

Accidental Shooting

Mrs. Lisa Bonham, 541½ W. 1st, yesterday shot a 24-calibre rifle in the hands of her young son. The mother and son were out on the hill near the house the boy carried the rifle, being a short distance behind when in some way the gun was discharged the bullet entering the mother's back and passing entirely through the body.

She was brought to town immediately and entered the Horsfall hospital, where the wound was dressed by Dr. Horsfall who reports the patient resting quite easily today.

The Social Whirl

The Progress Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. K. Sheldon in South Marshfield. A very exhaustive paper on "Colonial Government" which showed much careful historical research, was read by Mrs. Sheldon. Miss Elizabeth furnished an ably written paper on Jonathan Edwards, the great exponent of Calvinistic doctrine. Mrs. Seabrook sent articles on "Inventions of the Eighteenth Century." Mrs. Chandler contributed a most interesting vocal sketch of Eli Whitney, the inventor of the cotton gin. The entire club shared in discussing the subjects of the day, including the historic Charter Oak. After roll call, when quotations and items of current events were given, the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Small on the following Tuesday.
