CASE IN DECEMBER

GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO TRY HERMANN IN OREGON.

Congressman Will Have to Answer
the Portland Indictments Before Others.

A Washington special to the Oregon Daily Journal says it has been decided by the government to try Congressman Hermann first under the indictments brought against him in Oregon. No specific date has been set for the trial, which will take place in Portland, but it is thought by Secretary Hitchcock and District Attorney Francis J. Heney that the trial will be set during the early part of December.

It was at first contemplated to try Hermann in Washington under the indictment found against him alleging destruction of government records. The local district attorney, however, has several cases on hand growing out of the alleged frauds in the postoffice, which have precedence, and must be heard before Hermann's case can be reached. So it has been decided to try Hermann under the Oregon indictments first.

Attorney Heney will leave Washington the latter part of the week for Portland.

Three indictments are pending against Congressman Binger Hermann in this state. The sudden decision of Secretary Hitchcock and the department of justice to bring the Oregon indictments to trial in advance of that found in the District of Columbia will cause some surprise, and it was believed in many quarters that Hermann would be tried first at Washington.

The three indictments pending in this state are known respectively as the "Butter creek case," the "Blue Mountain conspiracy" and the "117 case." In the first named Congressman Hermann was indicted jointly with W. W. Steiwer, Franklin Pierce Mays, Edwin Mays, John H. Hall, C. E. Loomis, H. H. Hendricks and others, on the charge of fencing government lands. It is generally supposed that this case will not be the first one to be tried, though District Attorney Heney has as yet given no indication as to the order of trials.

The Blue Mountain case is one of the most famous of all the indictments returned in the course of the Oregon land fraud investigations. Senator John H. Mitchell, Congressman Hermann, Congressman Williamson, State Senator F. P. Mays, Willard N. Jones and George Sorenson were indicted on the charge of conspiring to defraud the government of 200,000 acres of land within the boundaries of the Blue Mountain forest reserve. The indictment alleges that the fraud was to be accomplished largely by means of fraudulent purchases of state school lands in Crook, Grant, Harney, Malheur, Baker, Union, Umatilla and Walla Walla counties, such lands lying within the boundaries of the proposed reserve. Incidentally the case involves the operations of the ring which was robbing the state of its school lands by means of forged applications and dummy applicants.

The third indictment in which Congressman Hermann is named as a defendant has to do with the transactions of the Pater ring in township "11-7," and also brings in Pater's famous story of the payment of $2,000 to Senator Mitchell for his services in expediting the patenting of fraudulent claims. The other defendants besides Hermann are Senator Mitchell, S. A. D. Pater, Horace G. McKinley, Emma L. Watson, Dan Tarpley, E. K. Brown, Mrs. Nellie Brown, Henry A. Young, Frank H. Wainmott, Clark E. Loomis and S. B. Ormsby. All of the defendants are alleged to have been parties to a conspiracy to defraud the government of its lands and the indictment sets forth the alleged payment of $2,000 by Pater to Senator Mitchell at Washington on March 9, 1902.

Under $500 Bonds.

Having entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of rape said to have been committed several months ago upon the young daughter of B. F. Myrick, Ela Weinott, a farm hand, was bound over yesterday under $500 bail to await the action of the court, by Judge Fitzgerald, says the Tribune. Weinott was captured near Dayton a few days ago and arrested upon the charge which had been entered against him for several months. He was working in the Helix country when the crime is alleged to have been committed and immediately afterwards he disappeared and was not located until last week.

Barbers Examined.

The members of the state barbers' commission have visited Pendleton and found three barbers there working without license as required by law. Tom Scott, colored, was fined $10, W. J. Courtney was turned over to the district attorney, and J. Olyphant could not be found by the officers.

"I Thank the Lord!" cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered five years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and bruises. Guaranteed at the Palace drug store; 25c.

The Indian never liked work but he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible so that she could do the work and let him hunt, therefore he dug papoose root for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses.

Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription" skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective and protect the stomach from functional disturbance.

Dr. Pierce's FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is not nor ever was a "patent medicine," but it is the carefully wrought out and thoroughly tested real prescription of a real physician in a real practice. Dr. Pierce's unparalleled success with this remedy was such that more wanted to use it than any one doctor could attend to in a private practice. This induced him to manufacture it on a sufficiently liberal scale to meet the demand.

By his own special processes, he extracts, combines and preserves the medicinal qualities of the several ingredients without the use of alcohol (using chemically pure glycerine instead), thus rendering it absolutely safe for any woman of any age and in any condition to use freely. The names of the ingredients are: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root.

Miss May Rohrbach, No. 73 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, Treasurer of the Woman's Progressive Union, writes:

"I had headache, backache, and was very nervous; scarcely able to sleep more than two hours at a time. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and was delighted with the result. Within a week I was sleeping splendidly. Continued using the 'Favorite Prescription' for eight weeks, and then stopped, for I was perfectly well. Ever since then your medicine has been my 'Favorite Prescription.' too. I recommend it to every one."

Constipation although a little ill, begets big ones if neglected. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.
