Mrs. W. F. Laraway is now harvesting some beautiful roses from her garden. Tuesday she picked an Opheelia blossom of immense size that had a stem two feet long. Richard Allison Wylie, of Victoria, B. C., arrived recently for a visit with his friend Robert Barton, who is now on the West Side ranch place. Mr. Barton spent the winter in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stewart, of Hollywood, Calif., have arrived by automobile for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. A. L. Day, and family. They have the highest praise for Oregon scenery. Friends have just received news of the recent wedding, at Vancouver, of Miss Thora Miller, former stenographer at the office of Dan Wulle & Co., and Will La Bonte, ex-service man who recently completed a course at Benson Polytechnical Institute. First cherries for the season, a small sweet variety of unknown name, were marketed Saturday by K. Matsumoto, Japanese lessee of the Morton place. The cherries were retailed by the Consolidated Mercantile Co. for five cents per pound. Four automobile loads of Boy Scouts left early Friday morning for Eagle Creek, where they spent the week end encamped. The Scouts, in charge of C. C. Newhouse, enjoyed their time on hikes back to the top of the Columbia brakes, studying woodcraft and fishing. Don Lewis and family, of Pomeroy, Wash., en route to Portland by automobile, stopped here last week for a short visit with their friend, Ed Poier, of the P. & L. office. Mr. Lewis, who is now Pomeroy Ford distributor, was formerly district manager for the power concern. Mr. and Mrs. William Ganger and their son, Ralph, and wife and daughter, were here last week to attend the homecoming of Odd Fellows and to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ferguson. The homecoming event attracted a large attendance, and Odd Fellows were here from Mosier, Cascade Locks and various valley points. Grant Hargy, former local resident, who now resides at Hanford, Calif., arrived last week for a visit with Lee Slutz, Mr. Slutz, who has returned from Portland, where an operation was recently performed for relief of injuries sustained in a rail jitney wreck last fall, is again at work but he has not entirely recovered. I have made arrangements to have my graders built in Portland and will have a machine in Hood River for your inspection in the near future. Don't order your grader until you have seen this up-to-date machine. One feature alone will save you from $1.00 to $3.00 every day you use it according to size machine used. Timothy Newell. m294f The W. C. T. U., of the Pine Grove district, has adopted a resolution favoring the bill to be voted on in June of establishing juries composed partly of women. The resolution cites that women are eligible to jury service in Washington, California and Idaho. It states that attorneys and prosecutors of these commonwealths endorse women jury service. H. S. George exhibited some handsome roses, of salmon and golden tint in the Electric Kitchen Saturday. Some of the big blossoms were double and others were simple. Grown by J. H. Ferguson they attracted a good deal of attention. Mr. George is a lover of flowers and his place always winter and summer, displays handsome bouquets. J. H. Fredrick, C. C. Crew, G. A. Molden and C. A. Bell motored to Parkdale last week when they attended a meeting staged by the Men's Forum of the Upper Valley in behalf of the $350,000 trunk line and Mount Hood Loop road bond issue. Upper Valley sentiment, the men state, indicates that the roads would receive almost a unanimous vote in that section. Apples in the Husum district, according to J. E. Slade, are setting well. He says the district will harvest the largest crop in its history. Growers, he says, are preparing for heavy thinning. This expense will reach a material figure this year, he declares. Mr. Slade also states that the Bartlett pear crop of the district is excellent. J. J. Ward and wife, who spent the winter at Long Beach, arrived last week by automobile to spend the summer here. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garbrant and two children, who have spent the past three years living at San Pedro and Los Angeles, also toured north. Both parties report the high-ways between southern California and Oregon in excellent condition. Mr. Garbrant drove the distance in 84 days. The warm, clear weather was inviting except for a stretch near McMinnville, where no paving exists.

The Pythian Sisters Tuesday evening gave a surprise party for Mrs. Jennie Hunt, who will leave soon for La Grande to make her home, her son, Glenn Hunt, having been transferred to the Standard Oil office there. Mrs. Hunt was presented with a handsome Pythian Sisters pin. When a crew of men last week began to excavate for piers of the new theatre building they unearthed what was at first thought to be a cavern. Pioneers, however, recalled that an abandoned well, used to supply the city with water in early days, was located at the spot. Situated at the exact spot for a pier of the new structure, it eliminated the labor digging to bedrock. Mrs. C. H. Sletton will present her pupils in recital at Library hall this afternoon at 2.30. Any one interested in investing. The following will participate: Prince Koberg, Paul Keir, Elwin House, Lewis Jones, Edwin House, Pearl Budd, Alice Blowers, Zoe Seoben, Eileen Johnson, Helen Jones, Doris House, having been transferred to the Standard Oil office there. When a crew of men last week began to excavate for piers of the new theatre building they unearthed what was at first thought to be a cavern. Pioneers, however, recalled that an abandoned well, used to supply the city with water in early days, was located at the spot. Situated at the exact spot for a pier of the new structure, it eliminated the labor digging to bedrock. Mrs. C. H. Sletton will present her pupils in recital at Library hall this afternoon at 2.30. Any one interested in investing. The following will participate: Prince Koberg, Paul Keir, Elwin House, Lewis Jones, Edwin House, Pearl Budd, Alice Blowers, Zoe Seoben, Eileen Johnson, Helen Jones, Doris House, having been transferred to the Standard Oil office there. Mrs. Hunt was presented with a handsome Pythian Sisters pin.
