"Unsettled/Resettled: Seattle's Hunt Hotel"

Through Sep 25, 11am-3pm (Tue-Sat), noon-3pm (Sun), Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center (121 NW Second Ave, Portland). View "Unsettled/Resettled: Seattle's Hunt Hotel," an exhibit about the thousands of people of Japanese ancestry who were incarcerated in internment camps during World War II and returned homeless and jobless to their former communities in the Seattle area. Using interviews, archival footage, photographs, and original artworks by Aki Sogabe, the display recalls the resettlement experience of the families and individuals who found lodging at the Seattle Japanese Language School between 1945 and 1959, when it operated as a temporary hostel. For info, call (503) 224-1458 or visit <www.oregonnikkei.org>.

National Preparedness Month

Through Sep 30 (daily), 7am. As part of National Preparedness Month, the Clark Regional Emergency Services Agency (CRESA) is hosting its "30 Days, 30 Ways Preparedness Challenge," an online social media game and contest in which players are given a daily challenge at 7:00am west coast time. Participants can play as many days as they would like throughout the month and winners receive prizes. The national theme this year is "Don't Wait. Communicate. Make Your Emergency Plan Today." For info, call (360) 737-1911, or visit <www.30days30ways.com> or <www.clark.wa.gov>.

NeighborWalks 2016

Sep 20, 10am-noon, Multnomah Arts Center (7688 SW Capitol Hwy, Portland). Take a tour of Multnomah Village as part of NeighborWalks 2016. The two-hour walk — which is 2.3 miles (and 4,600 steps) — explores Multnomah Village and its surrounding charming neighborhoods. Participants also learn about pedestrian safety and walkability for all ages from a Safe Routes to School national partnership expert. Attendees should meet on the west side of the Multnomah Arts Center. For info, call 1-866-554-5360 or visit <http://states.aarp.org/neighborwalks2016>.

Free health resource fair

Sep 24, 9am-2pm, Clackamas County Public Health Courtyard (150 Beaver Creek Rd, Oregon City, Ore.). Attend a free health resource fair hosted by FamilyCare Health in collaboration with the Clackamas County Public Health Department. The fair features dental screenings; flu shots; blood-pressure screenings; fluoride varnish; enrollment assistance for the Oregon Health Plan (OHP), Medicaid, WIC, and SNAP; health and wellness resources and education; giveaways; snacks; and more. For info, contact Tania at (503) 488-8342, e-mail <taniac@familycareinc.org>, or visit <www.familycareinc.org/events>.

Free lead screening for families

Sep 24, 10-10:45am, Hillsdale Library (1525 SW Sunset Blvd, Portland). Attend a free screening for lead poisoning that uses a quick and simple finger-prick test administered by trained professionals. A child with lead poisoning may be asymptomatic — looking and acting healthy — and because of this, lead poisoning may go unrecognized. The test takes only minutes and results are available immediately. Resources for lead-poisoning prevention are also offered. The clinic is aimed at children age six and younger, women who are pregnant or breastfeeding, and any student within Portland Public Schools. For info, call (503) 988-5388 or visit <events.multcolib.org>.

SOLVE Beach & Riverside Cleanup

Sep 24, 10am-1pm, Oregon Coast and inland rivers. Join fellow Oregonians for the annual SOLVE Beach & Riverside Cleanup. Volunteers are needed to clean Oregon's beaches and inland riversides from the Washington to the California border. Participants are asked to check in at one of more than 100 meeting sites and clean up the coastline and riverbanks for wildlife and visitors. Sturdy shoes, weather-appropriate clothing, a reusable container for drinking water, a reusable bag or bucket for collecting trash, and gloves are suggested. Volunteers are also encouraged to carpool or use public transportation where possible, pack a "trash-free" lunch, and bring an old colander to beach cleanup sites to sift the tide lines for harmful, bite-sized bits of plastic. For info, or to register, call 1-800-333-SOLV (7658) or (503) 844-9571, ext. 332, or visit <www.solveoregon.org>.
