

GRAND CLEARANCE SALE

Now on in Every Department--All Winter Goods
Must Be Disposed of Quickly

COPYRIGHT, 1909, BY BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO.

OUR LOSS YOUR GAIN

Thousands of Dollars
Worth of Reliable Merchandise will be here for you to select from priced
below your expectations

Wishing Everyone a
Happy, Prosperous
New Year

Very sincerely

FRANK A. CRAM

BRANDEGEE KINCAID & CO.
CLOTHES.

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Charles Evans was a Portland visitor over the week end.

Louis A. Reed was in Portland on business last Friday.

Orchardists, go to Whitehead's for line and vitrol.

L. G. Westfall, of Underwood, was in the city Saturday shopping.

Herman Dehart, of Hood, Wash., was here Saturday on business for his father.

The Cutler family have moved into their handsome new home in the Odell district.

Now is the time to buy cheap slaw wool. A. C. Loft, phone 310-X.

Mrs. Louise Boyden left Sunday to spend Christmas week in Portland with friends.

J. B. Dalzell, deputy state factory inspector, was here Saturday on official business.

Dressmaking and plain sewing. Children's clothes a specialty. Mrs. Bailey, Ramona Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Haworth have returned from Portland, where they spent the holidays.

The Oregonian notes that Mrs. Marion MacRae is registered at the Hotel Congress in Chicago.

Mrs. W. G. Kennedy spent the holidays with her son, Dr. W. S. Kennedy, of The Dalles.

Carroll Hurlburt left Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with Portland relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Babson and little son spent the Christmas holidays with Portland friends.

Christian Science services are held in Reading Room No. 6 Davidson Building, Sunday 11 a. m. and Wednesday 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Page and son, Bernard, spent the holidays in The Dalles with relatives.

Miss Mary Montgomery, of Middle Valley, is spending the holidays with the family of F. F. McCrea.

W. G. Banks accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Doletha Mortimer, to Portland on business last week.

If your shoes have gone wrong take them to Johnson.

County Clerk W. E. Hanson and Mrs. Hanson spent Sunday and Monday in The Dalles with relatives.

Julian P. Scott, who recently purchased the Thomas Collins place near Dec, was a Portland visitor last week.

For Sale—Thirteen in Cass addition Terms. Inquire of J. R. Nickelson.

Mayor Geo. Blodgett, of the city of Blodgettville, arrived in the city last Thursday to spend the Christmas holidays.

Robert J. McKay, who is principal of the Kalama, Wash., high school, is here spending the Christmas vacation with friends.

Mrs. Della Sexton, who has been visiting relatives here, left for her home in Abilene, Kan., last week for the holidays.

Now is the time to buy cheap slaw wool. A. C. Loft, phone 310-X.

G. Martin and W. D. Roney, proprietors of the Pioneer Nursery, of Huson, Wash., were in the city last week on business.

All kinds of Fruit and Mercantile Stamps made to order. Phone 37.

L. S. Ainsworth was in Portland on business over the week end.

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schroeder, Tuesday, December 19, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bell returned yesterday from Portland, where they had been spending several days visiting friends.

Lowell M. Knapp, who has recently returned from near Indianapolis, will assume charge of the ranch of his uncle, J. J. Knapp.

E. H. Stewart, who is very ill, suffering from an intestinal trouble, has been taken to a Portland sanitarium.

Miss Mary Allen and Miss Mary Knight will leave soon to attend school in Portland during the winter months.

B. F. Gray, of Portland, was here last week attending to his real estate interests. Mr. Gray owns property in the Upper Valley.

You are ready for spraying now. Get your line and vitrol from Whitehead.

C. H. Stranahan was a Portland visitor Saturday. He was accompanied home by his son, Oscar, who has been in school in Portland.

Miss Elizabeth Ware, Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Handaker, went to Mt. Hood Monday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pope.

Wilson C. Peery, the advance agent of the O. A. C. Glee Club was here Tuesday arranging for the club's presentation here in February.

Spring bulbs now on hand. Hyacinth, Narcissus, Daffodils, Jonquils, etc. A choice lot of peonies and roses for plant planting. Oakdale Greenhouses, Fletcher & Fletcher.

Robert Rawls, of Utah, arrived Monday evening to be the holiday guest of Fred McCrea. Mr. Rawls and Mr. McCrea were in college together.

J. F. Thompson, manager of the Hydro Electric Co., left Saturday afternoon for Portland to spend the Christmas holidays with his family.

If you want shoes that don't go wrong go to Johnson's.

John Goldsberry, of the Upper Valley, left last Thursday to spend the Christmas holidays and a part of the winter months with relatives in Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harbison have issued invitations to a celebration of their Silver Wedding on Monday at their home, Fair Acres, at Hillsboro.

S. T. Ricketts and family have removed from their Pine Grove place into the Upper Valley near Parkdale, where Mr. Ricketts is the owner of property.

SOME PEOPLE SWEAR OFF using tobacco and liquor, but they never swear off using Log Cabin Bread, because it is so good. For sale at W. A. Turner, down town, and A. C. Staten, up town.

For line and vitrol see Whitehead.

Among the Christmas guests of Col. and Mrs. W. F. Tucker were their two nephews, Chester Johnson and Harold Wilder, both formerly of Chicago, but who are now living in Portland.

Special—Five-room bungalow and barn, two lots on corner, for quick sale, $2,000. G. Y. Edwards & Co.

At the Baptist church on the Heights next Sunday night Mr. Hargreaves' sermon subject will be "Cutting a New Road." New Year's services. A cordial welcome to all.

Embroidery at the Glacier office.

Rubber Stamps at the Glacier office.

Job printing at the Glacier office.

The Congregational Aid will meet with Mrs. C. K. Marshall tomorrow afternoon. All members are urged to be present. Important elections of officers will be conducted.

W. J. Gower, of Central Vale, left last week for Victoria to spend the holidays. Mr. Gower, who with Will Fernyough purchased a tract of land in Central Vale last Spring, has been actively engaged during the Summer and Fall improving it.

Shoes made or repaired at Johnson's.

Fred L. Mack and Miss Emma Bross were married at the Methodist parsonage Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. W. B. Young. Mr. and Mrs. Mack, who left after the wedding for a short trip to Portland, will make their home in the valley.

Stiles Swallow, who is at his home in Baltimore, Md., spending the Christmas vacation, writes that he is making the most of the festive season. Mr. Swallow announces that he will be with Hood River friends again by the first of February with a number of good stories.

Now is the time to buy cheap slaw wool. A. C. Loft, phone 310-X.

At the Unitarian Church next Sunday Mr. MacDonald will speak on Prayer. Is private prayer essential or even helpful? Is public prayer sincere? The two main divisions of the sermon will be Prayer and Communion. All are cordially invited.

With a large number of guests present, the Fifth Annual Reception of the Alumni Association of the Hood River High School was held last night at the Assembly Hall of the High School. An enjoyable time was had by those in attendance.

Wood for Sale—All kinds, carloads only. H. K. Davenport, Phone Odell 166.

Dr. J. F. Beaumont and Dr. William S. Knox, who associated in practice in Portland, and Mrs. Beaumont and Mrs. Knox spent the Christmas holidays with Hood River Valley friends. Dr. and Mrs. Beaumont were here the guests of Col. and Mrs. W. E. Tucker and Dr. and Mrs. Knox visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Dimmick left last Friday evening for Starbuck, where they spent the holidays with relatives. They accompanied as far as Pendleton Mrs. Rosie Foglesong and Lester Thompson, Mrs. Dimmick's sister and brother, respectively, who were returning from this city, where they had been to attend the funeral services of their brother, to Austin, their home.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Belmont Methodist church will hold a catered supper Wednesday night, at five o'clock Dec. 27th at Park Grange Hall.

Horace G. Kauffman, secretary of the Commercial Club, was in Portland Saturday evening attending the banquet given to the governors of the Northwestern states. Harlan, Mr. Kauffman's son, who is attending Stanford University, met his father in Portland. He accompanied him to the banquet and returned with him to Hood River, where he will spend two weeks.

Oh, say Mike! Have you been to see? yes, something you haven't seen, that's the Cash Market which does business on a large scale with small profits. Make us a visit. Free delivery. Phone 228-K.

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

J. K. McGregor was in the city last night for the installation of the officers of the Masonic orders.

Wanted—A delivery team. Must not weigh more than 1100 pounds and must be young.

F. W. Dehart, of Hood, Wash., where he is engaged in the mercantile business, transacted business in the city last Thursday.

Mrs. Seneca Fouts arrived yesterday from her home in Portland to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker.

Meigs W. Bartness arrived Sunday from Pittsburg, where he is connected with the Westinghouse Co., for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bartness.

Hello, Boys! Happy New Year. Don't forget to start the new year right by attending the dance at Pine Grove January 1. Big oyster supper. Music by Newman's orchestra.

C. R. Bone joined Mrs. Bone in Portland Sunday and remained over for Christmas day with Mrs. Bone's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Bone will leave soon to spend the winter in southern California.

Charles L. Wheeler spent the holidays in Portland, the guest of his friend, Oscar J. Tillison. Mr. Wheeler was present at the banquet given to the Northwestern governors Saturday evening.

We are prepared to overhaul and paint automobiles in a first-class manner. We also all kinds of machine and repair work. Welding of cast iron, aluminum, and brass by the Oxy-Acetylene process a specialty. We can weld frozen and burst water jackets on gasoline engine cylinders and save you money.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Edwards and daughter have returned from spending the holidays with Mrs. Edwards' parents in Newberg. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Simms and family will return today. The latter are bringing their household goods with them and will make their permanent home here. They have taken the Rand house on State street next to the Congregational church.

Nine Hour Dinner.

Daniel McNeal holds the epicure's record for long distance eating, his Christmas dinner at Mousen's having lasted nine hours, and only being cut short by his arrest, says a New York dispatch. To get an early start, McNeal began eating at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 4 o'clock he said he would await the arrival of a friend from Boston. When the friend had not arrived the police were called, as the proprietor feared the men might have left Boston for New York.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and women in the field of "Wireless" or Railway Telegraphy. Since the School has become effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers.

Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Oregon, operates under the supervision of R. B. and Wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions.

It will pay you to write them for full details.

THE DALLIES IRON WORKS, The Dalles, Oregon.

H. L. Fording is home for the holidays.

Peter Shively was in Portland for Christmas day.

Rev. and Mrs. Stark spent the holidays in The Dalles.

Ed. Hawkes and family spent the holidays in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Molden spent the holidays in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Green have gone to Portland for the winter.

Will Graham, of Portland, is here with relatives for the holidays.

Mrs. Etta Bancroft was with friends in Portland over the week end.

A. O. Adams, of Cascade Locks, was here last week on business.

Mrs. L. S. Ainsworth is spending the holidays with Portland friends.

Miss Lucile Brawn spent the holidays at Yoncalla with her parents.

O. T. Wedemeyer and family spent the holidays with Portland friends.

Mrs. Frank Van Horn is spending several days with Portland relatives.

W. B. Davidson, of Coeur d'Alene is here with his brother, F. S. Davidson.

Misses Josephine and Clemmie Eicholz were in Portland for a few days.

The Misses Seabrook were in Portland the first of the week visiting friends.

Miss Evelyn Schudel, of Spokane, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fleming.

W. H. LaFollette, son of "Little Bob," was here last week looking over the valley.

Miss Lulu Tidd and Miss Vera Stewart were visitors in Portland during the holidays.

Walter Dabney and Miss Mary Dabney were in Portland with friends over the week end.

A. T. Reed spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Reed, who are in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Duncan were in Portland with Mrs. Duncan's parents during the holidays.

Mrs. Ben Thaysen, of Portland, was here the first of the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Maher, of Portland, have been visiting Mr. Maher's brother, Mr. M. Maher.

A number of young men were entertained at Christmas dinner by Rector and Mrs. Edmund Trow Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sprout had as their guests E. V. Skibbe, of The Dalles, and E. V. Knapp, of Portland.

Lester Jeffries, who is residing in Spokane, is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jeffries.

Miss Stone, who has been in school in Portland, is here spending the vacation with her father, A. W. Stone, of Dec.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe left Sunday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Mallor. They will probably remain till Spring.

Bishop Robert L. Paddock accompanied by Miss A. J. Knight, has been here with his sister, Mrs. F. G. Hutchins.

Miss Lottie Kincaid is here with her parents for the holidays. Miss Kincaid is attending the Washington University at Seattle.

The Hood River High School basketball team beat the Alumni team last Saturday night in a hot contest at the Armory—score 20 to 11.

Rev. E. C. Perry and family have left for Stockton, Calif., to make their home.

Miss Deborah Miner and Miss Gonia, of Portland, were here during the holidays visiting Mrs. H. F. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Gillam, of Portland, spent the holidays with Mrs. Gillam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Jackson.