COMMERCIAL CLUB MEMBERS DILATORY

Hood River Commercial Club members are dilatory in payment of their dues, according to officers of the organization, and the declaration has been made that the organization's commodious quarters may be closed if the citizens continue to decline prompt payment of their dues.
"It has reached the point," says J. H. Fredrick, president of the club, "where some of us have to be continually busy coaxing enough money out of members behind with the dues to run the organization. We barely get in enough to pay current bills. We have a large membership, and, if all would meet with dues promptly, would be in position to work out a program for community good. As it is, our funds will not permit us to carry out the work outlined."

Golden Memories

1871—June 20—1921
Memories' pages; turn them over
Angel of the Backward Look.
Bring again with clearer vision
Records written in thy Book.
Youth and maiden, hands united
Two score years and ten ago,
With God's blessing face the future
Joys and trials, all must know.
She, from shores of rock-bound Plym-outh
Certainties back her forbears sought
As their goal, a larger life, with
Freedom of religious thought.
He, from westward pressing parents,
Steadily they push their way.
Hardships, trials, joys and pleasures
Cannot long their progress stay.
Now on shores of blue Pacific
Hear again this solemn vow:
"Where thou goest, will I follow,
But one God and people now."

Ten years gone, for Time is fleeting,
Visions fade; in place appear
Winding pathways, varied landscapes
Interspersed with children dear.
Children four remain to bless them.
Two to God have led the way.
Teaching, preaching, working, striving,
In far paths their footsteps stray.
Indian wars, deep snows of winter,
Stalking death in varied form,
Lean of purse, but strong of spirit
Came they through these—free from harm.
Decade two, unfolds before them,
Rugged mountains steep and high,
Darksome glens with childhood terrors,
Block the way their will to try.
Crossed in safety, Eden greets them,
Winding roads where pine trees
shade,
Trickling streams and fragrant blossoms,
Wild fruits carpeting the glade.
Here they hew from out the wilderness,
Home, which still remains today,
Here the place where all may gather
From far paths, where Youth will stray.
Close the decade. Children seven
Gather now on every hand.
Early flight two more have taken
To the bounds of Heaven's land.
Thirty years. How runs the record?
Failed they? No, no, no, through
Many trials and dangers, came they.
Fledglings eight are now in view.
Nest unbroken, flock unscattered,
Mouths are filled and precepts
taught.
Ne'er despairing, ever striving,
Higher levels daily sought.
Not of profit reeked they ever,
Strove to serve their fellow man.
Sought to show such firm foundation
As but God's approval can.
Two score years; the nest o'er flowing;
Gladly would they hover all,
But the flock is scattered, scattered,
Many now have heard the call.
To be fruitful and replenish;
Earth seldue; dominion hold—
First instruction, oft neglected,
By God given to Adam of old.
Gone are they. Yet oft they gather,
Daughters, sons, grandchildren dear,
Pastimes told, new hopes unfolded
And the old home rings with cheer.
Blessed days! We now recall them,
All things "fuss and memories" fade—
Still we can forget—ah, never!
Joyous hearthstone that they made.

Softly, softly,—has she left us?
Gone the smile that welcomed all,
Yet we know that she is standing
Still in sound of spirit call.
Fifty years; the sands are running
Swiftly down Life's western slope,
Empty then the hour glass? Never!
Eternity and God and Hope.
Wait the future; and the present?
Circle round them one and all;
In your lives their lives continued
Here on Earth; and when The Call
Which soon must come, is by them answered.
They, from Heaven's nearer shore,
Angel-guard will then be keeping
With the loved ones gone before,
—Ralph Seymour Shelley.

Race Track Suggested

Ranchers and business men have suggested to the county fair board the inclusion of a race course in plans for permanent fair grounds. Those supporting the movement for a race track declare that such a feature would permit the operation of a fair a full week instead of the two days as now planned. They assert that large Portland and out of town lists of patrons would be attracted here.

D. E. Stanton III Again

D. E. Stanton, Civil war veteran, on his return here again, became violent. Officers were called to the home Wednesday night of last week. Mr. Stanton threatening assault on his wife. The case is a pitiful one. Mr. Stanton is 77 years old, and physicians say he has but a short time to live. His mind had cleared at Pendleton, and he was permitted to return to Hood River.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the home often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

FEEL ALL USED UP?

Many Hood River People Do

Does your back ache constantly? Do you have sharp twinges when stooping or lifting? Feel all used up—as if you could just go no farther? Why not look to your kidneys? Why not use Doan's Kidney Pills? Hood River people have done so. They tell you the result.
Mrs. A. E. King, 1210 13th St., Hood River, says: "My kidneys were in a bad condition and I could hardly do my housework, especially mornings. I felt run down and worn out and my back ached considerably. I had frequent headaches and my kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they soon straightened out the trouble. The backaches and that tired feeling left and my kidneys acted naturally and regularly."
Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. King had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
