Lost

Lady's Fur B. A. Finder please return to Mrs. W. H. Short and receive reward. 12-31-21*

Splendid assortment of new music at the Music Store.

A Eureka paper of Dec. 24th states that at that time the footballers there had concluded that they could raise money enough to have the Marshfield boys come down for that game of football. If they had mustered their resources a few weeks sooner they might have had the game.

Plenty of good things for New Years left at A. B. Campbell's.

If you have not tried our home cooked white labor 25c meal, try the Broiler.

Coquille Herald—There was a hotly contested football game played at this place on Sunday between the teams of Coquille and North Bend. It was an exceedingly clean and fair game and good work done on both sides. The results stood Coquille 12 to the North Bend team's 9. There is talk of other games in the near future.

The Grissen Music Co. received a new line of pianos on the Alliance, having cleared out all they had.

It is not the special Sunday dinner that has made the Broiler so popular but the good well cooked dinner you get every day at the week.

Best Logging Shoe at Peter Claessens. Give them a trial. Near the Blanco.

Greetings 1903.

To my patrons: I wish to express my appreciation and thanks for your many past favors. Your loyalty has helped to make my increased business and this has been my banner year. I hope for a continuance of your patronage and renew my promise to serve your interest to the best of my ability.

She Came Down

A story of a pathetic incident comes Maroon telegraph from Hillsboro. Thanksgiving morning, a young man who had been away at school arrived at his town and hastened from the train to the residence of his star of hope. Her mother answered his nervous ring, and invited him in. Yes, Jennie was at home, up stairs. She would call her. Stepping to the foot of the stairs she called, "Jennie, Will is here and wants to see you." A voice from above answered, "I can't come down, mother; I'm just taking a bath. The young man was impatient, and stepping to the foot of the stairs, he called, "I must see you just a minute, Jennie. Slip on anything and come down." She slipped on the top step and came down, and he saw her, but for much less than a minute.—Forest Grove Times.

Wanted farmers do know that The Broiler pays the highest cash price for all farm produce.

A Mix-Up.

Some transient interest was aroused on Front Street yesterday afternoon by a fracas in the course of which a gambler, a newspaper man a hotel porter and a landlord took exercise. The two first named playing the star parts. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the affair developed when the porter got to chewing the landlord's thumb, under the impression that it belonged to the gambler. No one seems to have been badly jamaged.

MARRIED

CARL ELLINGSON—in Marshfield Or., Dec. 31, 1902, H. E. Carl and Miss Ella Ellingson, Rev. E. C. Lee officiating. The bride is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Ellingson who reside on the lower Coquille. She has been away for several years pursuing her studies as a trained nurse, and arrived here from Chicago. The groom is one of the proprietors of the Norway creamery. The marriage ceremony was performed in the parlors of the Central hotel at an early hour and the newly wedded pair took the train for their home on the Coquille.

Strong Minded.

It was very fortunate to marry literary woman. "So?" she never drags him around parties and dances that he care to attend." "Doesn't care for them, either, you she does. She goes alone." and I'm Dealer.

From the Boldest.

How you are fond of playing our Collier, little girl? "Oh, I'd of the Period—Yes, very much. I do have a great deal of fun with them. This one is different and that one with the yellow hair was on the stage, and this lady has had four cooks in a week—her."

An Unusual Button.

The collar button is my own invention. I called the street fakir, "and the fakir I have given it is 'Fault.'" "But every body has faults," suggested the red nosed man in the crowd. "No, my dear sir; simply because it is so easy to find."—Philadelphia Times.

WISE people realize that the proper fitting of glasses should never be guessed at. If there is any suspicion of trouble with your eyes, we'll examine them free and furnish the right glasses at the right price.
