THE BAND CONCERT.

Those who failed to attend the concert on Saturday evening, given by the Eagle Valley Cornet Band missed the treat of the season.
The boys were all at their best and every number was greeted with applause.

The band opened the entertainment by playing a cake walk, then gave a march and two step.
Miss Esther Saunders and C. J.
Tubbs were next on the program with a violin and piano duet, which was rendered with great delight to all the audience.

A sketch entitled "Dent's Office Boy" was then put on by Allen Wright, Chas. Barber and Clarence Raley. Each of the boys did exceedingly well and we are sure that their efforts were appreciated by all.

After a quickstep by the band Messrs. Will, Walter and Fred Saunders, and C. J. Tubbs sang "Down By The Old Mill Stream" in a very pleasing and satisfactory manner.

This was followed by a monologue by Henry Cooper, that sure was a cracker-jack. Then a sketch entitled "Mickey Free" was given by Messrs. Walter and Will Saunders and Francis Herr. This was comical in the extreme and was acted with a vim that brought out the comedy to the best advantage.

A waltz and two step by the band completed the program.
The floor was then cleared and a dance announced, at which a number of couples enjoyed themselves until midnight.

Considering the fact that the boys have had but little time to practice since announcing the entertainment, the program was exceedingly good, and we are sure that if they give another in the near future the people will greet them with a larger audience. A neat sum was realized, but not enough to free them from debt entirely.

Sunny Slope Wins.

The Halfway Basket Ball team composed of Messrs. Rolland Huff, Earl Holley, "Dutch" Hahs, S. Parker and Mr. Potter, played with the Sunnyside team at the gymnasium last Saturday night. The game was interesting from start to finish and quite a crowd was present. The score was 40 to 17 in favor of Sunnyside.

MRS. SULLIVAN INJURED

An accident that came very near resulting fatally, occurred on the road running south from town last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. E. E. Sullivan, accompanied by her two children, Donald and Jessie and Ivie Masterson, were going home from town and when near G. O. Gordon's place the horse became frightened at a load of pipe which was standing near the road, and run away swerving to one side, the buggy collided with a telephone post, throwing the occupants out.
Mrs. Sullivan struck the post with her left shoulder, breaking the shoulder blade, fracturing two ribs and was otherwise bruised.

She was immediately taken into the Gordon home and medical aid summoned, and later removed to her own home, where she is now resting as well as could be expected.

Ivie Masterson was rendered unconscious for several minutes, but beyond a number of scratches and bruises, the children were uninjured.

The buggy and harness were badly wrecked.

Oyster Supper--Watch Party.

An oyster supper will be given by the Pythian Sisters at the K.
P. hall on New Years eve. A watch party will also be held at which three watches will be given away—one to the most popular lady, one to the most popular miss and one to the homiest person of masculine gender. Don't fail to be in attendance, for there will be lots of fun.

Word was received last Friday of the death of Mrs. E. Samis, a former resident of Eagle Valley, at the home of her daughter at Lakeport, California. Mrs. Wm.
Williams, another daughter, was on her way from Richland to her mother's bedside, when death came.

The four children of Mrs. Davis, mention of which was made in these columns last week, have been taken to Portland and placed in the care of the Boys and Girls Aid Society.

You can sell all your hides and pelts, either dried or green, at Morris' Meat Market. Bring them in.

Mrs. J. N. Carroll underwent a surgical operation last Saturday, and is getting along nicely.

COMING TO THE FRONT

Through the efforts of Prof. J.
Lewis Johnson, principal of the Eagle Valley High School, the board have authorized the purchase of about $175 worth of apparatus for conducting experiments and demonstrating theories in the physics department. This places the school on an equal footing, if not ahead, of any school of like size in the state, in being able to teach this study in a manner that will make it interesting, understandable and convincing.
The apparatus, while not as extensive as some, is first class in every respect, and thanks are due the board for their interest in the welfare of the students.

Prof. J. Lewis Johnson is evidently the right man in the right place, and although he has only been here a short time, has done a great deal to advance the school work, and Eagle Valley is to be congratulated in securing his services.

Game Warden Makes Visit.

W. E. Leffel, deputy state game warden of LaGrande, was a visitor in Richland, Saturday and Sunday, having been notified that parties were trapping in violation of the law in this vicinity. He was unable to get any conclusive evidence so went on to Halfway. Mr. Leffel is an enthusiastic sportsman and is doing excellent work, but informed us that politics are hampering the efforts of the wardens throughout the state and that unless they are eliminated the fullest good from the organization cannot be obtained. After the first of the year Deputy I. B. Hazeltine, of Canyon City, will move to Baker and look after Baker and Union counties, and Mr. Leffel will have Wallowa county.

Remittance Acknowledged.

In a letter from the Oregon Belgian Relief Committee at Portland, acknowledging the receipt of a draft for $13.63, sent from here last week. Samuel Hill, the chairman, states: "I wish to thank your committee for the prompt and effective way in which you have handled the matter. Kindly express the thanks and appreciation of this committee for the prompt response to this worthy appeal"

Among the Richland visitors Saturday evening in attendance at the basket ball game and the band concert and dance were the following from Halfway: Misses Wilson, Irwin, Holley and Edith Irwin, and Messrs. Carl Potter and Sailor Thomas.
