Pickers Like These Bags

Our Portland Picking Bags have a soft flap next to the body. The shoulder straps rest in front, so the picker drops and doesn't throw the apples in to the sack. They are adjustable to hold any quantity. Bennett Brothers,

FUNERAL SERVICES OF E. E. DOANE SUNDAY

Funeral services for E. E. Doane, West Side orchardist, who died Saturday at the Cottage hospital, were held Sunday afternoon from the Anderson chapel, Rev. Gabriel Sykes officiating.
Interment followed at Idlewild cemtery. Mr. Doane, native of New York state and 61 years old, was stricken suddenly last week. His death was so sudden that but few of his close friends and neighbors knew of it, and the news brought a distinct shock to the community.
Mr. Doane and his family came here 12 years ago. Survivors are: His widow and the following children:
Mrs. H. W. Whitley, of Deer; Mrs.
Myrl McCallister, and Dorothy and Jack, all of Hood River.

Clyde Pattee Buried Here

The body of Clyde Pattee, aged 35 years, who died September 17 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.
G. Pattee, of Hillsboro, was brought here for interment at Idlewild cemtery. Mr. Pattee, who has been ill for several years, was born in Klickitat county, Washington, April 25, 1887.
He graduated from the Hood River high school in 1908 and from the University of Oregon, where he majored in electrical engineering, in 1914.
Mr. Pattee was married in 1917 to Miss Edith Baker at Eugene. He was formerly in charge of the Prosser Wash. plant of the Pacific Power & Light Co. In addition to his parents and wife, Mr. Pattee is survived by a sister, Miss Maude Pattee.

MACY-BAIRD CO. RETURNS FOR PLAYS

The Macy-Baird Co., with 15 players, has arrived for a repertoire of old time plays at a tent at the corner of Sixth and Cascade avenue. The company, here last year, won considerable popularity among citizens for their clean, wholesome shows.
The company has about 50 plays which they can give on a moment's notice.

Carnival Men Go Free

Justice of the Peace Onthank Tuesday dismissed criminal proceedings against E. S. Hansen and B. E. Wood, carnival owners, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. According to allegations the men gave checks that were protested. Judge Onthank stated that the testimony showed that the men, after giving the checks, had offered to make them good, having expressed the fear at the time that their balance might not be sufficient to cover them. The show men were arrested and returned from Tygh Valley, where they were present for a fair.

Cramer Succeeds Cannon

A. D. Cannon, who established the Twentieth Century branch grocery store here, has been transferred to the Sellwood store, Portland. He has been succeeded by Duncan Cramer, former Umatilla young man, who came here over a year ago to join the J. C. Penney Company, force. Mrs. Hanna Moore, of Portland, and Calvin Evinger, local young man, are now employed at the Twentieth Century store.
Mr. Cannon made many friends while located here and his leaving is regretted. Mr. Cramer is a popular young man and is being widely congratulated on his promotion.

Grange Store Growing

The Grange store, according to Manager MacMillan, is making a steady growth. Although not yet six months old, the store is now doing the business of a well established firm. Its average daily and weekly volume of business is about double that during its first month. The store sold a record quantity of goods Saturday, many apple-growers having visited here preparing for the harvest.

Constitution Day Observed

Attorneys of The Dalles and Hood River met at the Wasco county court house last Thursday afternoon to observe Constitution Day. Local counselors present were John Baker and Geo. R. Wilbur. At noon Thursday Judge Wilson delivered an address on the Constitution before the Kiwanis Club at The Dalles.
