YOUNG PEOPLE'S WHIST CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

One of the Pleasantest Social Events of The Season--Highly Enjoyed by All.

One of the leading social events of the season took place last evening, when the "Young People's Whist Club" was most fittingly received and entertained by the Misses McCormac, at the home of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormac. The decorations were very elaborate and strikingly unique. The general rule of the game was deviated from in declaring the diamond trump for the evening. This gave the key note for the decorations which comprised festoons and portieres of red diamonds relieved by garlands of ivy. Over each table was suspended a large diamond with the number of the table upon it. The prizes for whist were won by Miss Evelyn Anderson and Alton Sengstacken. 1st prize; Miss Maud Reed and Chas. McKnight booby.

After the usual twenty hands of whist, a prize was offered for the best and most original pun or conundrum. After careful consideration, the prize was awarded to Miss Evelyn Anderson. And now, when we ask one of our most charming young ladies, by what name, is your future husband to address you? She answers, with her daintiest smile, "Ma-honey."

The next to attract the attention of the guests was an announcement, dear and sweet: "Bring on your horses for the two year old cake walk." Some were bashful, some were tired, and some were hard to control. But at last, all were in readiness, and at the signal of the judges, each and every one moved under the wire together. Their angelic forms glided gracefully to and fro, as if guided by some supernatural power. The race was hard and furious, and it seemed that no human hand could pick the winner, until "Bill Dagan" and his fair bride turned the last eighth on the home stretch. Then all hope vanished, for "Dagan's" eyes centered on the cake, and they won by a length.

A most delicious and bountiful repast was then served. Each and every one partook, as if, "Tomorrow we die." After numerous toasts to the "fair daughters, their happy parents, and the eventful evening, the party adjourned to the parlor where they had the privilege to enjoy some choice selections of music.

The beautiful decorations seemed to whisper words of love, and unconscious to all the early hours of morn had come and gone unnoticed. Only too soon the parting hour arrived, and with a merry good night, each one seemed to say,—"To this bliss evening with its joys, Our thoughts shall turn with thoughts of love."

Those present were: Mrs. Dungan, Misses Agnes Hutcheson, Alice Butler, Alice Aiken, Maud Reed, Annie Biesen, Gertrude Engle, Maggie Anderson, Eva Anderson, Susie Eckworth, Edna O'Connell, Mamie Mahoney, Leida Howard, Jettie Watson, Grace McCormac, Alice McCormac, Mr. Dungan, Messrs Harold Dimmock, Otto Sengstacken, Dr. Straw, Dr. Foss, Charlie Stanif, Charline McKnight, L. K. Nichols, Alton Sengstacken, Watson Short, James Hutcheson, Frank Haggue, Jack Flanagan, John Kronholm, Anne Kruse, Tom Godwin.

Pain

In My Heart I Could Not Lie Down. Was On The Verge Of Insanity. Choking Sensations I Was Afraid To Sleep.

"For years I was troubled with pain around the heart, fluttering and choking sensations--part of the time could not lie down. In short I was a nervous wreck; such violent jerking of the arms and limbs; nervous prostration--in fact was on the verge of insanity--was afraid to sleep for fear I would never awaken. I saw a testimonial in our paper from a man similarly afflicted, and an account of the help derived from the use of Dr. Miles' remedies. By the persistent use of the Heart Cure, Nerve, and Pain Pills I soon felt like a new woman. I am never without these remedies now. In writing the above I feel that the half has not been told. No one who has not been through it knows or can know what 'on the verge of insanity' means. Your remedies were surely a god-send to me. There is scarcely a week but what I recommend them and in nearly every case induce someone to try your remedies, and the results are so satisfactory that they continue to take them. One recent instance I recall. I was in Laurance and called to see a friend who was very sick with muscular rheumatism. She was nearly crazed with pain and had given the money to my mother to gather some morphine to quiet the pain. I told her what your Pain Pills had done for me and finally persuaded her to send for them. She had only to take two of the Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and she was free from pain."--Mrs. Arthur Osborn, Decatur, Mich.

GOOD SUM RAISED FOR FAMINE SUFFERS

Four Hundred Dollars to Buy Food For Starving Finlanders.

The committee have completed the canvass for contributions for relief of the famine-stricken people of Finland. All but one of the sub-committees have reported and the amount aggregates $384.15, less 50 cents for exchange, $383.65. It is expected that the sum raised by the sub-committee which has not yet reported will raise the amount to $400 or over.

This is an excellent showing for this community. It is the largest sum reported from any one place, large or small, in the United States, the next largest being $221.

The committee feel highly gratified at the result of their efforts and wish to express through the Mail their appreciation and thanks to the people of this community for their liberal response to the call for assistance.

They also request us to express their thanks to the sub-committees for their work; to E. L. C. Farrin for his kindness in preparing the heading for subscription lists; to the Flanagan & Bennett Bank for granting a special low rate of exchange; and to the Daily COAST MAIL and the News for their help.

This money will be forwarded, through Hornburg & Co. of New York, and should reach its destination in about 3 weeks, where it will do good out of all proportion to the sacrifice of the donors.

The list of contributors, so far reported, is as follows;

SHOE TALK

When buying shoes DON'T get plucked. If you buy a $3.50 or $4.00 shoe at a store where $6 to $8 shoes are sold you do get plucked nearly every time.

Satisfactory shoes for Winter--shoes that please the people--shoes in which the shape will hold--won't "squash" out, or sag in the shank, or get shabby-looking in a little while.

Shoes that hold out because they're rightly built--not a skimp anywhere, inside or out--THAT'S the Walk-Over Shoe.

Must be right or wrong--no middle ground--or we couldn't everlastingly preach Money-Back Shoes--good wear or a new pair. Why pay $5 and $6 for let-well-enough-alone shoes--Tom, Dick and Harry makes--that have been foisted on a long suffering public with scarcely a change--in quality nor in shape--for the last ten years.

OUTFITTERS & FURNISHERS

Bad Slide

There is a bad slide on the railroad about half way between the Junction and Cedar point. The track is buried and the dirt keeps falling in, so that it will be several days before the track is cleared to Cedar point, and it will probably be a week or ten days before trains will be running to Coquille City.
