

A VEGETABLE COURTSHIP.

A potato went out on a mash
 And sought an onion bed.
 "That's pie for me," observed the quash,
 And all the beets turned red.
 "Go away," the onion, weeping, cried.
 "Your love I cannot be.
 The pumpkin is your lawful bride,
 You cantaloupe with me."
 But, onward, still the tuber came
 And lay down at her feet.
 "You califlower by any name
 And it will smell as sweet,
 And I, too, am an Early Rose
 And you I've come to see,
 So don't turn up your lovely nose,
 But spinach at with me."

Assessor Duncan completed his labors on the assessment roll last Thursday. The County Board of Equalization is in session this week, prepared to listen to all grievances, if any, of the taxpayers. Remember that if there are any errors in your assessments now is the time to make your statement to the Board. If not corrected before Saturday afternoon next, the errors will stand against the taxpayer and no further changes can be made on the roll.

Road Supervisor Crump has been officially notified by the County Court to proceed to open the county road in North Warner, which has a destination at the Harney county line. Work will be prosecuted on this road so far as the private subscription fund will allow, and then the work will be completed by county appropriation. The subscription in cash and labor amounts to about $500—the amount in cash, $380.

R. L. Sloss, the genial senior editor of the Alturas New Era, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Lakeview last Friday, leaving for New Pine Creek Saturday evening. Bob was on his annual tour looking for business, and, as usual, there was "something doing."

The labor of census taking in this state has been completed and Chief Supervisor Winn has closed his office in Albany. It will probably be several weeks before the Census Bureau at Washington is able to make public the result of the census.

When you go to Klamath Falls don't fail to see C. D. Wilson the popular caterer at the Gem saloon. He carries the finest stock in town and will treat you right. The Gem is the popular resort. Try the Hermitage whisky there. 25-tf

Col. Fred Cox, the moving spirit of the big XL cattle firm, arrived at the ranch on the West Side from Sacramento last Thursday. Mr. Cox was looking after the firm's interests here for several days.

Do you know a good thing when you see it? If you do pick up the snap The Examiner offers in the 266-acre alfalfa ranch in Goose Lake valley. Enquire about it.

You don't want to forget that Post & King, the popular dispensers, are still in it. They are under the opera house. Call and see them. 22

Pease & Mays sold a clip of 40,000 pounds of wool at The Dalles last week at 13½ and 13¼ cents.

Fourteen cents was refused for a choice clip of wool at Huntington last week.

Choice residence lots for sale. Enquire at The Examiner office. 28-tf
