is as correct as the $20 one.

New Styles MEN'S OVERCOATS

This is the day of the big coat of generous proportions. The "Skimpy" and ill fitting coat has long disappeared; instead we have the great coat with broad shoulders, roomy sleeves and generous skirts. 52x54 inch is not too long for the average man. They are handsome, these coats; comfortable and reasonably priced.

The meeting of Mignonette Rebekah Lodge Tuesday was of more than usual interest and importance. In addition to the initiation of a new member, the social features were enjoyed by all present.

Miss Kate McPhail, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity, today received a message from her home in Nanton, Alberta, stating that her mother was dangerously ill. Miss McPhail will leave for her home tomorrow.

The Epworth League will have a jolly time on Hallowe'en evening. The league will give a social at the M. E. church, to which all are invited. Remember Hallowe'en will be here next Tuesday evening, October 31, and as entertainers the Epworth folks are unequalled.

James Barkey, a convict in the penitentiary at Walla Walla, escaped the other day. His liberty was of 25 minutes duration, the guards having effected his capture in that space of time.

F. S. LeGrow, cashier of the First National Bank, dropped in from Walla Walla a few hours Wednesday evening. He returned to the garden city on the evening train to attend to urgent business affairs.

There is talk of the Free Methodists holding a protracted meeting in Athena soon. It is understood the meetings are to be run a month or six weeks, and the place selected for holding them is the old Fair Store building.

E. S. Waterman was in town between trains Wednesday evening. "Eb" is prospering in the Walla Walla valley. He purchased the famous O. R. & N. experimental ranch, and has made of it one of the finest farms in the Northwest.

Land prices are booming in the Helix country as well as elsewhere. A real estate man informs the Press that he has but one place located in that section listed for sale. The price placed on it by the owner is $60 per acre, and the dealer in dirt would not be surprised if another $5 per was tacked on before tomorrow's sun.

Charles Norris' live stock is in demand at fancy prices. Yesterday he shipped by express to a gentleman in Iowa, two thoroughbred Buff Cochins cocks. The harness man takes about as much pride in his blooded poultry as he does in his colts, therefore it goes without saying the chickens are gilt edge.

George Ireland, Jack Kelly and James McElrath have been arrested at Freewater on the charge of selling liquor without a license during the month of September. John Vinson of Milton is the complainant and Dan Sheets of Freewater, is mentioned as the principal witness. The trial takes place today in Milton, before Justice Miller.

The generous people of Helix contributed over $200 to Mr. and Mrs. Tittsworth, who lost their all in the Arlington hotel fire last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Tittsworth were conducting the hotel at the time of the fire and with the other members of the family and the hotel guests, barely escaped with their lives. Mr. and Mrs. Tittsworth contemplate returning to Athena to reside.

Word comes down from the Palouse that among the farmers who lost their season's crop through cause of rain, is Bob Price, who for years resided east of town. Mr. Price cut his grain with a binder and put it in the shock. Threshing machine men gave preference to headed grain in the stack and when attention was turned to bundle grain, wet weather had set in, hence the loss.

Dr. F. B. Dayton, the Pendleton eye specialist will be in Athena on his regular visit next Monday and Tuesday. The doctor takes up such troubles as headaches, weak and tired eyes, nervousness and even goes so far as to straighten cross eyes with proper glasses. His office will be at the St. Nichols hotel where he will give free examination. Don't forget the date, Monday and Tuesday, October 30 and 31.

E. A. Stone has returned from a trip into the Palouse country. While away Mr. Stone bargained for a 240 acre farm at $52.50 per acre. The deal includes 20 head of cattle. The place is situated two miles north of Thornton, Wash. It is well improved, has a house of 9 rooms, built this season at a cost of $2,000, a large barn, outbuildings, orchard, etc. Mr. Stone is well pleased with his new place and will move to it as soon as necessary preparations can be made.

Woodman camps of Umatilla county are looking forward with much pleasure to the first visit of the new head consul, I. L. Boak, who will be with Pendleton Camp No. 41, on the evening of Saturday, November 4. Pendleton camp has appointed a committee on arrangements and entertainment for the occasion, and the program for the evening is to be an elaborate one. The local camp has received an urgent invitation to be present, and many of the members will attend.

Are You Engaged? Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good order with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." McBride, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

Like Finding Money. Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At McBride's drug store; 50c and $1; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
