Line helps South win Les Schwab Bowl

Hermiston alumnus aids stout defense in all-star game

For the third straight season the South conquered the North at the Les Schwab Tires Bowl, with the South winning the 70th meeting of the 6A/5A football all-star game by a 10-7 score at Hillsboro Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Hermiston's John-Henry Line played on the South roster, a key part of his team's stout defensive front that held the North to a mere 44 rushing yards, forced three turnovers and registered three sacks. Line himself tallied three total tackles with one tackle-for-loss.

"Our defense was amazing," Line said Monday. "I've never been a part of something like that. We were unstoppable."

As good as the week ended for the Hermiston High graduate, it started off a little rough.

day, Line was in the midst of running a routine drill until his finger got caught up on a player while making tackle. He knew something was wrong immediately, and had to be taken to the local emergency room where he had x-rays done and was diagnosed with a broken finger.

"My middle finger all the way to my pinkie was all swollen and all messed up," Line recalled.

The injury slowed him a bit for the rest of the week, but not enough to keep him out. When it came time for the game, Line had his fingers taped up with some gel padding underneath to help protect the finger.

Line's South squad, who evened the all-time series record to 33-33-4 with the win, got the scoring going first when McMinnville quarterback Wyatt Smith hooked up with Wilsonville's Harrison Steiger on a 17-yard touchdown pass for a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Then in the third quarter the South added to the lead with a 28-yard field goal from Grants Pass' Jerin Appling for a 10-0 lead.

The South's defense did not give in until late in the fourth quarter, when North running back Jake McGreevy, of Clackamas, scored on a 2-yard rush up the middle to make it a 10-7 game.

"It was a super serious game," Line said. "The other team was trash talking us a lot."

Aside from the game, players also were involved in several activities throughout the week.

Overall, Line, who reports to Eastern Oregon University for training camp on Aug. 8, said that his experience over the course of the week was a memorable one.

"It was pretty fun and nice to meet and play with a bunch of good players," he said.
