

To You and Yours

OUR CHRISTMAS WISH

IT REQUIRES not the occasion of Christmas with its joys, cheer and prevalent good will, to arouse in us a sense of the appreciation due patrons of this paper.

In our hearts and minds are gratitude and good thoughts for you during every day of the year; but Christmas hallows our sentiments and makes their expression fitting and timely.

Such as we have accomplished and such good as may be traceable to our efforts would not have been possible without your sustaining power and co-operation. If in any sense we have upheld a beacon, you have supplied oil for the lamp. If ours has been a chariot, yours has been the motive element which has kept it on its way.

All characters appealing to or endeavoring to entertain the public, must be given a certain meed of applause or they cannot exist. With those engaged in publishing a newspaper, the applause comes in the interest which readers manifest in its columns and in an occasional word of approval. The practical help of subscribers and advertisers has enabled us to maintain a publication standard; their encouragement has furnished the degree of pleasure necessary as an incentive to our daily tasks.

May the spirit of Christmas work for you the full degree of its bountifulness. May you be enabled to get the same amount of pleasure and benefit from these columns that we have derived from making them.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

Please send me statement of subscription rate to the "Observer" per year.

When you were editor "Banks Herald" Banks was on the map continuously and I received much good news for use in my home town. So pardon me if I ask to keep in touch with one of Oregon's best Boosters.

Wishing you continued success I am,

Your friend,

Earl E. Fisher.

According to law you must NOT write your name on butter wrappers. Be cautious, go according to law; play safe. Law says butter wraps must be certain kind of paper, printed with regular butter wrapper ink, such as the Observer uses. We print them complete and furnish proper paper at $1.50 per 100.
