

HON. THOS. TONGUE Dies Suddenly at Wash- ington.

PARALYSIS OF THE HEART CAUSED BY INDIGESTION

Remains to Be Brought West For Inter- ment at His Late Home at Hillsboro

Washington, Jan. 12—Representative Tongue, of Oregon, in the presence of his daughter Bertha and his secretary, Miss Ruane, died suddenly in his room at the hotel Irvington in this city at 12:50 Sunday afternoon.

A few minutes before he passed away he lapsed into unconsciousness and died without a word and without any suffering.

His son, Thomas H. Jr., did not reside with his father but was notified approaching the end, and hastened to his father's bedside, but did not reach there until after he had passed away.

Physicians were summoned and the family physician, Dr. Dove, as well as the coroner agreed that death was due to acute indigestion which superinduced paralysis of the heart.

Mr. Tongue had been in his usual health except occasional attacks of dyspepsia, to which he had been subject of late years, and had not complained of feeling badly this winter. He considered that he was in better health than he has been for years past, in fact.

There will be no funeral services held in Washington. The Tongue family and congressional party leave with the remains in a special sleeping car over the Pennsylvania railroad this evening at 7:45 p. m., going from Chicago to Omaha over the Chicago and Northwestern, thence by the U. P., O. R. & N. and Southern Pacific to Hillsboro. If connections be made, the funeral train will reach its destination Saturday night, giving an opportunity for funeral services at the Tongue home Sunday.

BROWNELL PRESIDENT Harris Speaker of the House.

SHARP FIGHT STARTED BUT ABRUPTLY ENDED

Surmises as to Effect of Tongue's Death on the Senatorial Problem

Salem, Jan. 12—The first reports from the Senate caucus presaged a serious fight, there being a tie vote on candidates for President of the Senate, with Senators Brownell and Smith each receiving 11 votes. Seven ballots were taken with the same result.

Senator Fulton, chairman of the caucus, represents the Brownell faction.

Three candidates for Speaker mastered nearly equal strength in the House caucus, which convened immediately following adjournment. Several successive ballots found Davy leading with 17, Eddy and Harris each had 15. 24 votes were necessary for the caucus nomination, and 19 was the greatest number of votes received.

There are 8 rival candidates. Davy received the Eastern Oregon vote, which added to his strength. As a pointer on senatorial matters, neither of the caucuses proved anything except that there will be a fight, such as has never been known before.

The sudden death of Congressman Tongue also eliminates elements from the senatorial slate, which had begun to be portentous. Many think this will line Binger Hermann up for Congress and remove his immediate influence far from the senatorship is concerned. Many also suggest that the vacant seat in Congress may in some measure influence Governor Geer's actions, and may possibly prove a solution of the senatorial problem.

But the same conclusion can be drawn regarding any other senatorial candidate from this congressional district. Fulton is the only avowed candidate for Senator who will not be directly affected by the sad event.

Senator Fulton, by virtue of having been president of the Senate last session, called to order at 10 o'clock promptly. Senator Booth placed in nomination Senator Daly for temporary chairman, and it carried without dissent. Chief Clerk S. L. Moorehead placed in nomination Senator McGinn and he was elected. After appointing committees on credentials composed of Senators Booth, Hobson, Mulkey, Hunt and Ware, the Senate adjourned for caucus at 10:30.

A. C. Jennings clerk of the 1901 House called the session to order. Robert E. Emmett was placed in nomination for temporary speaker and elected by acclamation. Eddy of Tillamook nominated A. C. Jennings for temporary clerk and he was elected. Shelly of Lane moved for a committee of five on credentials, and Judd, of Marion, did the same for a committee of five on rules. Both motions prevailed. Shelly, Burgess Hale, Clay, and Pool were appointed on credentials and on rules, Blyden, Hawkins, Reed, and Miles. Both caucuses came to a sudden close at 2:30, choosing Brownell president of the Senate and Harris speaker of the House.

MAKE COAL FREE

Various Resolutions in Congress

House Committee Will Investigate

Washington, Jan. 12—The House today without opposition passed a resolution authorizing the committee on Merchant Marine to investigate the question of coal transportation and ascertain the reason for the coal famine in the North Atlantic states.

The House committee on Ways and Means will take up the coal question tomorrow.

Various resolutions placing coal on the free list and applying similar remedies will be discussed.

The first bill to be considered is the one fathered by Hill, Republican of Connecticut. It will be amended so as to allow a rebate on coal for six months, placing it virtually on the free list, and in this form it will be reported to the House.

In the senate this morning, Mitchell, chairman of the committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico Rice, announced that his committee was unanimous upon all subjects except the admission of Chinese into the islands.

Foraker gave notice that Wednesday he would speak on the Statehood bill. Vest's Anthracite resolutions were taken up.

New English Contrato

London, Jan. 10—Miss Ada Crossley, an English contrato, sailed today for her first concert tour in America. She will be heard in all the principal cities east of the Missouri river.

New Governor For Soldier's Home

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10—By direction of the President, Brigadier General Hamilton S. Hawkins, retired, today assumed the duties of Governor of the Soldiers' Home near this city. General Hawkins succeeded Brigadier-General George D. Ruggles, retired.

NEW WAY TO REACH COAL MINING RAILROADS

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 10—An entirely new method of reaching the coal combines has been discovered which may result in the dissolution of the charters of the Wabash, Burlington and Northwestern coal mining coal business. They can mine for their own use only. The Attorney General's office today commenced to conduct an investigation covering the companies.

Population Of Oregon

Oregon's population today is perhaps 450,000. According to the Government census it was 418,538 in 1900. By 1905, when the explorations of Captains Lewis and Clark will be commemorated with a Centennial Exposition in Portland, there will be not less than half a million people in Oregon.

Year	Population	No per sq mile
1850	13,294	05
1860	52,495	55
1870	65,000	68
1880	90,923	96
1890	104,908	109
1900	418,538	435
1905	518,767	532
1910	623,513	647
1920	813,532	843
1930	1,000,000	1,040

The taxable property of Oregon today aggregates perhaps $135,000,000.

The output of lumber over the Columbia bar since December 11, is about 2,000,000 feet. This is the greatest amount ever towed out in one month.—Bandon Recorder.

Boston's New Steamship Line

Boston, Mass., Jan. 10—The new steamship service between Boston and Manchester, England, was inaugurated today with the sailing from this city of the steamship Caledonia. The new line is under the control of the Morgan syndicate, or the International Mercantile Marine, which has completed plans also for the establishment of a new steamship service between this city and Antwerp.

Will Deliver Railroad

Great Falls, Mont., Jan. 10—Tomorrow is the date set when the Great Falls and Canada railroad is to be officially turned over to the Great Northern Railway Company. The name of the line will be changed to the Great Northern & Montana. Through the acquisition of this road President J. J. Hill of the Great Northern will tap the vast coal deposits in the Crow's Nest fields and secure fuel for the lines of the Northern Securities Company.

How to Remove Mold.

Mold that settles on wooden furniture or woodwork in the cellar or any damp place is best met by kerosene oil. Sometimes a vigorous rubbing is necessary to destroy the pest. A coat of whitewash applied to a damp cellar will completely dry it out. If in spite of this precaution mold appears in spots on the floor of the cellar, set boxes of unsacked lime about and throw a little of it over the patches of mold that have appeared.

How to Clean a Felt Hat.

A light colored felt hat—gray, or fawn, for instance—may be made as good as new by being carefully cleaned. Make a paste of fuller's earth or pipe-clay—that is, mix the powder just enough with water to give it the consistency of thick cream. Lay it over the hat and allow it to dry, then brush it off afterward, and it will answer perfectly. The whole process must be gone through as neatly and quickly as possible, care being taken that not more water than is absolutely necessary be used, so that the hat may keep its shape intact.

How to Make Toilet Powder.

Here is a recipe for a good toilet powder: Take half a pound of ordinary starch, crush well under the rolling pin, mix it with four ounces of freshly powdered orris root, then put through an ordinary sifter and afterward through a muslin bag.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

BLAMES UNION FOR TROUBLE

Philadelphia, Jan. 10—The non-unionists closed their side of the case before the Anthracite Commission and the coal companies opened their case this morning.

Attorney Torrey, of the Delaware & Hudson gave the opening address. Torrey said the work was not arduous, and was more than ordinarily healthful. No complaints had ever been made to the directors regarding the working of the system. He accused the Miners' Union of creating dissatisfaction.

It was not the Companies' fault so few hours were worked. The miners themselves were responsible. Mitchell in cross-examining witnesses, gave Superintendent Rose, of the Delaware & Hudson, a bad half hour. He made him admit a number of conditions created by operators which demoralized the men.

OPPRESSORS IN COURT

Chicago, Jan. 10—The alleged conspirators in the coal combine faced the Grand Jury this morning.

Forty miners, operators of mines, and dealers, agents of the Pennsylvania companies, were subpoenaed during the night. Most of the witnesses are millionaires, prominent philanthropists, noted in charitable work. As well as combining to raise the price of coal.

The Attorney General of the state and States Attorney, Deene, are assisting in the investigation. The former is said to have positive evidence that bituminous coal now filling the yards in the city cost, laid down in Chicago, $1.50 per ton, while anthracite cost $3 per ton.

The charges made to the public are from $10 to $20 per ton, respectively.

A dozen millionaires owners left the city during the night.

During the night two deaths from freezing, due to the incapacity of the coal barons were reported this morning. One was an old woman of 70, the other one an infant. Police patrol wagons and ash wagons are delivering small lots of coal to the destitute to-day.

Fortunes In Imported Gems.

New York, Jan. 10—The extraordinary prosperity of the people of the United States during 1902 is reflected in the heavy importations of diamonds and other precious stones entered at New York. The calendar year of 1901 was a banner year in the importation of gems, but official figures prepared by Gen. George W. Mindil, the special jewelry and diamond examiner at the appraiser's warehouse, show that $550,208.68 more precious stones, including pearls were received during the twelve months just passed than in the preceding calendar year. It appears from Gen. Mindil's report that in 1902 the importations of precious stones, cut and uncut, reached the high valuation of $25,412,755.75 compared with $24,862,567.07 in 1901.

STARTLED

By some sudden sound she drops the vase upon the floor. She is nervous and may be told that nervousness is a luxury which only a rich woman can afford to indulge in.

Nervousness has cost many a woman her position. Some times when women run machinery the price of nervousness is mutilation, a finger lost or perhaps the whole hand crushed.

Nervousness in women is commonly but a symptom of womanly disease. It is useless in such cases to "doctor" for the nerves alone. Cure the diseases which attack the delicate womanly organism and nervousness will be cured also.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep.

"In the fall of 1897, I was troubled with nervousness, headache, heart trouble and female weakness," writes Miss Blanch M. Breedy, of Iola, Oswego Co., N. Y. "Last summer I wrote you and you advised me to try your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so and I began to improve rapidly. Continued taking the medicine, half a dozen each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' for the space of five months, and in less than a year had regained my former health."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the audacious complexion.
