2017 ANNUAL FROSTBITE GOLF TOURNAMENT

Saturday, April 1st was a busy day at the Willow Run Golf Course in Boardman.

A total of 76 golfers pre-registered and were prepared for the typical "frostbite" temperatures, however the weather took advantage of our tournament's date of April 1st. Mild temperatures and just enough wind to challenge a few made the day even more enjoyable.

During the tournament, golfers competed with one another on challenges such as "Closest to the pin," "Yellow ball" and "Longest Drive" and an opportunity to win $10,000 at the "hole in one challenge".

Judy Scott's Chuckwagon catered a lunch of pulled pork sandwiches, potato salad, beans, and homemade fruit cocktail cake, for all to enjoy. As the tournament was nearing an end, golfers could gather up raffle prizes that were donated by various businesses.

Hearty congratulations for the winning teams and participants to the challenges
