BAPTIST CHURCH

Edgar R. Luther, Pastor

The success of the White Gifts Christmas program last Sunday evening was seen in the presentation of gifts, both in money for the needy at Astoria and in the consecration of life to Christian service.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will speak on "Surrender But Not Defeat," and in the evening the subject will be "New Year Resolutions." At the close of the evening services there will be a short business meeting followed by a program that will last until 12 o'clock. A prayer and testimony service will feature the closing moments of the old year.

The Baptist church held a White Gift program Sunday evening. The gifts were all in money, each Sunday school class bringing a gift in some unique parcel form. The proceeds, $40.56 were sent to Astoria to help rebuild the church recently destroyed in the big fire there. The building was not burned but was completely wrecked by dynamite.

THURSTON NOTES

Henry McKlin, of Springfield, spent several days last week with Roy Edmiston and family.

Ennis Rennie, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rennie, of Thurston, and Miss Netta Minney, of Vida, were married in Eugene Tuesday, December 19, by Rev. Stivers. They left in the evening for Portland on a wedding trip. The young couple will make their home at Oakridge, where Mr. Rennie manages the fish hatchery.
