LAKEVIEW, OREGON, DEC. 11, 1902.

The second session of the Fifty-seventh Congress began Dec 1, with as little fuss as though only a week had passed since adjournment. With the exception of a big floral display on the desks in both houses, and the festival of handshaking joking and exchange of condolences among "lame ducks," the opening was devoid of exceptional incidents. The program mapped out by some of the knowing ones of the Senate is to the effect that there will be no tariff legislation no extra session, cautious legislation on trusts, and the passage of a Cuban reciprocity bill or treaty.

It is announced from Washington that the Government will begin irrigation work in Oregon next year. Just where this initial work will be done, or to what extent it will be carried on in this state is not yet known, but it is a very important beginning. Once a start is made, with successful results, the work will progress and expand, and be the means of adding tens of thousands to Oregon's population and millions to its wealth.

Professor Asser, the Dutch jurist, who has been arbitrating the claims of the American sealers for the seizure of their vessels by the Russian Government about ten years ago, has delivered his award in favor of the United States. He appraises the damages in the American schooner C. H. White at $32,444; in the case of the James Hamilton Lewis at $28,588; the Kate and Anna at $10,488 and the Cape Horn Pigeon at $38,750.

South Australia got its first sight of snow in the beginning of August of this year, when for the first time in about sixty years a fall took place in the populated parts of South Australia.

Ants have been burrowing under the brick pavements of Council Bluffs, Ia., and removing the sand. One street for a distance of several blocks has thus been rendered unfit for travel.

France is not without her share of labor troubles. Fifty-seven strikes are reported in the statistics issued for the month of June, while the first 6 months of 1901 have produced 306.

Swiss papers record a decline in the export of wood carvings and attribute it to the lack of variety in the carvings, the few subjects being monotonously repeated.

Out of 6,831 earthquakes which had been recorded in the world from the earliest times up to 1850 the British Isles experienced no fewer than 225.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist. Every box warranted.

HEROINE OF THE TRACY HUNT.

Miss Willie Mae Baker, the Seattle girl who had the unique though not altogether desirable distinction of remaining in the company of Desperado Tracy for a whole half day, when hundreds of deputies on all sides of them were seeking his life, is to be married. The young man to whom she has plighted her troth, Lee McKinney, is the son of Mrs. McKinney, who, with her little daughter, Ada, was picking berries with Miss Baker at the time Tracy met them and introduced himself. Another strange fact in connection with the personnel of the people who will attend the wedding is that Miss Baker's father, J. W. Baker, and her two uncles, Henry and Emitt Baker, were arrested at Castle Rock during the memorable man hunt, suspected of being Tracy and two pals.

Miss Baker distinguished herself chiefly for her great presence of mind and unconcernedness. It will be remembered that instead of screaming when Tracy made himself known to her, she said enthusiastically: "Really Mr. Tracy, I am glad to meet you." Then during the entire walk from the meeting place to the Garrell's home the two kept up a running fire of banter and repartee that was astonishing considering the unusual circumstances.

SAVED BY DREAM.

Wife of the Late Bishop Whipple Has a Strange Vision, Which is Verified.

The late Bishop Whipple, "apostle to the Indians," told a friend the following personal experience a few weeks before his death:

The bishop's first wife believed in dreams. She seldom dreamed, but when she did the dream came true. On a Sunday morning in October, at Fairbault, many years ago she awoke the bishop and told him that her son, the bishop's stepson, who was then in New Mexico, was dying. She had seen him in a dream, and there could be no mistake about it. She described him as he lay on a hard bed in a miserable adobe hut and declared that his serious condition was due to inattention. She urged the bishop to proceed without delay to New Mexico and rescue the boy.

A few hours later Bishop Whipple, obedient to his wife's wishes, was flying southward as fast as steam could the letter and reached his stepson's side just in time. The scene was just as Mrs. Whipple had described it.

It was apparent that the boy could scarcely survive another day in such surroundings. Bishop Whipple had left in such a hurry that he had neglected to bring any more money than he needed for his bare traveling expenses. In his dilemma he went to the bank and told his story to the cashier.

The cashier was impressed with the bishop's recital.

"Anyone could tell by looking at your face," said he, "that you are a bishop of the church of God and that you speak the truth. I will be glad to accommodate you. How much do you want?"

The bishop drew on the bank for $500 and he and the sick man were soon on their way north. The mother's dream saved the boy's life and the loan was repaid as soon as the bishop reached Fairbault.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC

Helm, Mont. Oct. 28, 1902.
Dr. C. A. Perrin,
Helm, Mont.

Dear Sir:—
I have been trying through the druggist here to obtain another bottle of your pile specific as I have been a sufferer from them off and on for some years. I saw thousands in the P. O. of Seattle, Wash., some time in May last. At that time I was 100 miles north of Seattle, so I went down to Seattle and bought it. I have used it up and have been trying to get more. It has helped me very much, more so than anything I have ever used and I have been very anxious to use another bottle. Very respectfully,
H. S. Chandler.
