The Girth of Man Increasing.
An excellent illustration of the value of records has been afforded lately regarding the question of physical degeneracy. A firm in the north of England has compared the measurements for clothing made two generations ago with those of to-day, the results going to show that chest and hip measurements are now three inches on the average more than they were sixty years ago. The same conclusion is reached by the experience of the ready-made clothiers. These facts, whatever may be their generality, do not quite dispose of the question of degeneracy. They are what we should expect from the more abundant and cheaper food of the people, their better housing and improved sanitary surroundings; but the testimony regarding the unfitness of recruits and progressive lack of stamina in town, and especially manufacturing, populations cannot be disregarded. The girth of man may be increasing, but, like a fatting hog, is not corpulency bringing clumsiness?

Cured Her Rheumatism.

Deep Valley, Pa., Oct. 31 (Special).—There is deep interest in Green county over the cure of the little daughter of I. N. Whipkey of Rheumatism. She was a great sufferer for five or six years and nothing seemed to do her any good till she tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. She began to improve almost at once and now she is cured and can run and play as other children do. Mr. Whipkey, says: "I am indeed thankful for what Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for my daughter; they saved her from being a cripple perhaps for life." Dodd's Kidney Pills have proved that Rheumatism is one of the results of diseased kidneys. Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid in the blood. If the kidneys are right there can be no Uric Acid in the blood and consequently no Rheumatism. Dodd's Kidney Pills make the Kidneys right.

Two darkies lay sprawled on the levee on a hot day. Moses drew a long sigh and said, "Heey-a-ah! Ah wish Ah had a hundred watermellons!" Tom's eyes lighted dimly. "Hum-ya-h! Dat would auttenly be fine. An' ef yo' had a hun'dred watermellons would ye' gib me fifty?" "No. Ah wouldn't gib ye' no fifty watermellons." "Wouldn't ye' gib me twenty-five?" "No. Ah wouldn't gib ye' no twenty-five." "Seems ter me youse powerful stingy, Moser. Wouldn't ye'-wouldn't ye' gib me one?" "No. Ah wouldn't gib ye' one. Look a hyah, niggab, are ye' so good-fer-nuffin lazy dat ye' calhn't wish fo' yo' own watermellons?"

JUDICIAL DECISIONS.

The right to require an examination and license as for a practitioner of medicine for the treatment of diseases by baths, physical culture, manipulation of muscles, bones, spine and solar plexus, and advice as to diet, is denied in State vs. Biggs (N. C.), 64 L. R. A. 139.

Recovery under a fire-insurance policy is held in German Mutual Fire Insurance Company vs. Fox (Neb.), 63 L. R. A. 334, not to be prevented by a conveyance of the property in violation of its conditions, if, prior to the loss, the property is reconveyed to the insurer.

A drawee bank which pays a raised check under the mistaken belief that it has not been altered is held, in Crocker-Woolworth National Bank vs. Nevada Bank (Cal.), 63 L. R. A. 245, to have no right to the collecting bank to refund the excessive amount after it has in good faith and without notice of fraud turned the proceeds over to the payee, where the indorsement of the collecting bank is restrictive and the drawee knows that it holds the check merely for collection.

When other writings are available for comparison with a disputed writing in a slander case it is held, in Gambrell vs. Schooley (Md.), 63 L. R. A. 427, that there should not be admitted in evidence a letter confined to the political issues of a pending presidential campaign, the effect of which will tend to prejudice defendant with such members of the jury as do not share the views expressed. An elaborate note to this case reviews all the authorities on competency of handwritings as standards for comparison.

Evidence that accused and others armed themselves and started out to commit burglary and that they encountered and killed a police officer, is held in People vs. Sullivan (N. Y.), 63 L. R. A. 353, to be sufficient to sustain a finding of deliberation and premeditation necessary to constitute the crime of murder in the first degree, although there was also evidence that the officer was the first to fire. Homicide in the commission of an unlawful act is the subject of an extensive note to this case.

A railroad company which induces an employe to refrain from bringing suit for injuries by promises to retain him on the pay roll, pay him for the injuries and give him a life job, which promises are fulfilled until after the statute of limitations has run, when payment for the injuries is refused and he is discharged, is held, in Chesapeake & N. R. Company vs. Speakman (Ky.), 63 L. R. A. 198, to be estopped to plead the statute to a suit for the injuries. All the other authorities on estoppel to plead defense of limitations are collated in a note to this case.

RULES FOR YOUNG LADIES.

"You are expected to be polite in your manners, neat in your person and your room, careful of your books and clothes, attentive to economy in all your expenses," read one of the rules of the Female Academy, conducted by Miss Sarah Pierce from 1792 to 1833. In "Chronicles of a Pioneer School" other rules are given, as follows: "You are requested not only to exercise in the morning, but also in the evening sufficiently for the preservation of health.

"Talebearing and scandal are odious vices and must be avoided; neither must you flatter your companions by any remarks on their beauty, dress or any accomplishment, in order to increase their vanity, and let every one thus flattered remember that such compliments are an insult offered to the understanding.

"You must not write a careless note, or any careless writing. You must write a composition, once in a fortnight, of two hundred words. You must write at least thirty good lines in a week.

"You must come in or go out of the school in a quiet, genteel manner; you must not talk or laugh loud in the street.

"You must not wear your party dresses, or any handsome lace, neither your best hats or shawls to school.

"You must not walk for pleasure after nine o'clock in the evening. A reward will be given to those who do not waste any money, books, clothes, paper or quills, during the term; to those who have their duties performed at the proper time; to those who have not been peevish, homesick or impolite; to those who always attend meeting or church; to those who never write carelessly."

Miss Pierce is described as possessing a rare faculty for impressing her scholars, and it is said by her historian that the young ladies who were graduated from her school were considered models of behavior and education.

Worse Yet.

One of the members of the Denver bar, says the New York Times, is an old-school Southerner, many of whose sayings have become proverbial.

One day, in discussing a political appointment with him, a newspaper man said of the lucky candidate, "It's absurd to appoint him. He can't read writing."

"Writing!" exclaimed the "Judge."

"Why, the fellow can't read reading."

There was a great naval battle. Without a moment's warning it began. Quick decision, undaunted courage, excellent discipline, resolute self confidence—these combined in Admiral Schley to produce that dash and daring so characteristic of the American soldier.

A man must think quickly in these days. There is no time for slow action. New enterprises arise in an hour. Old ones pass away in a moment.

A multitude of great themes clamor for notice. A man must take sides for or against by intuition, rather than logical deduction.

One asked his opinion. Without a moment's hesitation, he said: "I can cheerfully say that Mrs. Schley has taken Peruna and I believe with good effect."
