MARSHFIELD OREGON

From Sunday's Daily.

George Wilson of Rocky Point drove up yesterday on a business trip.

Hiram King is down from his Daniels creek logging camp.

Among Sumner's solid people visiting Marshfield yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson and Mrs. A. D. Boone.

Rusty Mike's Diary, Nov., 18, 1902.—You can't do a crooked business successfully any more than you can drive a crooked nail.

K. G. Erickson has bought of the Myren estate the residence occupied by H. S. Bonebrake in South Marshfield. The trade was made through Hall & Hall, and the price paid was $1075.

Godfrey Strohm, of Beaver Hill, was in town last evening. He reports that the lumber arrived there yesterday for two new boiler houses, an engine house and electric light plant. The force at the mine has been increased by 20 or more men within the last week.

J. R. Robertson an active hustler of North Bend who has just closed a number of deals in North Bend realty investing about $5000 has secured a room on the steamer Arcata for its next voyage to San Francisco. Mr. Robertson goes to Southern California to close out all of his holdings there. On his return he will make extensive improvements on some of his holdings here and will move then live permanently here.

A Liberal Offer

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Jno. Preuss.

The Taurus Launched

The new schooner was launched yesterday from the Marshfield yard, being christened "Taurus" by Mabel Lang as she slid down the ways. The launching went off without a hitch, and the vessel presents a handsome appearance as she lies at her dock in readiness for her rigging.

Work Delayed

(Roseburg Review)

Work is still delayed on the Great Central townsite addition to this city by the lack of building materials. A small supply has now begun to arrive and it is expected the "deadlock" will soon be broken.

Broadway Repairs.

The street committee has examined Broadway and made an estimate of the repairs necessary and their cost. It was found that it would not be necessary to put in new bents, but two new stringers will be laid, making nine stringers instead of seven. With new planking and railing the street will then be as good as ever. The cost is estimated at $1.20 per foot.

What to do Until The Doctor Arrives

"One of my children was taken with cramp colic and suffered severely," says S. B. Elzee, of Monett, Mo. "I telephoned for a doctor, then gave a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and a few minutes later a second dose. Before the doctor came the child was relieved." For sale by Jno Preuss.

Masquerade at North Bend

The bills are out for a grand masquerade ball at North Bend on Thanksgiving. The ball will be in the new pavilion, far the finest hall on the bay, and will be preceded by a band concert. Free boats will run from here, and the affair promises to be a brilliant one.

Wild Dogs.

Lester Smith, Chris Peterson, Reub Brainard and A. F. Cook went hunting yesterday morning in the woods between Marshfield and Pony slough, and brought back a sack full of pups. It seems that a year or so ago, a shepherd bitch belonging to Wm Gamble escaped from custody at Flanagan's slaughter house and took to the woods. Since then she has raised one litter of three or four pups to dog-hood and they are running wild with her. She also has a litter of young pups, or had until the boys got in yesterday and captured four of them, which they brought to town. The little fellows are wild animals now, but will soon be domesticated.

Big Timber Deal

An Ashland, Oregon, dispatch says: The Ashland Manufacturing Co., one of the largest industrial enterprises in Southern Oregon, will change hands tomorrow. The deal for the sale of its property has been pending for the past week or ten days, and was finally consummated today. The sale was made on a basis of $80,000, and the property involved in the transaction includes 3500 acres of yellow fir, sugar and red pine, in the Neil creek district, the mill there, the planing mill and lumber yard, including the stock of lumber on hand, in Ashland.

The purchasers are Messrs. E. T. Staples and C. C. Anderson, of Boise, Idaho acquaintances and friends of the former owners. Messrs. J. H. Chambers, R. M. Burdick and Mayor D. B. Grant.

A New Organization.

An organization known as the Pioneers of North Bend has just been started. Temporary officers have been elected and members of various committees appointed. The object of the organization is; primary, to promote the interests of Coos Bay through the medium of advertising and secondary the social and financial welfare of its members. Enrollment of membership is rapidly increasing and bids fair to be one of the strongest social organizations on the Bay. The construction of a suitable building for reading and writing rooms and receptions for social functions is under consideration. The town is already enjoying a building boom. The new hotel, saw mill and other factories already assured will give it a great impetus. It is generally conceded that under the able leadership of Mr. L. J. Simpson, North Bend through its preeminent location will be one of the strong factors in the building up of a seaport city on the magnificent Bay.

Birthday Surprise.

Friday night will be remembered by those who had the pleasure to attend the surprise party which was given Miss Letty Larson, by her young friends. The surprise was very complete. Miss Larson was at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rasmussen. The evening was most enjoyably spent in games interspersed with instrumental and vocal music and those choosing enjoyed the mazy dance.

Delicious refreshments were served in abundance at the proper time. They all went home wishing Miss Larsen many happy returns of the day.

Those present were: Misses Letty Larson, Lena Larson, Fossie Twombly, Alice McCormac, Clara Johnson, Millie Johnson, May Bennett, Vivian Taylor, Genevieve Sengstacken, Laura Eccott.

Messrs Jay Tower, Ross Tower, Walter Butler, Willie Bennett, Claud Brown, Fred Hofer, Earl Strange, Frank Wickman, Albert Campbell, Edgar Campbell, Albert Sloop, Daniel Keating.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The Salem Daily Journal has enlarged to a full sized 6 column 8 page paper.

A very high tide came in yesterday, a good indication that the rain is likely to continue for some time yet.

The Great Central evidently intends to feed its horses well this Winter. They received 210 racks of oats on the Alliance.

Joe Yoakam will start in a few days with a band of about fifty calves for Polk county.

Rusty Mike's Diary Nov. 18, 1902.—Advertising needs as much and constant enthusiasm as has a fellow courting a girl.

W. H. Noble started for Tenmile yesterday with his long gun and two fish poles, for a few days recreation.

L. D. Smith started Saturday for Roseburg with 120 head of beef cattle, which he will ship to Portland.

John S. Coke and J. H. Flanagan have been canvassing the town in the interests of the subsidy for the proposed new R R depot.

W. H. Sammons, late of Colorado has located in Marshfield with his family. Mr. Sammon is a painter and paper hanger.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinyard, of South Coos river, came down Sunday and visited friends here.

The Portland Telegram is respectfully informed that Marshfield's daily paper is not the result of railroad prospects. The DAILY COAST MAIL was started Jan. 1st, 1902, several months before there was any talk of the Great Central. The daily is not a boom paper, but a permanent institution, and while it welcomes the railroad activity, that is not the reason for its existence.

Bert Folcom, who has had charge of the Coos Bay Mill & Lumber Co's. camp on South slough, has returned to his home at Dora, where he has a large number of logs in the river which require his attention. He has been succeeded by Jas Cown in charge of the South slough camp.

Thos Coke Surprised

Thos. Coke, night-watchman at the R R depot, was given a surprise party Saturday night by some of his lady and gentlemen friends, who brought refreshments along, and passed a few hours in a jolly manner.

Lutheran Social.

The social held Saturday evening by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church was a great success and netted about $84 for the society. This will go toward paying for the new hall and improvements recently made to the church building.

A New Candidate

(Salem Statesman)

The rumor has gained circulation that Hon. R. D. Hume, Joint Representative from Coos and Curry counties, has rented the W. W. Martin property, on Court and Twelfth streets, and will make his headquarters there during the coming session of the Legislature. It is also rumored that Mr. Hume will come out strong as a candidate for the United States Senatorship. He is a very strong man in politics, is possessed of considerable means, and will prove a formidable foe for those already in the race.

A Magazine Thirty Years Old.

The Christmas (December) Number of The Delineator is also the Thirtieth Anniversary Number.

To do justice to this number, which for beauty and utility touches the highest mark, it would be necessary to print the entire list of contents. It is sufficient to state that in it the best modern writers and artists are generously represented. The book contains over 230 pages, with 34 full-page illustrations, of which 20 are in two or more colors. The magnitude of this December number, for which 728 tons of paper and six tons of ink have been used, may be understood from the fact that 91 presses running 14 hours a day, have been required to print it; the binding alone of the edition of 915,000 copies representing over 20,000,000 sections which had to be gathered individually by human hands.

New Football Team

Some of the younger generation of football players got together last evening, and a team was organized under the name of the Independent Football Team. Ralf Matson will be captain of the team, and R. Marsden manager.

The team will be coached by Wm Langworthy, an experienced player lately from the East. A room will be secured and regular practice instituted, and the boys expect to soon have a strong team for their weight. A game has already been arranged with the High School team for Thanksgiving day, and it is expected that Corvallis City will turn out a team that these boys can wipe up the ground with. The membership of the team will be as follows:
