

EDITOR VS. DOCTOR.

How He Gets It, as Compared with an M. D.

If an editor makes a mistake he has to apologize for it, but if a doctor makes one he buries it. If the editor makes one there is a lawsuit, swearing and a smell of sulphur, but if the doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and a smell of varnish. The doctor can use a word a yard long without knowing what it means, but if the editor uses it he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit, but if the editor goes to see another man's wife he gets a charge of buckshot. Any old medical college can make a doctor, but can't make an editor. He has to be born. When a doctor gets drunk it's a case of overcome by heat, and if he dies it is heart trouble. When an editor gets drunk it's a case of too much booze and if he dies it's delirium tremens.—Yellow Jacket.

Furthermore, when a doctor can't pay his bills, he goes to church and takes advantage of the bankrupt law. When an editor can't pay his bills he goes to jail and the sheriff nails the double cross on his printshop door. When a doctor gets married a senator stands up as best man, the bride is given away by her father and a big feed follows. When an editor gets married it is generally under false pretenses, the "devil" acts as best man, the girl has to run away from father and home, and sardine sandwiches and ten cents worth of peanuts constitute the wedding supper. The doctor's bride is at once provided with a tennis court and racquets, a yacht, an automobile and a piano. The editor's bride is at once presented with a "tennis" racket minus the court, a washtub to play on, an ax and an autoknowhow to use it. And yet the editor and the doctor get along very amicably in the same community. They breathe the same air.

Rathbone Sisters.

For several years more or less efforts have been made to organize a temple of Rathbone Sisters at Weston, but heretofore these attempts have invariably "flashed in the pan," says the Leader. Not long ago, however, Stevens Lodge No. 49, K. of P., appointed J. H. Price as a committee of one to see if it were possible for "the boys" to acquire some charming sisters to aid in promoting their social welfare, and Mr. Price rested not until the feat was accomplished. Friday evening Mrs. Eliza Imbrie, of Hillsboro, Grand Chief for Oregon Rathbone Sisters, instituted a temple with a good-sized charter membership. The secret work was exemplified by the team from Hercules Temple No. 27, at Milton. After the ceremony refreshments were served.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had give me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at G. C. Osburn's drug store.

A Physician Healed, Now Prescribes It Daily

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician at Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE: "For years I have been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles, for I can honestly state I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success."

Had to Get Up Several Times Every Night

Mr. F. Arnold, Arnold, Ia., writes: "I was troubled with kidney disease about three years.
