LEXINGTON ITEMS.

A new cash register has been installed at Joseph Burgoyne's store.

This lovely weather! Who could complain, and the times near Christmas!

Pinkey Butler started to work again on the railroad after his accident with a hand car.

Mrs. Dunn is visiting her friend, Mrs. Burgoyne. She was formerly a resident of Lexington.

Tuesday was big hog-killing time at E. Nordyke's. Everything was ready at daylight and a big day's butchering resulted.

Earl Eskelson has the smallpox.
We understand he was removed to Heppner where he could be more under the doctor's care.

The O. W. R. & N. Railroad officials went over the branch on Saturday, returning on Sunday. We guess everything was to their liking as they seemed well pleased.

The work on Gus McMillan's house is progressing rapidly. The men employed are now preparing to lathe and plaster. Gus will have a fine residence when the house is completed.

The Congregationalist church will have their Christmas exercises and tree on Tuesday evening, the 23rd, and the Methodists will give their program and tree on the following evening. There is also to be a masked ball during Christmas week, the exact date to be named later.

How about your supply of winter's wood? Most everyone is pretty well supplied we think. Speaking of the fuel question, we are reminded that the city drayman has reduced his prices for delivery of wood and coal.
The price for a cord of 4-foot wood or a ton of coal will be 35 cents; sawed wood 50 cents, and lumber 40 cents per thousand.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the M. E. parsonage, by Rev. Tabor, when Arthur P. Beymer, youngest son of Mrs. E.
A. Beymer, was united in marriage to Mertie White, eldest daughter of Mrs. John McCormick. Both bride and groom were becomingly attired in blue. The writer joins with a host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs.
Beymer every joy and success all through life's journey.

SAND HOLLOW

W. B. Finley spent the early part of the week in Pendleton on a business trip.

The well that is not yet an artesian well is now six hundred feet deep and still going down.

The program for the big Christmas party on Dec. 25 is nearly all arranged and the ladies of Sand Hollow are busy making good things to eat.

The Alpine Literary Society is better than ever and meeting every Saturday night. A cyphering match will be added to the regular program next meeting. The meeting to be held Dec. 27, will be enlivened by a discussion of an up-to-the-minute question, "Should U. S. intervene in Mexico?"

IRRIGON.

Mr. Hayes, of Heppner, made another auto trip down here last Monday.

Henry Susbauer and son William are here visiting Peter Susbauer and family.

Two strangers whose names have not yet been learned have taken up quarters in the old Smith house.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muniek will take a short business trip to The Dalles the latter part of the week.

The Christmas entertainment is now well under way. It will be given at the church, Christmas eve. Be sure to come, you will see a fine display and will be sure to have a good time.

Although it is out of season, baseball has come into vogue. On Sunday afternoons you may see a professional game by calling at the grounds just north of the Egbert & Wadsworth store.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The pupils are all very busy preparing for the Christmas program.

The school received a new clock and a quantity of new crayon, also a supply of paper towels.

There are some repairs being made on the schoolhouse; the bellry is being made leak-proof and the steps are being remodeled.

HARDMAN

N. H. Leathers left for the mountains on Sunday to trap.

Lewis Cason came over from Lone Rock Sunday. Wonder what he came for.

M. S. Maxwell, of Parkers Mill, attended lodge in Hardman last Saturday night.

R. W. Burnside is still going on crutches. Claud Adkins is driving his team for him.

Grandma Emry returned home the last of the week from an extended visit at Hermiston.

Fred Searcy and wife started on Monday for Fred's old home in Missouri to spend the winter.

Supt. Notson paid our school a visit one day last week and treated the people to a picture show in the evening.

J. P. Hadley and family have moved into town. John sometimes forgets himself had gets his mail and starts off down the road for the farm.

DISTRICT NO. 50.

W. L. Copenhaver sold three cows this week.

B. S. Clark shipped his turkeys to Portland.

R. B. Rice took 22 turkeys to Heppner this week.

R. B. Rice purchased 18 head of cattle last week.

Luther Gash and family have gone back to their homestead.

Roy Tyler and family were weekend visitors of B. S. Clark and wife.

Rev. Tabor preached two splendid sermons Sunday and was met by a large crowd.

Wm. Tucker and family attended the box supper and went home with Mr. and Mrs. Copenhaver.

Edgar Copenhaver sold six dozen White Leghorn hens at 86 per dozen and his turkeys for $2 a head.

Wm. Gould and family are preparing to leave our community as they have sold out. We are sorry to lose this family, and we welcome the new family.

Sunday school is steadily increasing. All are busy now preparing for a Xmas tree and program. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy themselves Xmas night.

The box supper held at the Hodson schoolhouse was well attended.
There was a good program after which boxes were sold. All had a jolly good time. The patrons were well pleased with the efforts of teacher and pupils as well as the $32 derived from boxes.

Siterary and Basket Social.

The program concluded with a laughable farce entitled "No Girls Admitted," given by some of the young people of the neighborhood, and which left every body in a jolly good humor for the next proceeding, the selling of the baskets. Mr. Elmer Lewis acting as salesman in a creditable manner.

A dance in Lexington, that night kept away some who were expected to attend, so the bidding was confined to married men, bachelors and boys.
However, the baskets, many of which were decided works of art, sold fairly well, bringing in a substantial sum which is to be used for needed improvements in the school house.

On Friday evening, December 12th, at the school house in district No. 38, four miles below Heppner, hapened one of those occasions that will always remain a pleasant memory to those fortunate enough to be a guest. A literary entertainment given by the school, was fine and gave evidence of deep study, careful designing, and hard work and application on part of both pupils and teacher.

Declamations and dialogues, interspersed with music, both instrumental and vocal, served to amuse and entertain so that the program was really much longer than it appeared to be.

Lack of time and space prevents special mention of individual numbers, but all were worthy of commendation, and some showed decided histrionic ability.

After the baskets were disposed of the larger part of the company repaired to the residence of Chris Brown, which had been kindly thrown open for the occasion, and where hot coffee and chocolate had been prepared, and where the contents of the baskets were also disposed of, with social chat and interchange of views, after which all left for their homes, filled with good humor and other substantials.

This was at the school taught by Miss Opal Briggs of Heppner, who is entitled to credit for the labor and thought expended in making the entertainment a success.

All went away feeling well pleased and hoping that these social occasions may become more frequent.

Do you contemplate having any work done in the line of building?
If so give Harry Johnson a chance to figure with you. First class work and satisfaction guaranteed. t.
