Miss Helen Whitford, who is a niece of Mr. Trowbridge, and who has made Bandon her home for over a year, accompanied Mrs. Trowbridge to California and will remain permanently there.

Tenant Troubles Get Into Court

T. T. Hill appears very much hors du combat, as a result of a fistic altercation with Fred Gross last Friday night. The trouble arose over a dispute as to some minor details about a house, possession of key, window blinds, etc. The house belonged to Hill, and had recently been vacated by Gross. Hill claims that Mrs. Gross tied his feet with a rope and held him from kicking while Fred Gross pounded up his head to his heart's content. Gross says that Hill came to his house looking for trouble and struck the first blow and that in turn he used on such force as was necessary to overpower Hill until the timely arrival of the police. Dr. Mann dressed Hill's wounds and says Hill was one of the worst beaten up men he ever saw.

Hill swore out a warrant for the arrest of Gross, who was arraigned Friday night and Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, entered a plea of not guilty. One of Gross's witnesses being out of town the trial was continued to this morning at 9 o'clock.

A MEMORIAL

The Bandon Longshoremen's Union Local 38-31 at a recent meeting adopted resolutions relative to the untimely death of our late brother and fellow worker, Milton Cox expressing our grief at his sad fate and extending sympathy to his bereaved mother and relatives.

We appreciate his character as a man and realize that in his death we have each and all lost a true comrade and friend. He will be missed from our councils and his loss we deeply mourn.

COUNTY APPORTIONMENT IN School District Also Places Bonds at Advantageous Figure with Firm at Denver, Colorado

$6,512.40 is the apportionment from the county to the schools of Bandon as made by the county superintendent. The announcement is also made that taxes are coming in very slowly.

The school bonds recently advertised for sale have been sold to the firm of J. N. Wright and Co., Denver, at par. They pay a premium of $25 and allow a reduction of interest from 6 to 5 1/2 percent. Seven bids in all were received for the bonds but the Wright company was the only one to bid lower than 6 percent, although the firm of Keeler Bros., Denver offered a premium of $305. Geo. Mc Pherson of Portland offered $280 premium, the West Bond and Mortgage Co. of Portland offered $213 premium, Morris Bros., Portland, offered $151 and the Lumberman's Trust Company of Portland offered $150.

To Open a Billiard Hall

The rooms on First street, owned by J. Ira Sidwell, are being fitted up and will be occupied by J. F. Curran as a billiard hall and cigar and confectionary stand. Mr. Curran hopes to be ready for patronage about Saturday. He has five new billiard tables coming on the Tillamook from Portland and expects to equip with an entire new set of fittings. Mr. Curran is recently from Salt Lake City.

Prefers To Raise Beef

C. H. Chandler of the Ledgerwood place at the mouth of Johnson creek furnishes a fine example of what can be done in stock raising, gardening and fruit growing.

He has a number of acres in potatoes that were first plowed last winter. The older cleared land is now mostly in fine grass, fruit, berries and vegetables which are looking fine. He also raises a large quantity of oat hay which makes fine feed for either cattle or horses and should easily compete in the local market with California grown hay. Mr. Chandler prefers to raise beef for the local Bandon market to dairying.

If you are tired and weary go and see a picture show—its a tonic for the blues.

Ernest Watkins of Bandon, has just been selected business manager of the Oregon, the year book put out by the Junior class at the University of Oregon. This is one of the most difficult jobs in the entire student body, involving the financing of a book that costs generally more than $500, all of which must be collected through advertising and subscriptions. The appointment is for the book to be gotten out next year, thought work is commenced on this immediately.

The Clutching Hand in the Exp. of Elaine is going to be caught by Craig Kennedy some of these Friday nights at the Grand.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Invitations are out for a party in honor of the senior class to be given Friday night by Miss Ottilie Lewin at her home.

A commencement number of the Klakahma will be published in several weeks and is to be devoted entirely to the Seniors.

The laboratory supplies have arrived and the chemistry class expects to do double time in completing the prescribed course.

The second year German class has completed its work and will for the remainder of the term devote its period to studying the senior play.

The two banners awarded for the best marching in the grades were won by Miss Wilkins' room on the first floor and Miss McKay's on the second floor.

The last meeting of the current school year of the School Masters' club will be held next Saturday. At the April meeting it was decided to arrange for a picnic instead of a formal meeting.

The Caesar class has taken up two of Paxton's Roman plays modernized, and may give them later before the school in the old Roman costumes. The two plays are "A Roman School" and a "Roman Wedding."

The last Teachers-Patron meeting was held last Friday night and was a great success. A very large attendance was recorded and an excellent program rendered. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Lewin who has been president of the association for the past year and she in turn lauded the good will and faithfulness of the parents in assisting her and making the year a success.

After the program Mrs. Lewin mentioned the fact that the flag on the school building was old and torn until it is hardly recognizable; so a collection was taken to buy a new flag. About four dollars was received and seven is needed to buy a good one. Contributions will be gladly received for its purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. Antle Henry are off for a week's visit with their son Geo. Henry and family at Two Mile.

New Carpenter Shop

L. W. Robinson is opening a carpenter shop just east of Averill's and it is his plan to do cabinet and general carpenter work. Mr. Robinson is a recent arrival, coming here from San Francisco where he has been engaged on the Fair grounds. He worked on the Turkish, horticultural and on the Missouri state building. He has moved his family here and lives on Ocean drive and Jackson avenue.

IMPROVE THE APPEARANCE OF BANDON

The "Thimble Club" Calls Attention to a Few Things That Should be Remembered by Every Bandonian for "Clean Up Day"

The suggestions are as follows:

- 1.—Take away all ashes and trash from your back yards.
- 2.—Burn all rubbish that will burn.
- 3.—Make your streets and parking look as well kept as possible.
- 4.—Refrain from throwing all paper and banana and orange skins into the streets.
- 5.—Plant flowers and grass seeds to make your home beautiful.
- 6.—If your store front is dingy, paint it.
- 7.—If you have unsightly old traps in your back yard, remove them.
- 8.—If your walk is an eyesore to those traveling over it, repair it or build a new one.
