to be cast from old cannon, and a vault has been sunk in the private Taylor burying grounds on his estate, near Reedsville, Pa. The general plans to have this covered by a big granite block to be surmounted by a bronze statue of himself.

The firm which obtained the contract for the coffin has been instructed to ship it to a Lewistown undertaker to be held until needed for the execution of the contract he holds for the burial of the veteran.

General Taylor despite his eighty-six years is still robust and enjoys a horseback ride almost daily. He is a member of the National Monument club and a former commander of the Legion of Honor.

CAN'T KEEP OUT OF JAIL.

Of His 29 Years Almost 20 Have Been Passed in Prison.

Topeka, Kan.—Arthur Patton, who in his twenty-nine years has had only nine years of freedom, is in jail charged with stealing wagon wheels.

Patton when nine years old was sent to the reform school for petty thievery. He was paroled, but had been free less than a week when arrested for stealing food from a home in Osage City. After finishing his expired sentence in the reformatory he returned to Osage City, where he was arrested for burglary and sent to prison.

Last summer Governor Hodges paroled Patton from the penitentiary on the ground that he had never had a chance. He was given a job in a packing house. He had worked hard and conscientiously until his recent arrest.

BIGGEST HYDROAEROPLANE.

Makes First Trip—Designer May Try Atlantic Flight in 1915.

Paris.—The biggest hydroaeroplane in the world has just made its first trip on the Seine. The boat is 8 feeters 70 centimeters long by 2 meters 60 centimeters wide. It has two planes, each 27 meters long and 145 square meters surface. There are two motors of 200 horsepower. The machine carries two pilots, two mechanics and enough gasoline and oil for 1,000 kilometers. It weighs, thus loaded, nearly five tons.

It was built by an engineer, Maurice Colliez, with the aid of M. Janson. M. Colliez has no intention of attempting a transatlantic flight this year, but in 1915 he hopes to try, with a flying boat of larger size—one twenty meters long—first a Mediterranean and then an Atlantic flight.

His Weight.
"What is the way of the transatlantic?" asked the boat.
"Fifteen minutes in the pond," replied the grouch.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

WHAT William Hanley Says in His Platform.

I AM a candidate for the office of United States Senator because a great many people thought I ought to be. I was born in Oregon and have lived here all my life. Extracts from my platform:

PORTS—PORTLAND AND ASTORIA

There are too few ports on the Oregon coast. Every one should be improved; not only the great Columbia River ports, but Coos Bay, Yaquina and all others on our coast. A deep channel to the sea, and a freight rate based on actual cost of haul will give Portland and Astoria their natural advantage of the only water-gate on the Pacific Coast from the Inland Empire to the sea.

TRANS-PACIFIC STEAMERS

If the Columbia River ports get this natural advantage of a water-grade haul and maintain a deep channel and safe bar, ocean travel will have to meet the railroads at Portland and Astoria.

COMMERCE.

Now that American coastwise ships pass thru the canal on equal terms with other ships, open our ports to the competition of the world for our coastwise traffic. Let Portland and Seattle have the same chance at hiring bottoms that Vancouver and Victoria have.

THE CUSTOMS DISTRICT.

The north and south sides of the Columbia are in two different customs districts. It is absurd and costly and inconvenient to vessels. The Columbia River is in one port and should be in one district.
