

Krebs Celebrate Anniversary With Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Sunday with a Christmas party at their home in Ione. Mrs. Krebs used a holly theme in decorations about the room. Guests sat at card tables centered with sprigs of holly in milk glass and enjoyed a ranch treat of venison sausage and cheeses and other snack foods.

They were married at the Good Samaritan Episcopal Church while Henry was at Oregon State and she was research assistant at the college. Following graduation they ranched at Cecil until a year ago they moved to Ione. Mrs. Krebs is the former Dorothy Durst. They have four children, Jane 16, Clinton 15, Sky 12 and Glen 8.

Nazarene Christmas Program Presented

Rev. Floyd Everhart and his two daughters from Nampa, Idaho and Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Kratzer, district superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene from Yakima presented the Christmas program here Sunday during the Sunday School hour.

They gave a variety program of songs, readings and musical selections. Mr. Kratzer told the story "Why the Chimes Ring" and played a solo on his saw.

A potluck dinner followed at the church and treats were given to everybody present.

St. Patrick's Have Big Day!

There were 150 in attendance for the Christmas dinner and program Sunday at St. Patrick's Parish hall. Following the potluck dinner, boys and girls of the CCD classes presented the program with Greg Davidson as emcee. They presented three tableaux: Mary and Joseph enroute to Bethlehem, the Shepherds and Angels and the Wisemen with gifts. The 5-6-7 and 8th grade choir provided the background music for each scene. The children of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th grades gave readings. Teachers in charge of the program were Mrs. Rodney Britt, Mrs. Jerry Sweeney, Mrs. Pat Brindle and Mrs. Kenneth Turner.

DOT'S JOTS

I can remember dressing in front of the old cook stove with the oven door open. Fed with wood from the woodbox which stood next to the stove, it was a warm and welcome spot on cold mornings.

The cook stove was missing but lo and behold, the wood box was there . . . at the Rhea Creek Grange. It's an oldey. The back is higher than the front which was braced with iron straps. It has seen many years of service. Mrs. Elmer Palmer says she is sure it was the one at the Bedding Ranch when they moved there 27 years ago. It now holds wood for the trash burner which may supply heat but not with the charm that the old cook stoves did with the oven door open.

Children's programs are such fun and the program Sunday evening at the United Church of Christ was real good. A high spot came during the singing of Deck The Halls as the preschoolers each took two ornaments to put on the tree. They were so unconcerned and the last little fellow was carried away somewhere. Totally unaware of anyone he finished putting on his Christmas balls and then just stood and looked enraptured at the tree. It was a wonderful moment shared in ecstasy by the whole congregation.

Somehow during the supper it became known that it was Charlie's birthday. All of a sudden the piano was playing "Happy Birthday". Charlie sang along and was extremely surprised when it turned out it was to him they were singing! Such fun was followed by a beautiful hayride. No snow but the moon was so bright and the sky was clear. Next year Lindsay Kincaid said he'll hitch up the horses. Now if he'll just promise snow we'll be there with bells on! Come to think of it . . . snow or no snow we'll be there with bells on!

M-m-m Charlie hit Tuesday's Oregon Journal. They quoted from his last week's editorial on obtaining a nuclear power plant and hot water irrigation on their editorial page. OTHER EDITORS DISCUSS. . . Oh well . . . it isn't the first . . . and it probably won't be the last and it is kinda fun to read your stuff in someone else's paper some time!

Luther League Plans Winter Jaunt

Luther League members are planning a trip to the mountains on Jan. 4. Members are to meet at the church at 1:30 for a ride to Cutsforth Cabin. Hot chocolate will be furnished and members are to take a sack lunch. Bob Peck is chairman.

At their Dec. 14 meeting, members also made plans for the Dec. 23 Christmas service. Jim McLaughlin and Jim Cutsforth were named acolytes; Tom Cutsforth and Kirk Robinson, ushers and Terry Pettyjohn, Tami Rauch and Deana Cutsforth, to read the scripture.

Visitors at Cox Home

Visitors at the Claude Cox home this weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Clair H. Cox of Corvallis and Charles M. Cox of Walla Walla where he is chief contact for the Veterans Adm. Hospital. Another guest was their grandson, John T. Cox who is home from the University of Oregon where he is a junior in Business Administration. He recently affiliated with Kappa Sigma social fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox, Heppner.

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS ONYON nee Marjorie Lee O'Connor now at home in San Diego.

O'Connor-Onyon Wed In San Diego Rites

All Saints' Episcopal Church in San Diego, Calif., was the setting for the double ring ceremony Nov. 8, uniting in marriage Marjorie Lee O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor of Ione, and Douglas Wayne Onyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Onyon of Tustin, Calif. The Rev. Paul Sarang officiated at the noon ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length empire styled A-line gown of candlelight white satashan with full train. Her train length veil was of lace edged illusion. She carried a single long stemmed white rose on the white prayer book carried by her mother at her wedding. She also carried a white handkerchief edged with tating made by her great-grandmother and carried by both her grandmother and mother at their weddings, and on heirloom handkerchief carried at the weddings of the groom's grandmother and mother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. O'Connor wore a blue crepe dress with jeweled braid trim on the long full sleeves and matching hat. Her corsage was red rosebuds.

The bride was attended by her sister Terrie O'Connor of Ione, as maid of honor, and Mary Onyon of Tustin, Calif., sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. They were identically attired in floor length olive green velvet dresses, styled after that of the bride, with shoulder length beige lace veils.

Best man was Ron Hagander, of Santa Ana, Calif. Robert Onyon, Santa Ana, ushered for his brother.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored at a reception luncheon at the Islandia Hotel on Mission Bay.

Following a wedding trip to Carmel, the newlyweds are at home in San Diego, where both are employed.

Mr. Onyon is editor of the magazine and in charge of public relations for Pacific Southwest Airlines. Mrs. Onyon is secretary for an insurance company.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Ione High School, and a 1969 graduate of the University of Oregon. The groom graduated from Santa Ana Valley High School in 1965, attended Santa Ana Junior College, and is a 1969 graduate of the University of Oregon.

There will be no party on Christmas Day or New Years Day. The next gathering will be Jan. 8 from 2 until 4 p.m.

58 Steaks Served Lions' Ladies Nite

Fifty-eight juicy steaks were served at the Ione Lions Club annual Ladies' Night dinner at Eds Tavern in Ione Monday evening. Mrs. Lela LeBlanc of Irrigon won the drawing for the ham, Darrell James and Bill Nichols won the turkeys. President Lindsay Kincaid announced an important board meeting to be held Jan. 5.

Senior Citizens Have XMAS Party

There were 10 senior citizens on hand for the Christmas party Thursday afternoon at the Neighborhood Center. Door prizes were won by Alta Stevens and Opal Briggs. The group sang Christmas Carols and played games.

There will be no party on Christmas Day or New Years Day. The next gathering will be Jan. 8 from 2 until 4 p.m.

Warren & Marquardt Apply for Scholarship

Debbie Warren and Rick Marquardt have been chosen by the HHS National Honor Society as representatives to fill out applications for the NHS scholarship. The selection was based upon their leadership, scholarship, character and service.

There will be 175 NHS awards of $1000 each made nationally. The scholarship board will take into consideration the type and size of the student's school. Mrs. Vi Lanham is National Honor Society advisor.

Bring hope anew with blessings at Christmastime.

Peace on Earth and Blessings
Of the Season to All

RT. REV. MSGR. LEROL E. McWILLIAMS
(St. Michael's Church, Jersey City, N. J.)

Although man is the high priest of creation and all other creatures were made for his service, it were to be devoutly wished that the far reaching, all embracing sympathy of St. Francis would return and make of all men the tender friend and protector of animals as he was . . . To achieve knowledge through the unutterable agonies of those who trust us has never been part of my credo.
