ROBERG BEACH

The general public should show an appreciation of John Koberg's Non-pareil Beach by a full patronage.

The Glacier has received the suggestion that some enterprising jitney bus owner could tender a service to the city and derive a profit for himself by inaugurating a special bus service...

THE LEGION

The American Legion, through expression of its national commander and various officials last week, urged the elimination from national life of any activities fostering religious bigotry.

"For God and country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the constitution of the United States; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the class and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

If Hood River civic organizations can do anything toward hastening the completion of the Mount Hood Loop Highway, they should act. Let Multnomah county fulfill all her promises, in order that the great line may be entirely finished as soon as possible.

Hood River ought to have more conventions. They are profitable to any town. Ask The Dalles folk, who say their new auditorium was one of the best investments ever made. We can hold conventions here now fairly conveniently. We have the Columbia Gorge Hotel, with its excellent service. The Rialto theatre is large enough to take care of the crowds of the average convention.

The Columbia Gorge Hotel is proving more and more an asset to Hood River. The benefits that will come from the pleasant dinner dance, a feature of entertainment for the visiting apple shippers Monday night, will come to our observation years hence. The service at our tourist hostelry cannot be bettered anywhere in the country. We should be very proud of the hotel and appreciative of the public spirited enterprise of Simon and Amos Benson.

W. A. DeLashmott, custodian of the Commercial Club, is making many friends for Hood River by his courtesies to motoring tourists. Mr. DeLashmott daily furnishes visitors with publicity literature. For hours he talks with tourists seeking information, and when he has finished answering questions, the visitor has gained a comprehensive knowledge of Hood River valley products and scenery.

In the July number of Western Fruit, a Seattle orchardists' publication, Hood River receives some beneficial publicity. An article by G. C. Crew gives full information on our valley. On the cover page is a picture of Lost Lake by Donnerberg, and in illustration of Mr. Crew's article appears a view of the valley from a Reeves perspective.

JOHN ELDER IS KILLED BY TRAIN

John Elder, of Mosier, was killed at the Creswell crossing in Lane county Tuesday afternoon by the Shasta limited. A freight train was standing on the passing track on the west side of the main track, and Mr. Elder, with Mr. Lister, of Albany, was coming east in an automobile. The flagman of the freight train stopped their car and the men got out. Mr. Elder then started across the track and was struck by the train.

The body was taken to Eugene. The men had been looking at a ranch west of Creswell.

OREGON WINS DIRECTOR OF ROAD BUREAU

Progressive activity of road builders of Oregon won for them a friend in Thomas McDonald, of Washington, D. C., chief director of the United States Bureau of Public Roads. On tour of the Pacific coast, gaining first hand information on projects in which his department is interested, Mr. McDonald and a party of highway officials spent Tuesday night at the Columbia Gorge Hotel, where they talked until the wee small hours with Host Amos Benson, himself a leading good roads enthusiast of this section.

"You men of the west," said Mr. McDonald, "are ahead of eastern road-builders. It was a gratifying surprise to me to find your highways on such permanent grades and of such easy curvature. Although the topography of your country might give you excuse not to, you are building roads on better and straighter grades than can be found in the east. No one can view the work that you have been doing without being impressed."

The party of Director McDonald included: Dr. L. R. Hewes, chief of the California division of the Bureau of Public Roads; J. S. Bright, chief engineer of California; C. H. Purcell, engineer of the Portland office; Herbert Nunn, Oregon State Highway engineer; C. T. McCullough, bridge engineer for the Oregon commission; and State Highway Commissioner J. B. Yeon. Except Mr. Yeon, who returned to Portland with Mr. Benson, the highway men left at daybreak for the Deschutes river. There they turned and journeyed, before stopping last night, to Seaside.

"Mr. McDonald was impressed with our campaign to remove road signs," said Mr. Yeon. "He declares that it is the best step he has seen highway commissions taking, and he declared that he would put our plans into practice all over the country." Mr. McDonald's interest in Oregon is largely centered in the Mount Hood Loop Highway. He will return here later to inspect portions of the road already constructed.

WEDDINGS

Russell-Mehills. Following their wedding Friday, Charles D. Russell, of Seattle, and Miss Zereta F. Mehills, of Portland, left at once for a honeymoon in the forests around the base of Mount Adams. A feature of the honeymoon vacation will be, they said, an ascent of the snow peak.

The wedding occurred at the home of Rev. J. C. Hanna, who officiated.

Smith-Wallace. The wedding of Carl L. Smith, son of Lee F. Smith, and Hazel V. Wallace was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Wallace, Thursday, July 27. Raymond C. Smith, pastor of the Valley Christian church, officiated. Only members of the two immediate families were present. The young couple left at once for a short honeymoon in Portland. They will be at home to their many friends after August 1 on the West Side orchard place of William Munroe.

Hanna-Travice. The wedding of Wallace Hanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hanna, of Mt. Hood, and Miss Maude Travice occurred Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Travice of this city, at high noon. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna will make their home on a Mt. Hood ranch place.

McLain-Skogen. The wedding of Miss Thea C. Skogen and Harold C. McLain, both of Portland, was solemnized yesterday at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Rev. Hanna officiating. Mr. and Mrs. McLain will make their home in Portland.

CO. C NOTES

Howard Blackman has been named second lieutenant of Co. C, to succeed Robert G. McNary. Ivan Schear has succeeded Mr. Blackman as first sergeant of the company. A contingent of Co. C men will go to Clackamas again next Sunday for target practice. All making the trip should report to Capt. Van Horn or Lt. Blackman before Saturday night. Scores were made last Sunday by local men as follows: Bailey, 261; Van Horn, 251; Roger Blackman, 214, and Shrum, 205.

Tennis Interest Keen

Several entries for the Hood River county tennis tournament have been made and indications are that there will be many close matches. Further entries will be communicated to Earl Shank up to Saturday August 5, when entries will be closed and drawings made. Contenders will then be notified by the committee by mail or phone against whom they are to play, and it is intended to play off the first two rounds during the week ending, August 12.

Alleged Forger Taken

A youth who gave his name as Al M. Warren, of Salt Lake, was captured by police Tuesday soon after he had passed three forged checks, totaling $59.50, on merchants. The checks purported to have been drawn by R. E. Nielson, a fictitious character, for ranch labor.

Cussing Case Peters Out

G. W. Lee complained in municipal court Friday that E. Rogers, a neighbor, had used profane and abusive language in an altercation with his son. Families and friends of the two men were summoned as witnesses to the court of Municipal Judge Howe. Not a single witness, however, after the oath had been administered, was able to recall that any real "cuss words" had been used, and Judge Howe ordered the case thrown out of court. He admonished the families to keep their neighborhood quarrels out of public tribunals.

"MINERS" IN CITY MAKE UNIQUE SHOW

Several "miners" staked out claims and pitched tents in Hood River grocery store windows this week, where you may see them busy preparing breakfast of flapjacks over glowing camp fires. The almost human way in which they pitched their tents and the flapjacks out to the edge of the pan and flap them over is quite amusing and remarkable. Look for the miner on package when purchasing cereals. It is Albers Bros. Milling Co.'s trademark and stands for uniform products of the highest quality, backed up by an organization of nearly 1,000 stockholders and eight up-to-the-minute cereal mills, all located on the Pacific coast.

Step into any of the following stores this week, where our demonstrators are working and taste Albers New Process Instant Tapioca Pudding and receive free sample of Albers' Flapjack Flour. The summer hot cake that's good in winter. Consolidated Grocery, Grand Central, Frasier's Grocery, 20th Century Grocery.
