PERSONAL AND LOCAL

From Sunday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stock, of Catching slough were shopping in town Saturday.

The next meeting of the Young People's Whist club will be held at the home of Miss Agnes Hutcherson, on Thursday evening.

R. A. Church has rented the McGinnis place for one year and took possession Friday.

The new vessel was launched from K. V. Kruse's yard at Centerville yesterday, everything going off smoothly and without a hitch.

Bert Dimmick was fortunate enough to secure one of the much sought plums in the Oregon legislature, having been appointed one of the pages in the Senate.

The band of the Margarita Fischer Co. paraded front street promptly at noon yesterday, and discoursed some good music on the way.

The Misses Esther Levins and Pearl Wilens of Elkton are visiting at the Dimmick home for a few days. They will return out via Drain Monday.

The Evergreen Whist club met at the home of Mrs. W. Merchant Saturday afternoon. Mrs. F. X. Hofer received 1st prize and Mrs. C. W. Paterson the booby.

Portland Telegram—The holiday edition of the Coast Mail, published at Marshfield, Coos County, is full of information concerning that county, and is profusely illustrated. Its extensive circulation will be beneficial to that part of Oregon.

Ivy Condon has just received a valuable 3-year-old Holstein Bull, with a pedigree four yards long. The animal was imported from Valley Mead Stock Farm, Wisconsin, and is one of the best bred animals in Oregon and is of one of the best milk and butter strains in America. Mr. Condon feels very proud of his new acquisition.

The Marshfield Mail has just issued one of the finest illustrated editions gotten out in Oregon this season. It will doubtless prove of great value to the Coos Bay country and Coos county in general. It is such editions as this which will make Oregon's great natural advantages known abroad.—Roseburg Review.

Doubled His Money

Last Tuesday a gentleman bought, through Dibble & Williams a lot in North Bend for $700, the highest price which had been paid at that time for a single lot, paying one-third down. Some of his friends sympathized with him until yesterday, when he sold it for $1000, doubling his money. Yet some people are afraid to buy lots in North Bend.

Coming On Arcata

Following is the passenger list of the Arcata, sailing at 10 a. m. tomorrow: J. Field and wife, J. Nicholas and wife, Miss K. Beattie, Miss McGraw, Mrs. F. Tichener, Messrs. A. Jones, J. Morgan, C. Forstund, O. Salanen, E. Boldman, C. Ellingson, H. Belloni, W. Collebrook, L. W. Elliott.

The Fischer Company.

The Margarita Fischer Company opened a week's engagement at the opera house last night, playing to probably the largest house that ever greeted the first performance of a new company in Marshfield. Every seat in the house was taken and a good part of the standing room was occupied.

It was a good opportunity for the company and they took full advantage of it, making an excellent impression. While the troupe does not profess to have played before all the crowned heads of Europe, it is an "all right" little combination. Not so little, either, as there are seventeen members of the company. While all handle their parts well, of course Miss Fischer is the star and she made an excellent impression last night in the leading role of "A Southern Romance."

However, the COAST MAIL man will confess that his allegiance did not all go out to the one but went partly to Miss Wilbur, who, as Ginger made herself a favorite with the audience at once.

The specialties were well received, and it was evident that the large audience was well pleased with the entire performance.

The MAIL unhesitatingly commends the company as worthy of the patronage of the theatre-goers of this community, and hopes the engagement will pay these people handsomely.

The Chico Coming

Col. R. H. Rosa received a telegram from San Francisco, this week, stating that the steamer, Chico, would sail from that place direct to the Coquille on Saturday, and that he should notify shippers to that effect.

The Chico was here once before, at which time, she sailed under the name Alice Blanchard. She is to return direct to San Francisco, but her future course is not known here, however, it is not likely that she has been put upon this run for one trip only as that would hardly pay under almost any conditions.

There are interests on the Coquille which demand steamer transportation and it is not likely that this route will go begging for any length of time.

There was a cry in the streets. People rushed from their doors and strained their eyes on the struggling balloonist fighting for life. Even the poor, panting sufferer in the sick room was forgotten while the family gazed breathless at this strange tragedy of the air. Then they went back to the sick room to tell of the terrible struggle for life they had just witnessed. It did not occur to them that under their very eyes a more terrible, more pathetic struggle was going on daily.

There can be nothing more pitiful than the struggle the consumptive makes against disease. The greatest help in this struggle is gained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures obstinate coughs, weak and bleeding lungs, emaciation, and other ailments which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

"In 1891 one of my daughters was suffering on account of a severe cough, hectic fever, wasting of flesh and other symptoms of diseased lungs. A writer, Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, of Barium Springs, Redell Co., N. C. promptly gave her Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with gratifying success, and she now enjoys excellent health. This being true, I hereby heartily endorse your medicines. Accept no substitute for 'Golden Medical Discovery.' There is nothing 'just as good' for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the 'Discovery.'"

The Editor of the Port Orford Tribune is taking a trip to southern California. It is said that he is walking the entire distance. Very becoming to the dignity of a country editor. Many an editor would know where his next month's rent was to come from if he did more at such manly exercise.

Heppner Gazette: The Wife of one of our business men was rushing to catch the train not long since and stopped in the store on her way to the depot. On inquiring of the clerk, she found that her husband was in the barber shop. Rushing up to the barber chair, she placed a most affectionate kiss on the lather-covered cheek of her supposed husband and told the occupant to write often, but her husband viewed the scene from an adjoining chair.

Fine Stationery at Norton's.

The Cyarins made a quick run up the coast, being 41 hours from wharf to wharf, being delayed some at the bar waiting for the tide.

The little DAILY has been dubbed the daily Broiler by some of its dear friends. That isn't at all bad. We expect worse than this, but feel confident that we won't go hungry so long as we take all legitimate business such as the Broiler furnishes. If some drones, who occupy the busy marts of Marshfield were to take on a little of the Broiler man's business views Marshfield would loom up as a hustling town at least to the outside world.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Thos. Coke has sold his farm at Sumner to Jas. Stock, who will make his home thereon.

Otto Hill returned yesterday from the North Fork of Coos river, where he has been making some improvements on his place.

The large donkey in Senstacken's camp at Pony slough got out of sorts Monday, the shaft was brought up to the railroad machine shops for repairs.

John Neilson will go on the Arcata to San Francisco, having been notified by Heald's Business College, of which he is a graduate, that a good position awaits him.

The Daily Roseburg Review appears now in a brand new dress of clean bright brevity type and it is a credit to Roseburg and Douglas county.

Rusty Mike's Diary Jan. 20, 1903.—Quality is good when it comes to newspapers, but without circulation nobody knows it.

There were about 60 present at the Baptist Young Peoples' meeting Sunday evening. Mrs. German led the meeting, after giving a very edifying address on "character". A splendid program was rendered, which was evidently appreciated by the audience.

Klamath Falls Express.—The Marshfield Weekly Mail published an extensive holiday edition of 22 pages, well illustrated with half-tone cuts and containing general information relative to the growing town of Marshfield and Coos county. It is an excellent number and worth preserving.

Officers Installed

The following officers of Myrtle Lodge No. 5, K of P, were installed Monday evening by D D G C John S. Coke: C C, W B. Curtis; V C, P C. Lovar; P, F. G. Strange; M of W, Jas. Fort; K of R & S John F. Hall; M of E, F. A. Golden; M of F, F. P. Norton; M at A, Aug. Farley; I G, Geo. Cammann, O G, H. G. Ploeger.

In Good Condition

Health Officer E. Mings of the port of Coos Bay has filed his report with Governor Chamberlin, covering the months' period between October 1st and

December 31, 1902, and showing that sixty domestic vessels had arrived during that period and fifty-eight departed all in good sanitary condition and devoid of contagious diseases.

New Steamer Service

The steamer Coquille River has been put on the run between San Francisco and Coos Bay. She will make regular trips from now on, carrying both passengers and freight. The steamer carries only first-class passengers and is safe, trim, seaworthy steamer. Her Master, C. Frantzen, is a captain of great experience on the Coasting trade and is known as one of the most careful skippers on the Coast. The vessel will sail from Empire City at 4 p. m. today. The vessel is at the Stave mill now loading lumber. Make all inquiries of the Master at the Stave mill. Before the next trip all arrangements will be completed for the agency here and this steamer will serve a long felt want on the bay.

The Fischer Company

It is unfortunate for the Margarita Fischer Company that it did not choose to open the engagement Saturday night with the Golden Giant, which was played last evening. While the play Saturday night was well enough in its way, it was not calculated to show the company off to good advantage and the large audience did not get a just appreciation of the real ability of the company.

On the other hand the Golden Giant is play well fitted to please a mixed audience, and the members of the company are given a much better chance to show their talent.

While the house was but sparsely filled there was much more of applause and expressions of appreciation, and it is evident that the people were well pleased with the show. Miss Fischer in a sourette part made herself a favorite, and the other members of the company carried their parts in a pleasing manner. The bill tonight will be The Convict's Daughter.

From County Exchanges

(Coquille Bulletin)

The dry room connected with Thos. Krewson's furniture factory took fire on Tuesday afternoon and was entirely consumed. The main building was only saved by the heroic efforts of a volunteer fire brigade. Mr. Krewson estimates his loss at $50.

Postmaster Noles has been notified by the Postmaster General that the office at Riverton has been discontinued, and that the order will take effect January 31st.

J. A. Collier began work on the new ice plant and creamery Monday. Work will be pushed as rapidly as the material can be obtained.

Judge Noster was on the street last Saturday—the first time in eleven weeks. The Judge's health has been quite poor for some time past, but he seems to be much improved just now, as he goes out for a stroll nearly every day.

(Bandon Recorder)

The sawmill question is beginning to loom up again and we understand that the gentleman who represents the company is to be here shortly and that Coos county is likely to receive three new mills in the near future; one here, one at Coquille, and one on Coos Bay, all to be operated by the same company.

The Coast Mail's holiday number came to hand last Monday, and is a very creditable production, giving Marshfield and vicinity a good write up.

Teachers Examination

The regular examination of applicants for teachers' certificates—County and State—will be held in my office in Coquille Feb. 11, 12 and 13, 1903.

W. H. Busen,
Co. Supt.

Dated this 16th day of Jan. 1903.

Rain and sweat have no effect on harness treated with Eureka Harness Oil. It resists the damp, keeps the leather soft and pliable. Stitches do not break. No rough surface to chafe and cut. The harness not only keeps looking like new, but wears twice as long by the use of Eureka Harness Oil.

EUREKA HARNESS OIL

Sold everywhere in cans—all sizes. Made by Standard Oil Company.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mrs. Nels Nygren, of Port Orford, is in town on business.

Atty. C. F. McKnight sports a brand new sign on his office door.

Andrew Peterson, of Empire City, has been spending a few days in town.

J. W. Bennett, who has been in Portland for the past week, left there for San Francisco yesterday.

Albert Bettys and W. O. Mathews will put in logs this summer from Horace Haskins place at Fairview.

C. W. Paterson received a scow load of rock, Sunday, for the hospital foundation, and it is being hauled out to the building site.

Advices from Portland to W. T. Merchant yesterday were to the effect that the Homer might sail from there for this port last night.

Myrtle Point Enterprise—The Coast Mail has issued a very creditable special number. It is devoted to the interests of Marshfield and Coos Bay.

Rusty Mike's Diary, Jan. 21, 1903—A merchant can get along without advertising, but he won't if he has ever tried the right kind.

Wm. Thomas has taken charge Senstacken's logging camp on Pony slough, getting back to his old trade of Coos Bay boss logger.

The MAIL acknowledges the receipt of $1 from Mrs. J. W. Rooke to go to the fund for the starving people of Finland. That is what counts; 412 1-2 grains of silver with Uncle Sam's stamp on it is worth a ton of sympathy, in this case.

One of H. Senstacken's spare work oxen mired down yesterday near the bridge leading out toward Empire but Marshall Carter came to the rescue and the animal was dragged out by one of Anderson's teams, and saved from a miry grave.

The Convict's Daughter

The Margarita Fischer Company was greeted by a much better house last night than on the night before their good work on Monday evening having turned the tide again in their favor.

The play of the Convict's Daughter has for its central figure the tramp and convict. In this character J. B. McDowell easily carried off the honors, his personation being extremely good.

In the title role Miss Fischer was the young girl which she can so charmingly portray. There is plenty of comedy mixed with the melo-drama in this play, and laughter and applause were plentiful.

The MAIL wishes to assure its readers that this company is doing meritorious work is deserving of a good patronage. Don't wait till they are gone to find out that they are well worth seeing in the plays which they are giving this week. "Tonight 'My Uncle From Japan,' is the bill, and it is said to be full of rich fun all the way through.
