NINETEEN GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL IN BEAVERTON

Commencement week began Sunday, May 14, when Rev. Charles Forest Grove, delivered the class sermon. The subject of his talk was "What Lack I Yet?" The talk was very interesting and will be remembered by all those who attended.

Wednesday the annual school picnic was held at Onwego lake, a large crowd went over in private cars and it was not necessary to hire a truck as in former years. Canoeing was the main event of the day, also a number of others, especially teachers passed their time in swimming.

Thursday night the Juniors entertained the Seniors at a dancing party in the More Hall.

The music was exceptionally good, it being from Hillsboro, Forest Grove and Gaston. The Juniors certainly know how to entertain. And not one dead moment was witnessed throughout the time.

Friday night was Commencement night. Nineteen seniors were graduated at that time. The decorating of the auditorium was left in the hands of the Juniors and we must say they fulfilled their duty perfectly. The class address by Don Strain was the main feature of the evening. Program follows:

The Class of '22 presented their play Friday night in the High School Auditorium. The largest crowd of the season attended this play, and a large sum of money was raised which was used for defraying the expenses of the Senior Class Commencement. The balance, forty dollars, was turned over to the Student Body for annual benefit.

Joe Merrill in the title role did very well and deserves much credit. Every member of the cast also showed their ability as actors and actresses.

Thursday night the eighth grade held their Commencement play, "Every youth," in the auditorium. The young actors and actresses did very well and much credit is due their teacher, Mrs. Cantrell, who coached them. Myron Gray as Work and Howard Cauthers as Every youth, did exceptionally well. This has been a good year for the eighth grade, and although they have not as yet received their returns we feel sure that they all made satisfactory grades.

127,240 FORD CARS SOLD IN APRIL, 1922

According to a report just received from the Ford Motor Company, Detroit, a daily average of 5,216 retail sales of Ford cars and trucks had been reached by the close of April in the United States alone.

Ford sales of cars and trucks for the month, including both domestic and foreign, totaled 127,240. This establishes a new high record, exceeding the largest previous month, June 1921, by 15,467.

The sale of Fordson Tractors has also been steadily climbing. A total of 11,181 Fordsons were sold during April in the United States, a daily average of 469 having been reached by the end of the month. This gives the tractor a new high sales record, and shows 100 per cent increase over the best month in 1921.

The Ford Company is enjoying a banner year in all departments. Output of Ford cars and trucks for the year, according to present estimates, will exceed 1,100,000, which represents a ten per cent increase over 1921.

The Ford factory at Detroit is now operating at full capacity, having a force of more than 40,000 men the payroll. The scheduled output for May will probably reach 135,000 cars and trucks, which will be applied against orders approximating 165,000.

Despite the attempt of the factory and the twenty-three assembling plants in the United States to produce a sufficient number of cars to meet the unusually heavy demand, it has been impossible for Ford dealers in most cases to make immediate deliveries.

Decoration Day will be observed next Tuesday in all reverence for the soldiers of all wars who have given their lives for this country.

Beaverton Hi Life

Monday was a sad beginning but good inauspicious for a number of B. H. S. students. This being the last of the six weeks' exams, we shall have until school opens again.

At last we have a tennis court but it was only through the hard work of a number of students that we have it and much credit is due them. A membership fee of 50 cents is being charged. So far about twenty students have joined but we soon hope to have memberships from the townspeople as well as those from the high school.

Wesley Cook has been absent from school for the last few days. We hope he has not let the warm spring weather get the best of him.

The cafeteria closed its doors Tuesday as it was needless to try to keep it open owing to the fact that it is nearing the end of school and a large number of students are not attending, but nevertheless it was a good proposition, and we take this opportunity to thank all those who so kindly helped us and made it possible to keep the cafeteria open.

The last number of the Hammer was issued Friday. It was much better than previous issues. It was extra large, on account of being the Commencement number.

If you ever want to find Mr. Cochran between the hours of 8:30 and 9:30, and he is no where to be found just look on the tennis court and he will surely be there.

Norman Sprout was a recent visitor at school. We wonder why?

The following teachers have been elected for the coming year: J. P. McGlasson, Supt., Miss Ellen Johnson, Mrs. Florence Duhurst and D. V. Cochran. As yet no other vacancies have been filled.

Mrs. Beatrice B. Beebe has accepted a position in the Tualatin high school. The school joins together in wishing her the most of success.

Miss Eloise Barker won first place in the Oratorical contest held at Forest Grove, at the County Field Meet Day. We are justly proud of her.

Friday morning a final assembly was held for the purpose of paying all past debts incurred by the student body. After allowing all the bills a report on the treasury was given and we have approximately a hundred and fifty dollars left.

After the business session was over Mr. Naab gave us a short talk which was followed by some rapid-fire yells and the meeting was closed by singing our school song, "The Orange and The Black."

The freshmen are planning a basket social and dance in the near future for the annual benefit. So watch for the time, date and place. As the high school auditorium will be closed, the dance and social will be given elsewhere.

The Seniors are working very hard to dispose of the remainder of the annuals which have not as yet been sold. We have yet nearly a 34 farmers ordered small lots of acclimated seed corn in the Willamette Valley which they will try out with the hope of getting an improvement on Washington county which will mature early and at the same time give good yield for silage or grain.

Tuberculosis in Dairy Cattle.

The Reedville community, with the assistance of Henry Haak, the County Agent and others signed up 13 herds to test for tuberculosis. 150 head of cattle were tested by the Bureau of Animal Industry and two reactors found in one herd, one being a very positive case, and both showing tubercular lesions. This is a low percentage of reactors, but worth going after.

Communities wishing to test for tuberculosis in the same manner that Reedville has done can do so when 50 per cent of the dairymen of a given locality make application for the T. B. test. Application may be made through the County Agent at Hillsboro. Application blanks may also be had at this office. No charge is made for testing when done by the Bureau of Animal Industry.

RADISH AND CABBAGE MAGGOT

Corrosive sublimate at the rate of one ounce dissolved in 12 gallons of water is recommended by the Oregon Agricultural College Experiment station to use to pour around the roots of young cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, etc., to prevent root maggot injury. PHILLIP THOMPSON WRITES OF HIS TRIP THROUGH THE ORIENT

The following letter to the editor from Phillip Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Thompson of Hillsboro, and a former student of Beaverton high school, was written aboard the S. S. Hensport at places in the Orient, beginning April 4:

Dear friend:—I am going to keep my word and tell you of my trip. I'll make this letter in three parts: Written at Shanghai, Hongkong and Mani.

We had a fairly nice trip over. One ship the "Bessie Dollar" was very badly damaged in a storm, the steward killed and the captain hurt when a wave crashed into the saloon. She lost her boats and rudder and a few other things. We nearly lost our deckload so we moved south from the "Great Circle" route to the "Sunshine Route."

When we arrived in Yokohama we anchored about 1 1/2 miles from the town so we had to go ashore in small boats at 4 yen per ride. If the water was rough we paid more. We left Yokohama at 11 p. m., March 1. It was my fault we didn't leave earlier. Two others and I had gone ashore to get something I wanted. We were to be back by 10 p. m. At 8:30 we tried to go back but the sea was rough and the wind strong. We finally got a sampan and started, we got on board 1 1/2 hours after we started, 10:45 p. m. Before that about 10:40, a fishing boat narrowly missed our sampan. Then we were nearly capsize by the wash from the ship's propeller as she started off without us. We yelled and the ship stopped for us. We got on board alright. The skipper said we ought to have been left. He would have logged us two days for every one gone before we rejoined the ship at Kobe. The fare between the two points is only about $3.75 gold or 7.25 yen. This letter is going to be pretty long or I should tell more about the town. At Kobe we anchored 2 miles out. Four of us went ashore here and tried to return at 11 o'clock. We couldn't so we went to a hotel for the night. The sea was so rough that it took our
