Robert E. Brinstad, chief clerk in the Hotel Portland committed suicide in his room at 2 o'clock on the morning of Jan. 2, after a night with the boys. Brinstad had made a resolution not to drink any whiskey during 1906, to his young wife and broke the pledge before midnight. The wife went to bed early and wrote a note to her husband telling him "it was all off with them". He came home at 2 o'clock, and when his wife woke up he was standing in front of the mirror, and as she watched him he pulled a revolver, placed the muzzle to his temple and pulled the trigger before she could interfere. He died instantly.

The preliminary estimates of the Director of the mint upon the production of gold and silver in the United States in the calendar year 1906 shows a gain of approximately $6,000,000 in gold and 1,000,000 ounces of silver over the production of 1904.

The gain in gold is almost entirely represented by the increased output of Alaska, which is placed at $14,650,000, against $9,100,500 in 1904. The Alaska gain is nearly all in the Tanana district, the returns for which are $5,170,000.

California shows a loss of about $1,500,000, due to severe drought, which not only brought hydraulic operations to a standstill, but interfered with quartz mills to some extent. Nevada shows a gain of about $4,000,000 and Utah as much. Colorado gained about $10,000,000. South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Arizona are estimated about the same as in the previous year. The Clondyke continues to fall off and is about $2,000, below 1904.

The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business December 30, 1905, the total debt less cash in the treasury, amounted to $994,869,718, which is a decrease as compared with December 1, 1905, of $4,883,113. This decrease is largely accounted for by a corresponding decrease in the amount of cash on hand.

While celebrating holidays, John Hanley became drunk and proceeded to beat and otherwise abuse his family. He dragged his wife about the room by the hair of the head and was throwing her about shamefully when Night-watchman Jones was called and put him under arrest.

Blank petitions attached to copies of the new tax code law proposed by the tax committee of the Willamette Valley Development League were sent out by the president. The plan is to secure 7500 signatures to the petition and have the bill submitted to the voters of the state after the election in June of this year. There remain 30 days within which the required number of signatures may be secured.

The bill not only proposes new forms of taxation, such as an increase of the tax on insurance companies, taxes on the gross earnings of express, telephone and telegraph companies, taxes on Pullman, oil-tank and refrigerator-car companies, but also revises the general tax laws now in force.

Blank petitions are being sent to each county officer in the state, to each newspaper, and to about 1000 property-owners who are asked to help in securing signatures to the petition.

Four billion feet of lumber were cut in Washington in the year 1905. Two hundred billion feet are still standing, enough, at the rate of last year's cutting to supply mills for 50 years. This is the estimate made on the year's lumber business in this state by R. L. McCormick, secretary of the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Oregon has twice as much timber standing and is not cutting as fast as Washington. In the timber belt extending from British Columbia to California there is today standing 1000 billion of feet. There was more demand for lumber in this state than ever before.

Rim Rock Aerie, No. 777, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will give a Ball on Tuesday night, January 23rd, 1906.

All our friends are cordially invited to attend; if we have any enemies and we trust not, they also will be as welcome as the flowers in May.

Try to get your best girl or some other fellow's, if you cannot do so, get the next best and come.

We will do our utmost to make you have the best time of your lives, and date the time of all future social functions from this affair.

Understand that everybody is welcome. Leave your purse at home.

Wm. Steel, James Partin, Geo. H. Ayres, Committee.

At the Baptist Parsonage in this city, Dec. 7th, Samuel S. Wardwell, a highly respected young man of Silver Lake, led to the altar M. Rae Howard, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Elder J. H. and L. Howard Elder C. P. Bailey, officiating. The bride was dressed in cream albatros and the groom in black, made a handsome couple, indeed. They received a number of beautiful presents. They left on Tuesday's stage for Silver Lake, their future home. The best wishes of their many friends follow them.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week.

The Ladies' Outfitters.

Anna M. Neilon & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.

Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose.

We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE. tf

Mr. Froeman Post of Redlands, California, passed through Lakeview last week on his way from Summer Lake to his old home. Mr. Post has located in Lake county, and is going on a visit to his people in California. He called at this office to get some printed matter descriptive of the county to take to his folks as an inducement to them to come to Lake county. He was enthusiastic himself and wanted something more than his own plaudits to induce his people to come here. We did the best we could for Mr. Post and hope we have been instrumental in securing some good people to come to Lake county to live.

L. L. Russell and Wm. Deal came over from Lamson's Valley last Saturday. They say the stock is doing well in that section. Mr. Russell informed us that he picked up a mail sack containing the Lake County Examiner for the west that had been lost off the stage, and left them at J. A. Anderson's to catch the next stage out. Likely subscribers to The Examiner did not get their paper as soon as they expected.

The Editor acknowledges receipt of a copy of the new 1906 Kodol Almanac and 200 year Calendar. Its most important feature is without doubt the very simply constructed 200 Year Calendar whereby with absolute accuracy you can tell the day of the week on which any event occurred during one hundred years of the past, or on which any date will occur during the next hundred years, thus giving the day of the week on which any birth, death, marriage or any important event may have happened.

Messrs. E. C. Dewitt & Co., of Chicago, Ill., are the sole owners and publishers of the Kodol Almanac and 200 Year Calendar, and will be pleased to mail a copy of this booklet to any one of our subscribers enclosing a two cent stamp with a request for same provided they mention the fact that they are subscribers to The Lake County Examiner.
